decide that changed conditions make it advisable not to sell again.

For the present, the only thing to do is to wait and see what is coming.
The history of Associated stock has been one of surprises. At the present

Strictness the Cause.

The extreme shortage in road oil is attributed by local oil men as much to the strict hard and fast rules that are adopted by the authorities as to the actual shortage of oil production in the southern end of the State. This is undoubtedly true. Supervisors and Councilmen are beginning to realize that it is nothing more or less than a shameful waste of public funds to pay for oil for roads that is not suitable. The days when any old combination of slump oil with sand and water would be accepted are happily gone by.

As long as it is well-nigh impossible to get oil from the North this is, of course, bound to handicap the building of roads, or, rather, the pretense of building roads, for that is what much of the past work amounted to. If continued indefinitely it may even lead to the abandonment of oil on many roads, but this is very likely. In any event, it may as just as well be abandoned, so far as results are concerned, and much better, so far as public funds are concerned, than to continue the policy that was frequently followed for many years.

English Language Ahead.

"For centuries," says an authority,
"there has been what may be called a 'battle of tongues,' but English is winning all along the line. Today it is the dominant language of the world, being spoken by one hundred and twenty millions of people. Second-man, spoken by about 75,000,000. Gersia is third, very slightly behind Germany in point of numbers, with French follows with about 51,000,000.
Wonderful changes have taken place during the last century. In 1800 French held the first place and bade fair to become the world language. Russian,
German and Spanish came next, and English was a bad fifth. But now tongue can convey a meaning in so fewer words than any other, and this quality has brought it to the front.
In another century it will probably be spoken by half the people of the globe."

What Children Fear.

An examination of 1500 children recently made in the West shows that thunderstorms are by far the great terror of childhood.

Afterward, in the order set down, come snakes, strangers, darkness, being alone, wild animals, poverty, death, disease, water, insects and ghosts.

In the fear of rats and mice girls exceed boys in the ratio of 75 to 16.
Boys fear begins to diminish after the fifteenth year, in girls after the tenth.—[Minneapolis Journal.

GUILEFUL WOMAN.

Gould's Wife Plays for Millions.

Husband Charges His Former Actress Spouse Is After Fortune.

Friend Declares All Chance of Reconciliation Thing of the Past.

Will Determinedly Fight Her Suit for Divorce to Bitter End.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Joined with the suit of Mrs. Howard Gould to obtain a divorce from her husband it was said today by a close friend of her husband that there was an effort on the part of the wife to obtain $4,000,000 or the permanent income thereof as her share of the Gould fortune.

This attempt to wrest from him a big slice of his fortune, Gould's friend said, would be resisted to the utmost by the millionaire and he would also fight to a finish his wife's suit.

This man said that all hope of an amicable settlement between Gould and his wife had passed, and that the publication of his wife's side of the case had caused the husband to resist not only any onslaught that might be made upon his purse, but also fight the charges made in the wife's complaint.

"Mr. Gould feels that he is in a very difficult position with respect to his wife," the friend said, "she may attack him all she pleases, both in private and in public, yet he will not make a counter attack.

"Every effort has been made by Mrs. Gould's friends to paint her as an angel and her husband as a man who was using all his money and ingenuity to persecute her. When Gould's answer to his wife's suit is filed his friends believe the public will take a different view of the case.

AN ULTERIOR MOTIVE.

"There was an ulterior motive to the airing of Mrs. Gould's side of the case in public. Mr. Gould, as well as his friends, realize that the main object of his wife is to get as much money out of him as she can. She wants $4,000,000 from him, and she has told friends that she intends to get it. Mr. Gould has no desire to let his wife want for anything, but at the same time he does not intend to give up the millions she asks.

"It was no secret that Howard Gould contemplated beginning an action against his wife. She immediately engaged a lawyer, and commenced suit for separation. Now, Gould has no overwhelming desire to live with his wife. He does not intend to implore her to come back to him; in fact, he is just as satisfied to live apart from her forever. Mrs. Gould also does not care to live with her husband.

"She says in her complaint that she has suffered deep humiliation and much mental anxiety, because of his actions. When the full story of the troubles of the couple are told in court the public will be able to judge which of the two suffered most.

"The charge has been made that Mr. Gould used the detective bureau to further his ends. How about Mrs. Gould using the police department to further her ends?"

WOMEN ARE TO RULE FINLAND.

WILL KEEP THE HORRID MEN UNDER THEIR THUMBS.

Illegitimate Children to Be Given Full Property Rights—Prohibition and Free Education May Be Forced on the Country—Great Female Political Union in Prospect.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

HELSINGFORS (Finland) May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A country absolutely ruled by women appears to be the destiny of Finland. The nineteen women members of the Finnish diet form the feminine opening wedge for a government by women, for women and of women, with the men granted only such privileges as will serve to keep them in line. If they get the power they intend to do away with the sanction of the church in marriages—in other words, to pass a law legalizing "free marriages."

The women have pledged themselves to pass a bill granting illegitimate children the legal property rights of children in wedlock. They aim to pass a law forbidding the importation or manufacture of intoxicating liquor and to establish free education for all.

School teachers, editors, washerwomen, farmers' wives and members of the old Swedish aristocracy are among the first women members of a national Legislature.

On being asked what her aim was in organizing the working women and domestic servants in the socialistic union, Mrs. Sillanapa, one of the socialist members, answered:

"My aim is to unite all the women in a strong political body and then have them urge their employers and men whom they can influence, to work for everything the union is in favor of. More than 60 per cent. are already organized. Thirty per cent. more and our goal is reached. Our every demand will be satisfied when all the working women of the country are united. We will be the rulers of the entire country, and then we will decide what shall be the proper programme to carry out."

SLAUGHTER SHOCKS KUROKI.

Valiant Japanese General Shudders at Sight of Butcher Killing Hogs in Chicago.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gen. Kuroki, great Japanese warrior, who shuddered not at terrible battle scenes in the Japanese-Russian War, shrank today from the bloody killing floors at the Union Stock Yards.

It was at Swift & Company's plant that the Japanese soldier got his first view of commercial slaughter of porkers. As a stalwart butcher plunged his knife into a hog's throat, the aged general sprang to one side, deeply affected.

Gen. O. E. Wood of the United States Army, who was in charge of the Japanese visitors, noticed Gen. Kuroki's agitation and holding up his hands, gave the signal to go on.

Kuroki and his party passed two busy hours in the stock yards, which closed with a luncheon at the Saddle and Sirloin Club. Preceding his visit to the packing firm, Kuroki paid his respects to Mayor Busse at the City Hall.

THOUSANDS VIEW BELOVED DEAD.

CANTON PAYS HOMAGE TO BODY OF MRS. M'KINLEY.

Lies in State in Room Where Rested Martyred Husband — Funeral Services Will Be Very Simple and Without Garish Display—President and Vice-President to Attend.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CANTON (O.) May 28.—Eight thousand people passed through the McKinley home this afternoon and viewed the body of Mrs. William McKinley. Cantonians paid their tribute in the best way they could, since the privilege of any funeral decorations in the city or any general municipal participation in the ceremonies had been denied them. It had been stated that admission to the home would be from 3 to 5 o'clock. At 1:30 today, however, women and children lined up in front of the house, waiting to pass by the casket. The doors were opened at 2:30 and from that time until 5:30 the people paid silent but sorrowful tribute to the woman they loved. The casket rests in the room, and in the same place where the body of President McKinley was placed while in the family home.

The funeral services tomorrow afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, will be simple and brief. Dr. Buxton, present pastor of the first Methodist Episcopal Church and Dr. Holmes, former pastor, will have charge. Musical selections will be sung at the services. The same music as was used at the funeral of the late President McKinley—"Beautiful Isle of Somewhere," "Lead, Kindly Light," and "Nearer, My God, to Thee"—will be rendered by a quartette.

Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Greene will sing a duet, "The Angel," by Rubenstein. The President and party are to arrive here at 12:45, and will proceed to the residence of Justice William R. Day and then to the McKinley residence. In the funeral cortège to the cemetery, the President's carriage will follow the family carriage; next in order will be officials representing the State and city. The ritual services at the vault in Westlawn Cemetery will be brief. President Roosevelt will immediately thereafter go to his train and leave for Indianapolis.

Vice-President Fairbanks arrived this morning. Gov. Harris and other State officers will come on a special train tomorrow.

ADMIRAL EVANS BACKS UP TARS.

HE RESENTS EXCLUDING THEM FROM JAMESTOWN FAIR.

Tartly Tells Exposition Managers That if Jackies Are Insulted Warships Will Leave Hampton Roads. Treatment of Foreign Sailors Involves United States.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Fighting Bob" Evans, backed up by the President and the Navy Department, is up in arms against the managers of the Jamestown Exposition for discriminating against American and foreign sailors in uniform. These men are not permitted to enter the amusement places at the fair.

Official notice has been served on Gov. Swanson of Virginia and the officers of the exposition company that unless explanations and apologies are promptly forthcoming every American warship will be withdrawn and kept away from Hampton Roads during the remainder of the Jamestown fair.

As to the insults said to have been offered to the sailors of the foreign warships, it may be necessary for this government to face the embarrassment of explaining and apologizing to the other countries. The matter has been reported officially to the President and the Secretary of the Navy. The President and Secretary Metcalf are indignant because of the insults offered to both American and foreign sailors by the managers of the places of amusements, including public gardens, dancing pavilions, etc., near the exposition grounds.

President Tucker of the Jamestown company and Gov. Swanson have solicited the indulgence of the Washington officials till they could get at he bottom of it and reach some understanding with the amusement companies.

HONORS DUTCH KINGS.

BERLIN, May 28.—Emperor William today unveiled, in the garden in front of the castle, five bronze statues erected in honor of the ancestors of the house of Orange, namely: William I, William II, William III, Maurice and Frederick Henry.

COCKNEY CORNELIUS ALSO WHITEWASHED.

Schmitz's and Spreckels's "Good Dogs" Vie In Honoring Big Thug.

Second Day's Hearing of Charges Against Policemen Who Abused Strike-breakers Becomes Farce Through Fawning Conduct of Oliver of Heney's Grand Jury. Greased Tracks Cause Wreck of Two Cars on Steep Grade—Events of Day in Bay City.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Mayor Schmitz's "good dogs" of the Police Commission, and Mr. Spreckels's "good dogs" of the grand jury competed today for the honor of whitewashing the boss of the carmen's strike, Richard Cornelius. The whitewashing contest waged so hotly between them that it will have to be declared a draw.

The second day's hearing of the charges against the policemen who were alleged to have brutally abused the strike-breakers fizzled out into a farce by the efforts of B. P. Oliver, foreman of the grand jury, and the various members of the Police Commission.

Cornelius was the real defendant today, because of sworn testimony of strike-breakers that he had visited them in their cells and offered them release from jail if they would leave the service of the United Railroads.

The boss striker stalked majestically into the Police Commissioners' room, after the board had been seated. They treated him as though he was a prince of the blood. A few minutes after he came in, Secretary Bowling of the Carmen's Union came through the door.

Police Commissioner Hagerty instantly jumped to his feet and interrupted the witness, saying: "Officer, find a seat for Mr. Bowling."

"Never mind," said Mr. Bowling, grandly, "I merely wish to speak to Mr. Cornelius."

HAGERTY PUT RIGHT.

Cornelius left the room with him, and in a few minutes Hagerty slipped out after them, all three returning together. After that, Hagerty knew just what to do.

Chairman Lehy of the board had been supplied with affidavits sworn to by the tortured strike-breakers the second day of the strike. With these, he proceeded to bullyrag them. He held the affidavits in his hand, and the first question asked of each witness was: "Haven't you sworn to an affidavit in this case?"

By an unfortunate blunder, the United Railroads had no attorney there to protect the interests of their men who were scared by such remarks as these from the chairman: "In your affidavit, you say the officer called you a —— ——. Why do you say now that he said —— ——, etc.?"

Although the accused policemen were all allowed to remain in the room while the other policemen were testifying, the strike-breakers had to go outside and come in, one at a time, to the witness stand. They told their stories over again, some disagreeing in many details from their affidavits.

Jerry Dinan, the Police Commissioners and Oliver of the grand jury all took a whack at bullying the strike-breakers.

The strike-breakers were somewhat uncertain as to whether it was really Cornelius or one of the other union leaders who offered them release from jail if they would leave town. So Cornelius was called to the stand.

CORNELIUS MAKES DENIAL.

Cornelius said with a kingly air that their allegation was false. "Chief Dinan neither took me hin nor hout that day," he asserted virtuously.

"In fact," said Mr. Oliver of the grand jury, looking triumphantly around with his sweetest smile, "you never were in there and talked to them at all that day, Mr. Cornelius." Whereas he looked around again with censuring virtue.

But Cornelius glared at him. "Yes," he snapped, "I was in there and talked to them. There was a strike-breaker wanted to git hout and asked to see me."

"Excuse me, but I would not have asked you that question only I thought that you hadn't been in there at all," faltered Mr. Spreckels's grand juror, miserably, realizing he had put his foot in it.

Mr. Cornelius was so cross with Mr. Oliver that he wouldn't look at him, but added: "I only wanted to see the strike-breakers to express my sorrer because h'I look upon them as tools—merely unfortunates."

Mr. Cornelius said piously that he never told them that he would "fix" the charges.

DINAN MAKES BAD BREAK.

Jerry Dinan also made a bad break. They asked him if he had let Cornelius in to do picket work in the jail. "No, sir," said Jerry, stoutly.

Everybody beamed.

"It was Secretary McCabe of the Labor Council I let in."

Everybody scowled.

Oliver of the grand jury finally found a chance to "square" himself. When the first policeman was placed on the stand and was about to be examined as to the charges against him, Oliver bobbed up officiously and said: "Just a minute, I think I can shorten this affair." Then he turned to the witness, "Officer, are these charges against you true?"

"No, sir; false," barked the officer.

"Then," said Mr. Oliver, with an air of finality, "that ends the matter."

All the officers testified that they did not beat, abuse, or curse the strike-breakers or deny them water or food. As there was no cross-examination whatever and the mere bald statements of the policemen taken, there is no way of judging whether the policemen or the strike-breakers are telling the truth.

As each policeman came to the witness-stand, Mr. Oliver of the grand jury repeated his amazing question: "Is there any truth in the testimony against you?" After the usual answer to that, he seemed to take no further interest in the proceedings.

One of the officers explained the reason why they did not give the wounded strike-breakers the usual mattresses instead of compelling them to sleep on eight-inch benches or the jail floor. Commissioner Hagerty burst in passionately: "Well, I think you would have been treating them too well, officer, if you had given them mattresses."

DEFENSE OF POLICE ABSURD.

The defense of the policemen, briefly stated, was that the cursing of the "scabs" was done by other prisoners in the jail, who yelled from the cells—not by officers. They denied the stories of brutality categorically.

Out of a sense of fairness, it should be stated that, while the strike-breakers stuck in the main to their stories of suffering and brutality, some of them departed in many details from the statemepts made in their affidavits.

The hearing was continued until next Tuesday—possibly in order to see if there is ony other little thing Cornelium may want done.

Greased tracks caused the wrecking of two cars of the Kentuck-street line of the United Railroads this morning. The accident ocurred on Connecticut street, at the corner of Seventeenth. There is a steep grade at this point and when the cars ran onto the slippery track the brakes refused to work and the car descended the hill rapidly. It struck the derailing switch at the corner, leaped the tracks and ran out on the street. A moment later, car No. 1175 followed, and it crashed into the other car, telescoping it and wrecking both.

STRIKERS ARE QUIET.

POLICE PROTECTION EFFICIENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] This was one of the quietest days of the strike. So many persons come in here from Los Angeles wild-eyed with fright that it should be said that travel is now perfectly safe north of Market street. The Sutter street cars, in particular, are crowded all day long.

Increased police protection in the tough districts south of Market has reduced open violence to a minimum. Pickets are still laying for strikers to come out of the car barns at night and passengers caught leaving the cars in the Mission district about dark are roughly used.

Three telephone pickets, Evelyn McBride, Marion Maynard and Edith Aspinell, were arrested today for throwing rotten eggs at the girls at the West office. A large number of union cases of interference with the cars were reported.

The strikers say that they have automobiles coming from the East. They claim that Calhoun has used his influence with the railroads to sidetrack these vehicles.

PAP SUCKERS AFTER PLACES.

GRAND RUSH IN NEW YORK FOR POLITICAL JOBS.

Fat Places on the Public Pay Roll Are Wildly Sought for by Many Patriots—Gov. Hughes Is not to Make Any New Appointments for Political Purposes.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

ALBANY (N. Y.) May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Gov. Hughes is beginning to appreciate what it is for a man to have at his disposal brand new offices, the salaries of which aggregate $300,000 a year. The rush for places under the public utilities act has begun.

It is the impression of Edgar L. Morlin, the appointment clerk, that there may be a few men in the State who have not applied for one of the $15,000 positions, but if there are he is satisfied that they are in class two and have applied for one of the several $10,000 places.

There are ten commissioners, the salary of each being $15,000. Then there is the position of secretary at $10,000 and counsel at $10,000. Under these will be a host of engineers, experts, confidential agents and inspectors.

No Governor in the State ever had such a vast amount of patronage at his disposal. There have been Governors who, with this "pap" to distribute, would upset any machine and make any one whom he selected supreme in the affairs of the party. Gov. Hughes will probably not make a single political appointment, although he has several influential friends whom he would doubtless like to reward.

LAWSON PICKS PRESIDENT.

Frenzied Financier Says Republicans Will Nominate and Democrats Indorse President.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PARIS, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] According to Thomas W. Lawson, now in this city, after an automobile tour of the Riviera, Roosevelt will be the next President.

He also says the stock market is in an infinitely healthier state at the present moment than six months ago, the crisis in America is not merely financial, but national, and will last for a long time and, in short, there is a finish fight on between the American people and a handful of powerful financiers, and the people will win.

Roosevelt, according to Lawson, though he makes mistakes, is honest and with the people back of him is too much for the wealthy combinations. Mr. Lawson said that the Republicans will nominate Roosevelt by acclamation and that the Democratic convention will indorse this and then Roosevelt cannot dodge the office.

WILD TALK STOPPED.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 28.—Advantage was taken today of the absence of the conservative leaders from the lower house of Parliament to bring up the resolution condemning terrorism, and the house decided by a vote of 219 to 146 to table indefinitely the whole discussion, which is one of the most burning questions before Parliament.

WAITERS MAY STRIKE.

OAKLAND, May 28.—Another ineffectual effort was made today to close the breach between the cooks and waiters, and their employers, and it now looks as though there would be a general strike among this class of labor when the present agreement expires on June 2.

PROMINENT MEN ARE COAL LAND GRABBERS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

DENVER, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Amazing efforts are being made by Uncle Sam to round up the men who are alleged to have been guilty of enormous land frauds in Colorado, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming, and noted agents of the government who are now in this city, declare that the disclosures of indictments by the Federal grand jury now in session in this city will involve men who are known from the Atlantic to the Pacific. It is estimated that before the work is finished, among the men involved, will be two members of the United States Senate and one exmember. Some of Colorado's greatest corporations are known to be involved.

Coal land grabs are alleged to have been the most extensive in this State and Wyoming, where the great fuel companies and railroad organizations, aided by grafting officials have stolen thousands of acres. These officials are said to have deliberately, on behalf of the State, taken over lands which they declared were non-mineral, but which their surveys had shown them to be filled with vast wealth, and then transferred for a nominal sum to corporations. This is said to have been part of the testimony presented to the grand jury today.

The inquisition in progress is to be far-reaching, is shown by the number of men now in Denver working to get evidence. No less than 120 secret service men now make their headquarters in Denver. This small army of sleuths having rented the fifth floor of the Quincy building, from whence they are spreading the net that is tightening about victims in high places. L. C. Wheeler, in the service of the Department of Justice at Washington, is in charge of the secret service men. He came to Denver from Omaha, where for many months he had charge of the investigation that resulted in the conviction of Richards and Comstock for land grabbing in the State of Nebraska.

MEXICAN-GUATEMALAN WAR IS IMMINENT.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CITY OF MEXICO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Despite pacific reports sent out by the government, the general sentiment throughout the country seems to be that war is imminent, as matters have gone so far that Mexico must obtain satisfaction. Newspapers here assert that private dispatches say that President Cabrera of Guatemala, is preparing to flee to Germany. He has bought the Hamburg Hoff, a palatial residence in Hamburg, at a cost of $2,000,000, the reports state.

Manuel Giron, Minister of Guatemala to this country, is reported to have applied to a steamship agency for passage on the first steamer going south from Salina Cruz. This would indicate that he is very anxious to return promptly to Guatemala.

COUNTING ON UNCLE SAM.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Certain facts have become known here which show that Guatemala is counting on the United States to avert armed reprisals by Mexico in the delicate diplomatic situation now existing between the two. Although the points involved in the trouble do not present principles which seem to be susceptible of arbitration, it is known that if the alternatives are finally presented of war or arbitration, President Cabrera, of Guatemala, will welcome an arbitration by President Roosevelt. The question is how such arbitration might be brought about.

Mexico, it is understood, will not make the first move, as that government is in a position to enforce her claims by armed force at any moment. It is therefore probable that Guatemala, if forced to the wall, will make an appeal to this government for protection and fair play.

TO GUARD BAY CITY.

Safety Committee Is Planned.

Membership Is Placed at Seventy-five to Stop Cry of Unfairness.

Various Interests Are to Be Recognized in Selection of Representatives.

Governor Leaves Choice Names to Men Most Interested.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Within the next few days a committee of seventy-five, comprising the most influential business men, merchants and manufacturers of San Francisco will be created. It will form a rallying point for the decent, conservative element in the community, which wishes to see the law and order preserved and business and confidence restored.

Spurred by the ringing declaration of Gov. Gillett in his public statement of Friday last, the Executive Committee appointed in joint mass-meeting several weeks ago by the Merchants' Exchange, the Merchants' Association, the Manufacturers' and Producers' Associations, the Chamber of Commerce, and the Board of Trade, have been carefully canvassing the ground, and after due deliberation and conference with the Governor, is almost ready to announce its plans.

GUARD AGAINST BIAS.

Warned by the fate of the ill-starred committee of seven, it is the intention of the Executive Committee to include in this new body a membership sufficiently large to forestall any charge of bias of one party or element. Gov. Gillett suggested twenty-five or fifty, but it is understood that the majority of the committee favors seventy-five.

In personnel, the committee is to be [illegible] elements in the community whose interests are most vitally at stake—the merchants, business and manufacturers, the large owners of property and the leaders in the financial world. The Executive Committee held a protracted session this afternoon, but at the close was not ready to announce its plans.

COMMITTEE MEETS GOVERNOR.

During the afternoon a subcommittee, consisting of Frank J. Symmes, A. A. Watkins and Andrea Sbarboro, visited Gov. Gillett and spent some time in conference with him. The Governor declined to take any part in naming the members. This, he declared, was the duty of men more conversant with local conditions.

Gov. Gillett said tonight that he hoped the new committee would take a strong position and would not allow itself to be daunted by the opposition of any one man or body of men representing one element. It is understood that Mayor Schmitz is ready to agree to act in accordance with the recommendations of the new committee as he did when the committee of seven was formed.

Prosecutor Informs Court Administration Is Attempting to Interfere With Course of Justice, and Says He Will Take Drastic Action—New Venire Is Ordered.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Sixteen talesmen were examined today in the trial of Mayor Eugene E. Schmitz on the charge of extortion, without result. All but one were excused for cause and George D. Cummings, the sixteenth one, was peremptorily challenged by the defense. Judge Dunne ordered a venire of fifty to be returned into the court tomorrow. Eight jurors have thus far been secured. An insinuation was made by the prosecution that Sheriff O'Neil was not summoning trial jurors in a proper and impartial manner.

Asst. Dist.-Atty. Heney made the following statement:

"The prosecution has discovered that the police force is being used in an attempt to reach prospective jurors and witnesses in the bribery-graft prosecution. Two plain-clothes patrolmen, Bob Graham and Archie Hammell, who have been for some time working in the detective department, today were out securing addresses of the fifty veniremen summoned yesterday and returned into court today for the completion of the Schmitz jury.

"Both yesterday and today Chief of Police Dinan approached persons who will be called as witnesses in some of the various trials. He questioned them as to what testimony they intended to give."

Mr. Heney refused to say what, if any action he purposes taking. "I shall not talk about it," he said, "I shall act."

Mr. Heney's statement was supplemented by Special Agent Burns, who claimed that Mayor Schmitz is "using the police department to gather evidence in his behalf and for other like improper purposes."

The defense denied the imputation that improper means were being employed.

WASHINGTON.

OREGON LAND TO BE OPENED.

Senator Bourne Gets Favorable Reply to Plea.

Department Arranges to Survey Land Grant.

Espee Refuses to Offer Area to Home Seekers.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Senator Bourne of Oregon, has made scores of trips to the White House urging the President to have the administration to begin proceedings in the United States courts to compel the Southern Pacific road to open to settlement 2,000,000 acres of land in Oregon, granted to it years ago by the Governor as a bonus.

This afternoon the following statement was issued by the Department of Justice which shows that Bourne is getting in his work: "The Department of Justice has for some time had under consideration the question of certain lands held by the Southern Pacific railway Company in Oregon under grants to irrigation companies which have been absorbed by the Southern Pacific. A preliminary report on the matter has been made by Nathan V. Harlan, United States Attorney, third division of Alaska, who has been engaged in the investigation. For some time he has been absent from his post of duty on account of ill-health.

"Mr. Harlan will now return to Alaska and the Attorney-General will designate B. D. Townsend, Assistant United States Attorney at Fargo, N. D. to carry on the work if Mr. Townsend can arrange to leave his official duties for that purpose."

Senator Bourne says the land was granted under a solemn pledge to open it for settlement and the road has refused to comply with orders to do so and is holding it for speculative purposes.

"The Southern Pacific road originally got a grant of 6,000,000 acres," said Senator Bourne, "with the understanding that the land should be opened up for settlement at $3 per acre. Instead of doing so, a great deal of it was sold in parcels at $15 an acre, and the best part of it was withheld from settlement altogether. What the railway company intends to do with it is, of course, a matter of conjecture, but I suppose it is being held for speculation. Some of it is worth $100 an acre, now. In the meantime, the progress of the country is greatly held back and the whole State suffers in consequence."

The statement of the Department of Justice as to the action that has been taken and that is contemplated indicates that there will be a thorough investigation into the Bourne charges.

LEAVES CAPITAL TO ATTEND BIER.

PRESIDENT STARTS ON FOUR DAYS' JOURNEY.

Chief Executive Will Be Present at Mrs. McKinley's Funeral Today, Tomorrow Speak at Unveiling of Lawton's Statue, and Friday Address Michigan Legislature.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—President Roosevelt left here tonight at 9:10 for his trip West, to be away until Saturday afternoon.

The Presidential party occupied the parlor car Magnet, attached to the regular train over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad.

Tomorrow the President is to attend Mrs. McKinley's funeral at Canton; on Memorial Day he is to speak at the unveiling of Gen. Lawton's statue at Indianapolis. On Friday he is to address the Michigan Legislature at the Capitol building at Lansing briefly in the morning, and in the afternoon is to speak to the students of Agricultural College there.

Following the exercises at the college there is to be a reception at the railroad station of a delegation from the Associated Harvard Clubs, after which the President will leave for Washington.

The President was accompanied by Secretaries Root, Garfield and Wilson, Secretary Loeb, Herman Kohlsaat of Chicago, Surgeon-Gen. and Mrs. Rixey and Assistant Secretary Latta.

The members of the Cabinet and Mr. Kohlsaat are going only so far as Canton, to attend Mrs. McKinley's funeral, after which they will return to Washington. The remainder of the party will continue with the President through the entire trip.

OUST JENKINS FROM SERVICE.

SHAKE-UP IN IMMIGRATION BUREAU, CAUSE.

Accession of Oscar Straus to Head of Department of Commerce and Labor Signal for Sweeping Reforms—Albert Ridgeway of New Orleans New Inspector-in-Charge.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] As a result of a general shake-up in the immigration service throughout the country, Inspector-in-Charge Jenkins, at Los Angeles, has been relieved from the service and will be succeeded by Albert C. Ridgeway, who has been Assistant Inspector-in-Charge at New Orleans.

When Oscar Straus became Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor to succeed Mr. Metcalf of California, one of the first reforms he inaugurated was in the Immigration Department of which Frank Sargent, who has paid many visits to Los Angeles and Honolulu, is commissioner.

Straus did not depend upon Sargent's men to do the investigating. He employed special men, and as a result a number of officials in the service has been discharged for carelessness and inefficiency.

Today the whole of the Canadian border service was changed and a number of changes are contemplated on the Mexican border. There will undoubtedly be a number of other changes and it is strongly intimated that some of the higher up will soon be out of service.

NOW CONSIDER FRANCE.

ADJUST TARIFF RELATIONS.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Although it is said that nothing has yet been done toward adjusting the tariff relations between France and America, and while it also has been stated that there appeared to be no occasion for the dispatch of a tariff commission to Paris as was done in the case of Germany, the satisfactory completion of the arrangements with that country has caused preparations to be made to consider the case of France.

So far as is known the recent decision that a tariff commission would serve no useful purpose remains unchanged. The reason assigned for that statement was that the negotiations with France had long ago progressed long beyond the committee stage and had indeed resulted in the drafting of a treaty. But this treaty can come to nothing without affirmative Congressional action and the French government is believed to be unwilling to await the uncertain course of legislation. Instead they are willing, it is believed, to follow the example set by Germany and endeavor to secure whatever advantages are open to them under a reciprocity agreement drawn under Section 3 of the Dingley Act.

It is now for the State Department to determine what shall be demanded as a quid pro quo for a 25 per cent. cut in the champagne duties. It is true that this concession was made to German champagnes, but as the total amount of the importation was trifling and the revenue insignificant, it is held by some treaty officials that the cases are not parallel, for the French champagnes imported last year aggregated more than six million dollars.

Therefore, to secure anything like an equivalency in the concessions that might be asked, America, it is held, should secure a considerable addition to the present limited list of articles of American origin upon which the French government grants the minimum tariff rates.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Ambassador Creel now has a clear field for the governorship of Chihuahua, the other two nominees having withdrawn in his favor. The election will take place next Sunday.

Navy Plans Delayed.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The Navy Department has been obliged to abandon its plan to transform the cruiser San Francisco into a mine ship, because the change will involve the expenditure of more than $200,000 and it would require a Congressional appropriation. The conversion of the cruiser Baltimore, now at New York, into a mine ship is also temporarily suspended for similar reasons.

LONG DEMANDS FULL APOLOGY.

SAYS PRESIDENT'S UTTERANCES GREATLY HARM HIM.

Controversy Is All About Ability of White Wolf to Kill Young Caribou by Tearing Its Chest, and Professor Finds Indians to Uphold His Assertion.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

STAMFORD (Ct.) May 28.—Dr. William J. Long today made public a letter sent by him to President Roosevelt. The letter said in part:

"To His Excellency, Theodore Roosevelt, President of the United States:

"Dear Sir: The issue between you and me is not one of animals, but of men. It is not chiefly a matter of natural history, but of truth and personal honor. In a recent magazine article you deliberately attack me, as well as my book. You have used the enormous influence of your official position to discredit me as a man, to injure my reputation and incidentally to make a poor man even poorer by the destroying; if possible, of the sale and influence of his work. In my book I have given the result of long years of watching animals in the wilderness, with no other object than to study their habits, and, so far as man can, to understand the mystery of their domestic life. In my preface I have stated, and now repeat the statement, that every incident I have recorded from my own observation is true as far as an honest, educated man can see and understand the truth.

"In your recent attack, this is what you chiefly deny. I have spoken the truth and you accuse me of deliberate falsehood and misrepresentation. As President of the United States you have gone out of your way publicly to injure the private citizen, who was attending strictly to his own business; as a man you have accused of falsehood another man whose ideals of truth and honor are quite as high as your own. This is the whole issue between us. I meet it squarely and so must you. If I have spoken falsely, if in my book or words of mine I have intentionally deceived any child or man regarding animal life, I promise publicly to retract every such word and never to write another animal book. On the other hand, if I show to any disinterested person that you have accused me falsely, you must publicly withdraw your accusation and apologize. As a man and as President, no other honorable course is open to you.

"You base your charges chiefly on the matter of a big white wolf killing a young caribou by a bite in the chest described by me in 'Northern Trails.'

"You declare the thing to be a mathematical impossibility, and declare 'by no possibility could a wolf perform the feat.'"

Dr. Long claims he knows from his own observation and from the testimony of Indians that wolves do sometimes kill in this way, and then quotes the signed and witnessed statement of S. K. Hapidan, an educated Sioux Indian, who states he saw a horse which a wolf had killed by tearing its chest. In addition to this, Dr. Long says he himself had seen a deer which had been slain in this manner by a wolf and further recites that an Indian, Matty Mitchell of Bonny Bay, Newfoundland, declares that the big white wolf frequently kills caribou in this manner.

Continuing Dr. Long says: "These are the facts underlying the incident which you declare to be impossible and false. If this testimony is not enough I will fill it up to full scripture measure.

"You cannot at this stage, Mr. Roosevelt, take refuge behind the Presidential office and maintain silence. You have forfeited your right to that silence by breaking it, by coming out in public to attack me, a private citizen. If your talk of a square deal is not all a sham, if your frequent moral preaching is not hypocrisy, I call upon you as President, as a man to come out and admit the error and injustice of your charge in the same open and public way in which you made it."

LABOR.

I.W.W. TRICK IS FRUITLESS.

Effort to Get Malone From Prosecution Foiled.

Plea for Change of Venue Is Withdrawn.

Defense Asks for Separate Trial for St. John.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

GOLDFIELD, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] O. N. Hilton, the Denver lawyer imported by the Industrial Workers of the World for the defense of Vincent St. John and others alleged to have conspired for the murder of John Silva, today withdrew his motion for a change of venue from the court of Judge Frank Langan whom he accused of being prejudiced because of friendship for members of the Business Men's and Mine Owners' Association.

Hilton asked that Judge Malone, an eminent Denver jurist, who has been assisting the prosecution in the Preston-Smith case be denied the right to aid in the prosecution of St. John and the other alleged conspirators in the same murder, charging that Judge Malone is employed by private means, "that the miserable power and influence of United States Senator Nixon's gold is that which has kept and is seeking to keep him in the case."

Judge Malone volunteered to take the stand and admitted that he would present his bill for services in this case to a private individual. He denied that he had been retained by Senator Nixon and denied that at the famous dinner, where Judge Langan, according to the statement of Hilton, was influenced against the anarchists, anything improper was said. Judge Langan overruled Hilton's motion and Judge Malone will remain on the case.

Hilton then asked for a separate trial for St. John, contending that some evidence might apply to the other conspirators that would not effect the case of St. John. After argument by Judge Malone, Judge Langan announced that he would render his decision as to this motion tomorrow morning.

Next, Hilton urged that the seven alleged conspirators be admitted to bail, one of his reasons being that the testimony of Diamondfield Jack Davis "was as black and incredible perjury as was ever uttered by pirates."

The prosecution stated that, on account of the unsanitary condition of the Goldfield jail, it was willing that the defendants be admitted to bail in the sum of $10,000 each. Hilton stuck for a bail of only $500, but again he was defeated and the court announced that $10,000 is the requisite.

Hilton announced that he might find such bail for St. John, but he doubted his ability to do so for the balance of the brigands. Affidavits filed by ex-Gov. Charles E. Thomas and Judge E. M. Malone were read in court, Gov. Thomas admitting that he is in the employ of the Goldfield Consolidated Mines Company and that he has advised the heads of that corporation to employ private counsel in the prosecution of the I.W.W. anarchists.

The affidavit of Judge Malone was substantially the same as his statement in court. Judge Langan closed the proceedings by stating that he could fairly try the case and reminding the agitator, St. John, that the famous dinner concerning which he made affidavit in his motion for a change of venue occurred two months later than the date sworn to by the affiant.

NAB DISGUISED BOY SOCIALIST.

YOUTH'S WHISKERS FAIL TO MATCH HIS HAIR.

Boise Police Arrest Young Man Fired by Seditious Literature Into Donning Absurd Habiliments. Find on Him Brass Knuckles, and Long Dirk.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

BOISE, May 28.—The Boise police today arrested a young man who gave the name of C. H. Duncan and the address, Spokane, Wash., and are holding him for further inquiry. He appeared on the streets in palpable disguise and was arrested on suspicion. In his possession were found an automatic pistol, a long dirk, a pair of brass knuckles, some skeleton keys, and a pair of rubber shoes.

He had letters and literature showing that he is interested in Socialism, and when questioned by the police, he said he was a member of the Industrial Workers of the World organization at Spokane, and that because of his interest in the Stuenenberg trial he had come here seeking work in order to be on the scene. Duncan's disguise consisted chiefly of false whiskers, moustache, and eyebrows that did not match his own hair.

Among his letters is one signed by the representative at the trial of one of the Socialist newspapers and the police will include this in their inquiry.

LUMBER YARDS BURN.

SACRAMENTO, May 28.—Arbuckle, Colusa county, was tonight visited by a disastrous fire, and at a late hour, when the telephone wires went down, the flames were not under control.

The fire caught in the big warehouse of Balsaur & Garrett, and the building was completely destroyed. The flames spread to the lumber yards of the Sierra Lumber Company and nearly all of the stock was burned.

Several construction cars that were standing on a siding were burned, and fears that the flames would spread further were entertained.

While the loss is not known, it is estimated that the loss suffered by Balsaur & Garrett and the Sierra Lumber Company may reach $40,000. This is the second time within two years that Arbuckle has sustained severe loss by fire.

It is thought a tramp was burned in the warehouse.

The West Valley lumber yard, near the warehouse, is threatened.

PUMPS OIL TO SEA.

SEATTLE, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The tank steamer Santa Maria of the Union Oil Company arrived here minus a cargo. She had been emptied at sea, not to calm the troubled waters, but because some one had blundered. It was due to an attempt to pump out bilge water, but instead of relieving the vessel of her bilge, 5000 barrels of good merchantable oil was pumped out into the sea.

MOTHER RECOVERS SON.

New York Supreme Court Awards Her Boy Stolen From Presidio Refugee Camp.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Supreme Court Justice Amend today awarded to Mrs. Sierra Nevada Sullivan, who was married to Cornelius J. Sullivan, in San Francisco in 1880, the custody of the youngest son, Joseph Sullivan, Jr., 14 years of age.

Mrs. Sullivan obtained a divorce in 1898 on the grounds of desertion. She was in San Francisco last summer, and having to camp out on the Presidio, she sent the boy to the home of his aunt. From there the boy was sent to this city without her knowledge and placed in the Sacred Heart Academy.

Sullivan is in the insurance business. His former wife asserts he has an income of $12,000 a year. Sullivan has married a woman named Harrison, with him he lived in this city.

JAP INCIDENT NOT SERIOUS.

MATTER NOW UNDER CONTROL OF STATE DEPARTMENT.

Dist.-Atty. Devlin's Report Is That First Stories of Trouble Were Enlarged On—Gov. Gillett Says Assaults Were Due to the Unsettled Conditions.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—At the Cabinet meeting today, Atty.-Gen. Bonaparte laid before the President and Secretary Root the report of United States District Attorney Devlin of San Francisco upon the alleged assault on Japanese residents of that city. The report, Mr. Bonaparte says, shows that the first stories of the alleged assault were exaggerated and that the difficulty appeared to be a lack of police protection, owing to the strike. Secretary Root took the report with him, and if any further action is taken it will be by the State Department.

Secretary Root today received a dispatch from Gov. Gillett, as follows:

"Your telegram of May 25, concerning assaults made upon Japanese, received. Will call attention of Chief of Police of San Francisco at once to your telegram and request him to use every effort to protect these people. Think the assaults were due largely to the uncertain conditions existing in San Francisco by reason of labor troubles."

Secretary Root is not inclined to think the matter very serious. This statement was made at the Department of Justice:

"The Attorney-General today received a report from United States District Attorney Devlin at San Francisco in reference to the complaints of attacks on Japanese restaurants. The report, which was handed to the Secretary of State, showed that the incident had much less significance than had been attached to it."

MARSHAL INVESTIGATING.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—United States Marshal Elliott spent the entire morning interviewing the proprietors and employes of the Japanese restaurant at No. 1213 Folsom street, which was wrecked by hoodlums last week, the incident forming the basis of a complaint at Washington by the Japanese Ambassador. United States Attorney Devlin says that when the testimony is completed the report will be forwarded to Washington, and that no action will be taken by the local officials until further instructions from the State Department are received.

AGED DOCTOR ENTERTAINS.

PANA (Ill.) May 28.—Dr. W. L. Lynn, who has been a prominent physician here for years, celebrated the one hundred and second anniversary of his birthday today by entertaining 500 guests at dinner. He is apparently hale and hearty.

POISON ARREST.

E. D. Charbormeaux, a druggist, on Aliso street, near Los Angeles street, was arrested last night by police on the charge of violating the State poison law. According to the police, a negro, Alfred Ramey, bought opium at the place without a prescription.

PICNIC AT RUBIO.

Chapters C and D of the P.E.O. will entertain the ladies of the Long Beach chapter Saturday with a trolley trip and picnic at Rubio Cañon. The trip will be made in a private car.

BOYS SMOKING OPIUM.

Earl McCollum, Harry Hartte and George Anderson were arrested at No. 421 Appablasa street last night on suspicion. The police say that the lads were smoking opium in a Chinese dive.

IN IT TEN YEARS

An Unconscious Slave to Coffee.

"I had not the slightest idea that coffee was the cause of my continued sickness for the last ten years, until I quit its use and took up Postum Food Coffee. I never had a natural movement of the bowels during a number of years, because of chronic constipation, and I was continually taking medicine.

"Very frequently, just after breakfast a dizziness would come on, which would force me to lie down and remain absolutely quiet until relief came. I was also the victim of severe headaches, and miserable all the time. Finally, it occurred to me that coffee was the real cause of my trouble.

"I therefore procured a package of Postum Food Coffee and began its use in place of coffee. At first I did not like it, but I soon discovered that I had not made it properly. When it is boiled long enough, it has a delicious Java coffee taste, a beautiful, deep rich brown color, and altogether it makes a charming beverage.

"I soon grew very fond of it; in fact, I liked it better than I did the old coffee. My health improved and this gradually increased. The bowels resumed their natural functions and the old dizzy feeling disappeared entirely; also the headaches.

"This happy change in health fixed my mind permanently and forever; never, under any circumstances, to go back to a drug that held me a slave for ten long years. A curious thing about all this is that people do not realize the cause of their troubles. They go on year after year, just as I had, in drugging themselves with something that holds them in a condition of sickness and they don't seem to understand what it is that causes their trouble. If such people would leave off coffee and use Postum Food Coffee, the trial would tell its own tale."

"There's a reason."

Development Company to Handle Chloride Property—Other Work.

The Clark Development Company of this city has acquired the property known as the Chester mine, formerly the Distaff, at Chloride, Ariz. The property is an old one that has been worked for the last twenty-five years by leasers who went on the principle of getting out all the richest ore from stopes and shipping to smelters as fast as possible without attempting any systematic development. Thus the deepest workings are but 200 feet deep, although $150,000 worth of ore has been shipped. Some 2500 feet of development have been completed. On the 135-foot level a tunnel has been run from two shafts and about thirty feet more of work will connect them.

As yet very little has been done by the present owners. Only one man is employed in getting out samples to be brought to this city and tested with a view to determining upon a concentrating plant to handle and prepare low-grade ore for shipment to the Needles smelter. The product is copper and silver, and there are large quantities of $20 ore. Some goes up to the thousands.

The Clark Copper Company is organized with a capital stock of $2,000,000 for the purpose of acquiring and developing desirable properties, of which the Chester is only the first. H. W. Clark is secretary and manager and associated with him are Dr. G. C. Clark, Charles S. McKelvey, O. Shepard Barnum and F. C. Lamb. Stock will be placed on the market.

WILL CELEBRATE FOURTH.

At a meeting of the New England Society, held last evening, it was voted to hold a Fourth of July celebration and picnic at Eastlake Park, the literary exercises to commence at 10 o'clock a.m. and the basket picnic at 12 m. The following members were appointed to assist the Executive Committee in making arrangements: H. A. Palmer, Charles W. Kinsley, W. D. Fuller, C. L. Neale, Dr. I. R. Bancroft, Mrs. Waldo M. York, Mrs. T. J. Butler and Miss Ida S. Newbro.

RAILROAD RECORD.

HALF BILLION IS CAPITAL.

Company Plans Railway to Far-away Argentina.

Andrew Carnegie Is President of Syndicate.

Vast Project Is Incorporated in Arizona.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

PHOENIX, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The United States Syndicate, with a capital stock of $500,000,000, was incorporated here Saturday, May 25, by the Akers-Title Incorporating Company. The incident attracted little attention, being considered the usual blanket to cover some possible large flotation, but today the incorporators announced their purpose to be the construction of an intercontinental railroad from Argentina to the United States.

This as well as all lines of human endeavor are covered and made possible to exploit under the articles of incorporation.

Interviews with the incorporators failed to reveal the identity of the clients except that they are eastern men. The incorporators expressed the opinion that the purpose is to construct a road which is surveyed in large part already, by a joint commission from the governments of the United States, Argentina, Brazil, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Guatemala, Mexico, Paraguay, Uraguay, Salvador, Venezuela.

A. J. Cassatt, who recently died, was president of the commission when the surveys and reports were made. He was succeeded by Andrew Carnegie. Capt. E. Z. Steever, U.S.A. Engineer Corps, is secretary.

The incorporators intimate the probability of portions of the capital stock being exchanged for concessions in the respective countries, as well as subsidies. They also state that representatives of the company will shortly leave for the respective capitals and that when the details are arranged the construction will begin in four different places at once, though where is not specified.

WILL SPEND $15,000,000.

ROAD PUSHED INTO MOUNTAINS.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

EL PASO (Tex.) May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] H. R. Nickerson, formerly vice-president of the Mexican Central, was named president of the reorganized Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific Railroad Company at a meeting of the directors held in Cananea yesterday, according to information given out today by Messrs. Nickerson and W. C. Greene, who were here en route to New York. Mr. Nickerson was also made a member of the executive committee and the board of directors. M. G. Cook of George D. Cook & Co., bankers of No. 25 Broad street, New York, is also a member of the new directorate.

It was decided at this meeting to spend $15,000,000 immediately in extending the road which runs from El Paso 150 miles into the Sierra Madre Mountains, some hundred miles further into the great timber regions of the mountains. A crossCut will be built from Guzman, on the present line, direct to Cananea, where it is expected that most of the lumber obtained in the mountains will be used in the copper mines.

Col. W. C. Greene is the retiring president of the road, but remains chairman of the board of directors.

Work will also be pushed on the extension of this line from El Paso to the west coast of Mexico. Under the reorganization the road will be known as the Sierra Madre and Pacific, and it has acquired all the rights, property and franchises of the Rio Grande, Sierra Madre and Pacific.

MUST NAME DESTINATION.

RAILROADS MAKE NEW RULE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SEATTLE, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Railroads operating in this State have agreed to recognize the reciprocal demurrage act passed by the last Legislature so far as it pertains to traffic originating within and consigned to points within Washington. A rigid enforcement of this rule will mean serious curtailment of the number of cars provided to move shingle products and will be a heavy blow to the lumber and shingle industries.

Orders have been issued that cars will only be supplied where the destination is given. This move is intended to circumvent lumbermen who have taken the position that they are not compelled to give the destination of cars when loading them. The first clash with shippers will come over the demand for a statement as to destination, and an appeal to the courts will likely be made on that issue, which will determine the right of this State to regulate interstate commerce. If shippers bill a car to a point near the State line, then attempt to change the destination the roads will compel payment of full local tariffs to the original destination and may compel a reloading.

FIND GUSHER IN COALINGA.

IT SPOUTS OIL PLENTIFULLY.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

FRESNO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Since last Friday the residents of Coalinga are greatly excited over a gusher, which has been spouting from 500 to 1000 barrels per day. The well is owned by the Commercial Petroleum Company, of which M. L. Woy of this city is a heavy stockholder. Others are M. Madsen and W. W. Mathen of this city, Capt. Madsen of San Francisco, and the Associated Oil Company. Woy is the heaviest stockholder. The well is in 12-21-14, about four miles west of Coalinga. The well is a record-breaker and means a fortune to each of the lucky stockholders. The oil is of very light gravity.

There is a rather interesting history connected with the strike. The company sank two wells in this district, but the prospect seemed hopeless and operations were abandoned. Then jumpers landed on the claim, but about a year ago the company decided to resume work and the jumpers were put off. Drilling was begun and today the stockholders were wearing broad smiles. Oil was struck at a depth of about 1500 feet and shoots a column of 150 feet above ground. The well has not yet been capped.

Confer on Traffic Rates.

CHICAGO, May 28.—A joint conference of the Southwestern Traffic Committee and representatives of Mexican railroads was held today to discuss the rates. The conference will continue through tomorrow.

MORMON CHURCH HEAD SAYS NATURE IS BEST.

Joseph Smith, President of Latter Day Saints, Declares Services of Nurse or Physician Have Never Been Needed at Birth of Any of His Forty-three Children.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SALT LAKE, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The use of flowers at funerals must be discouraged; music at funerals must hereafter be confined to Mormon hymns; physicians and nurses are unnecessary in cases of accouchment—nature should be allowed to take her course; bereaved husbands should remarry. In an address at the funeral of Mrs. George E. Woolley, a pioneer, Joseph F. Smith, president of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter-Day Saints, made these among a number of other remarkable statements.

In addition to the suggestions promulgated and repeated in the foregoing list, Mr. Smith confessed that he has five wives and forty-three children, and he was proud to say that in his families the services of a nurse or physician had never been required.

As the acknowledged seer and revelator of the church and assuming to be the mouthpiece of the Lord, Joseph F. Smith's wishes ordinarily are accepted by Mormons as law, and devout members of the church will act in accordance with his suggestion.

President Smith alluded to the splendid singing, but urged the artists to confine themselves to the hymns of the church. He read selections from the hymn-book, which he deemed to be more applicable to funeral services among the saints, and expressed the hope that in the future the singers at funerals would give them utterance and expression.

Mr. Smith also alluded to the great profusion of flowers which covered the casket, and said that they seemed to him to be a useless expense. Although, he continued, these floral offerings were indicative of respect and love for the dead, he thought that the money which was expended for them could be put to much better use in many instances.

He regretted that the Saints were disposed to follow the practices of the Gentiles in many things. They had even come into the habit of employing nurses and physicians in cases of sickness. He was sure that it would be much better if the sisters would allow nature to take its course, even in cases of accouchement, than to enlist the services of a doctor.

Leaning over the flower-laden bier, he extolled the virtues of the dead and addressed himself particularly to the bereaved husband, telling him that, inasmuch as he had a family of children, it was his duty to find a helpmeet to care for them and for his household.

SNAKE EATS BABIES.

Ignorant Indians in New Mexico Are Charged With Feeding Infants to a Sacred Serpent.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

EL PASO (Texas) May 28.—In spite of the fact that a similar charge was investigated and dismissed by a grand jury some time ago, another complaint has been filed with United States District Attorney Llwellyn of New Mexico, that a tribe of Indians in that Territory are given to the worship of an enormous serpent, to which is fed the new-born babes of a pueblo in which it is housed and carefully tended and guarded. The complaint was filed by a Catholic priest, who alleges that a dozen families were segregated from several pueblos, around about two years ago, and formed into a pueblo by themselves; that although it is known that many children have been born to these families, not one child is to be found in the pueblo. This led the priest to press his investigations, with the result that he discovered that in an adobe house, isolated and closely guarded, there is an enormous serpent, which is worshiped by the Indians of all the pueblos around, and that every babe born in the small pueblo, and it is suspected many others, are fed to the serpent. Maj. Llewellyn, having no jurisdiction, has filed the affidavit of the priest and other evidence with the Territorial authorities.

CRAZY WOMAN'S DEED.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Miss Philander Swinnen, 39 years of age, believed to be demented, shot and killed her mother and attempted to kill her father, and then set fire to her garments and was burned to death, early today. The woman was released from the Dunning Asylum a year ago. A love affair is said to have been responsible for the young woman's aberration.

LUMBER MAN ARRAIGNED.

COLUMBUS (O.) May 28.—William B. Moore, agent of the Western Pole and Lumber Company of Denver, was arraigned today in the Criminal Court on a charge of fleecing the city out of $5000 in the fictitious purchase of poles. Moore pleaded not guilty to seven indictments, as did William Wilcox the city official with whom, it is charged, he conspired.

DANISH ISLES AGAIN SOUGHT.

COPENHAGEN (Denmark) May 28.—It is stated here that the question of the acquisition of the Danish West Indian Islands by the United States was informally broached again by the American Minister, Mr. O'Brien, in conversation with the Danish Foreign Minister, Count Leavitzeau. It is considered, however, that political and other reasons will prevent Denmark from consenting to this sale. There is little probability that the government will be able to obtain a majority in Parliament in support of the proposition.

AUTOS CLIMB MT. WILSON.

Three Cars Straddle Peal. Above the Clouds.

Yawning Precipices Hold No Terrors for Drivers.

Record Set for Adventurers to Risk Necks for.

L. L. Whitman and R. C. Hamlin are the first to climb to the summit of Mt. Wilson, using a Franklin car.

Dunstan Collins, J. Elliott Jennings, and John S. Daggett set record of 1h. and 55m. for climb, in Buick car.

E. R. Braly, Harold Parker, A. Kingsley Stevens, and Edward Dobshuts made trip in 2h. and 10m. in Cadillac car.

DETAILED RECORD.

Reached first pine at 3:56.
Half-way house at 4:22.
Martin's Camp at 5:05.
Finished at Casino at 5:26.
Distance about ten miles.
Time, 1h., 55m.

L. L. WHITMAN AND RALPH C. HAMLIN, first drivers to climb Mt. Wilson trail to summit in autoc.

An epoch in local motordom was established yesterday. Mt. Wilson, the crowning peak of the Sierra Madres, 6000 feet above the sea, was scaled by three automobiles, which made the first ascent over the road recently built by the government to convey material for the great observatory.

Probably no more dangerous auto climb exists in the United States, and it is a remarkable fact that the three machines made the round trip without mishap or accident. Dunstan Collins and J. Elliott Jennings, two well-to-do men who are staying at the Hotel Maryland in Pasdena, hold the day's record, having covered the distance from the foot of the trail to the observatory in one hour and fifty-five minutes. The record was established in a 1905 model, twenty-two-horse-power Buick, weighing 2100 pounds. They were accompanied by John S. Daggett, a reporter for The Los Angeles Times, who testifies to the authenticity of this record.

R. C. Hamlin and L. L. Whitman of Los Angeles were the first to reach the summit, leaving this city at 2 o'clock in the morning. It took them three hours to cover the ten miles from the bottom of the trail to the Casino Hotel on the summit. They drove a twelve-horse-power, four-cylinder, air-cooled Franklin car.

E. R. Braly, Harold Parker, A. Kingsley Stevens and Edward Dobshutz of Pasadena, in a one-cylinder Cadillac, made the trip in two hours and ten minutes.

FIRST TO THE PEAK.

Never before Whitman and Hamlin made the trip, yesterday, was a vehicle of any kind taken to the top, only the plodding burros being considered safe enough to climb the dizzy trail. Not even have autos been taken as far as the half-way house; as only recently has the trail been considered in condition for the hazardous undertaking.

Whitman and Hamlin took the new trail built for the purpose of transporting the solar telescope to the peak. The road was completed two days ago, and the Franklin drivers were the first to undertake the trip.

Teh time, from the foot of the trail to the top, a distance of about ten miles, with an elevation of about 6000 feet, was three hours. It required about two hours to return. The drivers say they did not attempt to make fast time, as they had to feel the way, and took their time about it to insure safety.

The grade averages 10 per cent., and at places it goes as high as 16 per cent.

"I never want to make the trip again," said Mr. Whitman. "There were at least fifteen turns in the road where we had to back up and swing over in order to get around them. In doing this we sometimes looked down wheer 1000 feet, though most of the precipices were obscured by the fog."

Heretofore it has not been considered safe for anything but burros to make the trip. All the lumber and other materials used in the observatory was conveyed on the backs of these little animals.

"You had a very foggy day of it in Los Angeles," said Mr. Hamlin, "but up there at the summit we ran above the clouds and into the clear sunshine. They were taking photographs of the sun when we reached the observatory. It was an awful treacherous trip, and I agree with Mr. Whitman that I don't care to repeat it."

TRIALS OF THE BUICK.

Dunstan Collins and J. Elliott Jennings, hearing that two automobiles had made the ascent of the granite wall of the San Gabriel, were game for a try at the record. Jennings is the man of "all night bank" notoriety of Chicago, and Collins is the proprietor of the Cosmopolitan School of Music and Dramatic Art and the owner of the Dunstan Musical Agency, both institutions having headquarters in Chicago. Collins holds the record from Rockford to Chicago—96 miles, in 3 hours and 14 minutes, but the trip to Mt. Wilson was a new thrill in motoring for him.

The party left the Maryland Hotel at 2:16 p.m., and the run to the foot of the trail was made in 19 minutes. A stop of almost an hour was made here in order that the engine might be allowed to cool and everything be put in ship-shape. At 3:31 o'clock the ascent began. The first pina tree, just above Henniger's flat, was reached at 3:46, and a stop of several minutes had been made at the reservoir for water, the two enthusiasts filling the tank with water carried in their hats from the overflow pipe. The half-way house was passed at 4:23 and time at Martin's Camp was caught at 5:05.

With a jubilant cheer the enthusiasts sped past the observatory at 5:24 and continued on out to the very verge of Echo Rock. After a hasty bite at the Casion Hotel, the return trip was made all the way to Los Angeles. In its entirety the stunt was a splendid performance.

DANGERS ARE MANY.

"Not for $500 would I make that trip again," said Collins, afterward. "I have had all the motor thrills I want for many months to come. I consider the trip foolhardy and I would not advise any one to make it in a machine. Muleback or "Shank's mare" may be slow, but it is safe."

Collins was in a nervous tremor. The Buick machine was unable to make the sharp turns on the trail and at a dozen or more of these danger points it was necessary to advance the front wheels to the very brink of a precipice and then back up in order to make the turn. Had the engine given one unforeseen jump, as auto engines often do, that machine would have been carried to destruction and its occupants to almost certain death. This was thrilling enough in the daylight, but on the return trip in befogged darkness the magnitude of the danger was fully evident. Six times, coming down, the machine had to be shuttled back and forth before it was possible to make the turn. When the front wheels were almost over the edge, the daring driver had to release his brake and shift to the low-speed clutch and instantly to the reverse. The technicalities of this procedure can not be clearly explained, but more than once death seemed very near.

At no place in the ten miles of roadway to the summit is there 100 feet of straight-away. There is no let-up in the strain and tension on the entire round trip. Collins had never been over the road before, and when he saw the road apparently advance into space he knew not what was on the other side of that sharp turn.

At one of these turns eighteen burros were encountered. The animals in front rose on their hind legs, wheeled and piled up among those behind until the whole eighteen were matted into a small space and looked like an old-time football scrimmage.

Again precious time was wasted while the mountain jackrabbits were coaxed by, and it was necessary to stop the machine. This happened three times on the way up and the third driver of a string announced that no more automobiles would be allowed to ascend the government road.

Manager Beard, of the Summit Hotel, however, stated that his lease entitled him to possession of the toll road and says that any autoists who wish to make the trip will be given a passport. Trouble over this question is threatened between the hotel man and the government officials.

SOUTHERN STATE LEAGUE CONTESTS.

The teams of the Southern State League have played five weeks of baseball, with the result that San Diego heads the list with all her games won, giving the team a percentage of 1000. The Playa del Rey team entered the league last week, replacing the San Bernardino team, which disbanded. The six teams rank as follows:

Team—	Played.	Won.	Lost.	P.c.
San Diego	5	5	0	1.000
Hoegees	5	4	1	.800
Morans	4	2	2	.500

STUMBLE OVER OSCAR JONES.

Twirler Breaks Winning Gait of League Leaders.

Nagle Unable to Hold Seals Down in Hitting.

Street's Error Allows One Run for Looloos.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] San Francisco had no trouble taking the first game that initiated the series with Los Angeles at Freeman's Park today, and throughout the entire nine innings the home team managed to scatter five runs at intervals, which were sufficient to remove any doubt as to the result.

It was not until the eighth inning that the Los Angeles aggregation succeeded in chalking up their one run.

This was the first appearance of these two teams in this vicinity, and as representatives of the head of the percentage column the game was of more than ordinary interest to the local fans.

Oscar Jones, in the box for San Francisco, pitched a good game, while Nagle for the visitors, was touched for ten hits, all of which were valuable in netting tallies for Kid Mohler's nine. Dillon's players received a shock when the first three to face Jones retired without even connecting with the ball, and from this time on the "Frisco" twirler proved effective at all stages of the game.

At the very start Irwin's hit scored Wheeler, who was on the bases with Moriarity, and again in the third the same players were conspicuous in the scoring. Mohler hit for two bases, and went to third on Wheeler's out, and on a good hit by Moriarity, came home.

Los Angeles missed a good chance to score in the fifth when, with no outs, Cravath and Delmas both walked, Eager sacrificed, and Nagle fanned. In trying to squeeze home, the two players, who had been given free transportation, were both caught off the bags.

Before the fifth inning had passed, however, Mohler, Wheeler and Moriarity again came to the bat in convincing style. Mohler hit for two bases and went to third on Wheeler's single, and on a good connection by Moriarity the little second baseman scored.

The scoring continued in the seventh. The local players turned three hits into two runs, completing the addition for the day.

An error by Street and two hits off Jones in the eighth permitted the only run for Los Angeles. Eager and Nagle were the lucky ones, but Street in his anxiety to catch Nagle off first, threw the ball over Williams's head, allowing Eager to score.

Drs. Shores Remove Disease

Nature Performs the Cure

Drs. Shores are firm believers in NATURE. Drs. Shores believe in helping Nature, but don't believe in giving Drugs to DO THE WORK NATURE SHOULD DO. If you have Catarrh, Drs. Shores remove the damage done, they restore the mucous membrane to normal condition, cleanse the Blood, and NATURE DOES THE REST. If you have stomach trouble, Drs. Shores put the Stomach in healthy condition, and nature takes care of it; they don't give your medicine to ARTIFICIALLY carry on nature's work, and make you a slave to drugs. If your kidneys are affected, Drs. Shores put them in proper shape to do their work naturally, they don't give you powerful drugs to FORCE an already overworked and diseased kidney to do more work, and hasten your final breakdown. If you are weak, listless and debilitated, Drs. Shores don't dose you with poisonous stimulants to keep you going a few weeks and then leave you worse off than ever, they go right to the seat of the trouble, clean out disease, strengthen the weakened parts, give you more and better blood, and then nature on kindly assisted does her own work well, and a Cure results.

Stick to Nature, and stick to Drs. Shores and sickness will become less and less each year.

It costs you nothing to consult Drs. Shores.

We Treat and Cure

CATARRH—Deafness, nose and throat troubles, eye and ear diseases, bronchial and lung troubles, asthma, stomach, liver and kidney diseases, bladder troubles, female complaints, chronic diseases of women and children, heart disease, nervous diseases, chorea (St. Vitus' dance,) rickets, spinal trouble, skin diseases, tetters and formations, diseases of the bowels, piles, fistula and rectal troubles, goitre (or big neck,) blood diseases, lost manhood, varicocele, etc., tapeworm, hay fever, hydrocele, epilepsy, insomnia, etc., and all curable nervous, private and chronic diseases. Consultation free.

DANGER SIGNALS

The Head and Throat

This form of catarrh is most common—resulting from neglected colds—quickly cured with little cost by Drs. Shores' famous treatment.

"Is your nose stopped up?"
"Does your nose discharge?"
"Is your nose sore and tender?"
"Is there pain in front of head?"
"Do you hawk to clear the throat?"
"Is your throat dry in the morning?"
"Do you sleep with your mouth open?"
You can be easily cured now—don't let it run into complications.

The Bronchial Tubes

When catarrh of the head or throat is neglected or wrongfully treated, it extends down the windpipe into the bronchial tubes, and after a while attacks the lungs. Quickly cured with little cost by Drs. Shores' famous treatment.

"Have you a cough?"
"Do you take cold easily?"
"Have you pain in the side?"
"Do you raise frothy materials?"
"Do you spit up little cheesy lumps?"
"Do you feel you are growing weaker?"
Don't risk neglecting these warnings—stop the disease before it reaches the lungs.

Kidney Diseases

Result in two ways, by taking cold and by overworking the kidneys in separating from the blood the catarrhal poisons which affect all organs. Quickly cured with little cost by Drs. Shores' famous treatment.

"Do your hands and face swell?"
"Is it noticed more at night?"
"Is there pain in the small of the back?"
"Has the perspiration a bad odor?"
"Is there puffiness under the eyes?"
"Do you have to get up often at night?"
"Is there a deposit in urine if left standing?"
Don't neglect these signs and risk Bright's Disease killing you. Cure it now.

Of the Ears

Catarrh extends from the throat along the eustachian tubes into the ears, causing partial or complete deafness. Quickly cured with little cost by Drs. Shores' famous treatment.

"Is your hearing failing?"
"Do your ears discharge?"
"Is the wax drying in your ears?"
"Do you hear better some days than others?"
"Is your hearing worse when you have a cold?"
Don't neglect this until your hearing is irreparably destroyed.

Of the Stomach

Catarrh of the Stomach is usually caused by swallowing mucous, which drops down from the head and throat at night. Quickly cured at little cost by Drs. Shores' famous treatment.

"Is there nausea?"
"Do you belch up gas?"
"Are you constipated?"
"Is your tongue coated?"
"Do you bloat up after eating?"
"Is there constant bad taste in the mouth?"
Now is the time to be permanently cured. Drs. Shores are curing hundreds each year.

Liver Diseases

The liver is affected by Catarrhal poisons, extending from the stomach into the ducts of the liver. Quickly cured at little cost by Drs. Shores famous treatment.

"Do you get dizzy?"
"Have you cold feet?"
"Do you feel miserable?"
"Do you get tired easily?"

POLY GIRLS TO PLAY BASEBALL.

DIRECTOR LOWSLEY ORGANIZES TEAMS FOR NEW GAME.

Basketball for Women Criticised as Too Strenuous, and Indoor Ball Played Out of Doors Recommended as Substitute—Sport Expected to Become Popular.

Two picked teams of the girl baseball players of Polytechnic High School will meet in an exhibition game of baseball at 3 o'clock, this afternoon. The County League, at the annual meeting, Saturday night, officially approved the new sport and the game this afternoon will be the first played by any of the schools sanctioning the game. The game which the girls are taking up is the regular indoor baseball in which a soft ball is used and the indoor rules are followed, but it is played out of doors.

Physical Director Lowsley is very much interested in the future of girls' baseball as an inter-school sport and would substitute it for basketball. In baseball there is not so much strain on the heart and lungs as in basketball, he says, while more skill and more teamwork are required, and better physical condition results. Lowsley condemns the present game of basketball very severely, and says, "basketball as played in Southern California high schools is the most harmful of all the games that a girl can play. There is more danger of over exercise and the development of the heart lesions in that game than in any other form of sport."

The new game of baseball, he says, requires every one to keep constantly on the alert, observing everything that takes place. Each girl, must develop a superior knowledge of the plays and give thorough coördination to mind and muscle. It provides sufficient exercises without any possibility of overwork.

GAME WITH SANTA ANA.

The Los Angeles High School baseball team expects to go north within a week to play the Bakersfield and Alameda teams. The trip will not be taken, however, until a game has been played on or won with the Santa Ana officers of the County League, must be high school, which, according to the latter will have the undisputed championship of the south.

Los Angeles High already has beaten the Santa Ana team once, with the score of 4 to 3, but the game was not counted as one of the regular league series, and it will be necessary for the two schools to meet again. An attempt was made to arrange a game for Thursday, Memorial Day, but late last night it was decided to schedule the game for Friday, and the arrangements are under way for the second contest, to be held on the Chutes grounds.

Should the High School defeat Santa Ana, as it confidently expects to, the team probably will start for Bakersfield Saturday, but no definite dates have been set for the games with the northern teams.

Bakersfield High School won the championship of the upper San Joaquin Valley by defeating Fresno and Visalia. Alameda has the best team of those playing about San Francisco Bay, and won the northern championship last Saturday, by defeating Wilmerding. The winner of the Los Angeles—Alameda contest will receive the State High School championship.

UPSET AT OAKLAND.

Gigana at Ten to One Is Winner Over Talien—Butte City Falls, but No One Is Hurt,

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P. M.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Favorites or well-played horses were generally successful at Oakland today. There was an upset in the two-year-old event when Gigana, at 10 to 1, proved the winner over Talien, the favorite. Butte City fell at the start, but E. Couch escaped with a shaking up. He did not ride during the remainder of the afternoon. Cabig was favorite for the fourth, but made a poor showing, finishing outside the money. Results:

FOR SALE—
PRICE $27,500.

Income Property Paying 10 Per Cent. Net.

It owns, no repairs, no insurance, no expense whatever.

We have for immediate sale an income property well located in the southwest, close in, consisting of two apartment houses on one lot, which we consider the best and safest business proposition for sale. The houses are well built, about two years old, the property is leased for 5 years at $7750 per year net. Lease secured. All expenses, including taxes, repairs, insurances, etc., paid by tenants, thus netting owner a clear 10 per cent on the purchase price. Such property as this seldom offered for sale. It is all right in every particular.

The $7,500 mortgage $3000, can be paid. It is now bonded by high-class property.

We have first option, and will be glad to give you any information at our office.

Just think of this bargain. I am offering for sale 1240 acres of fine level land, deep soil, with abundance of water for irrigation, at only 30c an acre per year. This land has all been plowed and ditched ready for irrigation and crop, and in the center of great wheat fields. Now you can make the price and terms suited for this land out of the first year's crop. It will grow fine alfalfa or beets; also wheat and barley; close to railroad and town of Alpaugh, in Kings county. If you are looking for a fine piece of farming land, you will find none better and it is an opportunity that has seldom been offered for sale. Part of this land can be had for $12.50 per acre, about one-half cash, or might take some trade. The five land in this vicinity, without water, is held at $40 and $50 per acre, making this an exceptionally cheap piece of property at this figure; will readily bring 75 per acre before one year; owner is forced to sell. For further information see me at once.

PENN-WYOMING COPPER CO'S STOCK.

The company's smelter was turning out $500 worth of copper per day, before the fire. The smelter is now being rebuilt and will be in operation within 30 days again in full blast. The last quarterly dividend will be a good one. The property was fully covered by insurance.

This stock offers the best investment opportunity, as the company operates its own smelter, has ore in sight for its own ore and to other properties in the Encampment district.

Their railroad is nearly completed and when finished will open these mines are the richest in Wyoming. Over $50,000 worth of ore is now at the railroad, ready to be worked up. Stock at about par.

Don't fail to investigate this stock. Write if you are looking for a good investment.

MEXALINE SOAP

The Mexican remedy for dandruff, skin and complexion, is composed of pure oils and herbs used by the Mexican Indians for the cure of skin diseases.

It is the best shampoo soap in the world. Used and prescribed by leading physicians of Los Angeles.

LADIES: You do not know the luxury of a shampoo until you have used Mexaline Soap. It leaves your hair shining and soft as floss silk and purifies the skin and complexion.

GENTLEMEN: If you wish a perpetual insurance policy against dandruff and falling hair, use Mexaline Soap frequently. Always use it after shaving to soften and heal the skin.

Your druggist or grocer can get it for you in half an hour, if not already in stock. Price 25c.

If, after trial, you are not satisfied, just telephone F6444 and we will at once send back your money.

"THEIR OWN LITTLE HELL."

Old Soldier Troubled by Young Wife.

He Sues for Acre Deeded to Win His Bride.

Pistol Plays Part in Their Wedded Life.

"She testified that they had a little talk about hell, and they had a little one of their own," explained Judge Houser to an attorney who had failed to catch the sense of his client's rapid utterances on the witness stand.

The case, which came to trial yesterday, is one of two actions brought by Alonzo R. Stuart against Ida Stuart. It is brought to set aside a deed. The other action is for divorce. The fight, which is being waged with bitterness, has arrayed the common acquaintances of the pair in Sawtelle into two hostile camps. Stuart is 70 years of age, and an old soldier. His wife is 38.

"I met her at a religious meeting, and she spoke to me without an introduction," testified the plaintiff, after an hour had been consumed by counsel for the defense in arguing that the complaint did not state a sufficient cause of action.

"I formed an attachment for her. Her kindness and religious conduct, and her loving disposition attracted me," the old man went on in the phrases of the formal complaint. "I says to her one day, after we had met a few times, that I had some land down on Fourth street, and asked her if she'd like to walk down and look at it.

"While we were there I told her that if I could find a loving and kind and true religious woman I'd be tempted to marry again. I said I thought I had property enough to make a good, pleasant home. We talked about it for awhile, and then I told her that I'd be willing to deed her an acre of that land on Fourth street if she'd marry me and be a kindly and loving wife, and care for me in my old age. She said she wouldn't sign anything, but that she'd promise to be a good, loving wife."

Attorney Hutton, for the defense, in arguing on the demurrer, declared that she had fulfilled this promise, being a kindly and loving wife to the plaintiff for two weeks, and caring for him in his old age.

Basking comfortably in the warming promise of a pleasant home and loving wife for his old age, Stuart had proceeded to execute a deed to one acre of the Sawtelle realty to "Ida Stuart," and placed it, undated, into the hands of a friend, who was to deliver it to the young woman when she should have gained legal title to the name.

SHE QUALIFIES.

On July 28, 1905, she qualified, and possessed herself of the deed. On the very day of the wedding, however, the old man's warming prospect of a pleasant home and loving wife was chilled. Frank E. Conckling of Sawtelle, testifying in the case, gave the most lucid account of the incident.

"The marriage was in Christ Church," he testified. "Afterward we went to Eastlake Park and sat down at an ice cream table. Stuart laid his arm affectionately across the shoulders of the lady, and she moved her chair away, saying she did not care to be slobbered over.

"The next time I saw them was after they came back from their wedding tour to San Diego. She was sitting outside their house on Sixth street, in Sawtelle, reading a murder story from a sensational paper. I asked her where Stuart was, and she said: 'He's inside cleaning up his dirt.' I went in and found him down on his knees, scrubbing the floor.

S. R. Chamberlain, who has a house in Sawtelle, but takes his meals in the Soldiers' Home, testified that the couple had stayed in his house for two days after their return from San Diego, and that he had been well acquainted with the plaintiff for a long time.

NOT "BY ANY DAMN MAN."

The witness told of a disagreement of the Stuarts which he had witnessed and stated that Mrs. Stuart had told her husband that she was not going to be dictated to "by any damn man."

In answer to a question Chamberlain said:

"He was old, but he didn't want to go into the Soldiers' Home, because he had means to make a home for himself."

While Alonzo R. Stuart was on the stand, he was asked if he had not written his wife a great many letters after the separation, and he stated that he had done so. "Religious, kind, pleasant letters," he said. "Perhaps you can pick out a word here and there."

"While you were with her were you not morose and sullen?" the cross-examination continued.

"I was grieving all the time. My heart was grieving out of me."

"Didn't you take down a pistol one evening?" This was admitted and the attorney asked him if he had not been very angry when he did it.

"No," he said; "I was calm and quiet, perfectly good natured."

The wife, at the time of the pistol display, had fled to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David C. Grimes.

Mr. Grimes testified that she had pretended to be afraid her husband would kill her, but intimated his belief that it was only pretense.

Mrs. Stuart was the first witness called to the stand for the defense. She told of her husband's anger at her wish to go to the beach without him, and of other disagreements.

"The last fuss we had was over religion," she said. "There are so many different kinds of religion in Sawtelle.

"My husband said he was going to get a divorce, and told me what he was going to prove against me. I told him it wasn't true, and he said that didn't matter. He said his lawyer told him it was what was established that made a case, not what was true, and that the lawyer made him put those things in the complaint. He said he could establish them, because he was so much better known in Sawtelle than I."

The case will be continued this morning, when letters will be read, and Mrs. Stuart will speak further in her own defense.

The acre of ground in dispute is valued at $1400.

MR. AND MRS. ALONZO R. STUART.

RELIEF FUNDS LOST.

Treasure Worth $40,000 Sent to Aid French Sufferers in Chicago Fire Missing Thirty-six Years.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

CHICAGO, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The mystery of a missing treasure, varying in value between $30,000 and $40,000, was unfolded to Mayor Busse by Henri Merou, French Consul to Chicago, today. The treasure has been lost thirty-six years and the French official now wants the Mayor to locate it for him.

It originally was a fund sent by artists of the Latin Quarter of Paris for the succor of their fellow-students in Chicago who were victims of the fire of 1871. Its final destination has been forgotten and Consul Merou hints that it never reached those it was designed to aid.

After the fire, a collection, not of funds, but of art works, was taken up in Paris and shipped to New York. There this collection was auctioned for the benefit of the Chicago artists and the fund was sent west. Mayor Busse promised that he would have the records searched to settle definitely what became of the gift from the Parisians.

COWBOY LOSES WAGER.

Rides From Chicago to White House, Pony Fails, He Arrives Seventeen Hours Late.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The President today made the following entry on a paper brought to the White House by Floyd Pegg, the cowboy who left the Mayor's office at Chicago, at noon May 6 on a pony to win a wager that he would get to Washington in three weeks.

"Theodore Roosevelt, the White House at 11:50 a.m., May 28."

Pegg was allowed until 7 o'clock last night to complete the trip but missed it by seventeen hours. He was compelled to leave his pony at Rochelle by the bad roads, but reached Washington himself on time. He lost the wager. From Pittsburgh, Pegg said, the roads were very bad, which interfered seriously with his speed. His best time was fifty-three miles in one day.

FINDS NEW BACILLUS.

LONDON, May 28.—A new bacillus, according to Prof. Delepine of Victoria University, Manchester, is responsible for an epidemic which has appeared at Prestwich, a suburb of Manchester. Those attacked have a swelling of the throat, leading to loss of voice, inability to swallow, fever and weakness. It was at first thought that the disease was diphtheretic, but the professor, after investigation, says that the bacillus of diphtheria is absent and that the disease seems to be caused by a minute globular bacillus which is new and distinct.

DON'T DIE AT 45

Cure the Indigestion Which Is So Liable to Lead to Apoplexy.

Rush of business, eating too fast and too much, excesses of any kind, soon result in indigestion. Then when the digestive organs cannot care for the food properly the coats of the blood vessels in the brain get little nourishment, become brittle and finally yield to the fierce blood pressure. One is then said to have a "shock," to be paralyzed, or to die from apoplexy.

People suffering from headache, giddiness, palpitation, sleeplessness, bad taste in the mouth, drowsiness, coated tongue, distress after eating, specks before the eyes, and any other of the many distressing results of a weakened stomach, should profit by the discovery of Mi-o-na stomach tablets.

In recent years the greatest advance in medicine has been in the study of diseases of digestion and nutrition and no other prescription has proven itself of as much value as Mi-o-na. It is relied upon as a certainty today in relieving the worst troubles of digestion and assimilation and making a complete cure.

We absolutely agree that your money will be refunded should you buy a 50-cent box of Mi-o-na stomach tablets and not be satisfied with the results. Mi-o-na is sold by druggists everywhere, or will be sent by mail on receipt of price, 50 cents. Booth's Mi-o-na Company, Buffalo, N. Y.

STREET CAR TORPEDOED.

Plot to Blow Up Passengers to Gambling Boat Is Suspected in Chicago.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.]

CHICAGO, May 28.—Two men were badly injured by broken glass and a score of others sustained slight injuries early today when a street car upon the Calumet Electric Railroad was blown from the tracks by a torpedo at Ninety-third street and South Chicago avenue.

A rumor which found some credence was that the torpedo was planted with the design of blowing up prospective passengers upon the gambling boat City of Travers Road, whose landing place is about a block away.

LOTTERY MEN IN TOILS.

WILMINGTON (Del.) May 28.—Indications that the end of the government prosecution of the Honduras lottery cases will come soon by the easy process of pleas of guilty and the imposition of fines, were apparent today in relation to the indictments against John M. Rogers, J. K. Baylis and Lester R. Baylis of this city. They were indicted by the Federal grand jury at Mobile, Ala., the former for sending from one State to another the lottery tickets, which were printed at Rogers's printing establishment in this city. In response to subpoenas issued at Mobile, they will start thither this week. Their present intention is to plead guilty and the presumption is that the penalty will be a fine without imprisonment.

VOTE TO BE RECOUNTED.

ALBANY, May 28.—The Senate today, by a vote of 35 to 8, passed the Assembly bill preparing for a recount of the ballots cast in the McClellan-Hearst Mayoralty election of 1905, in New York City. One Republican voted with seven Democrats against the bill, which is one of the measures urged for passage by Gov. Hughes.

ELECTS BRUNSWICK'S REGENT.

APPLES FROM AUSTRALIA.

NEW YORK, May 28.—Apples from the antipodes came to New York yesterday by the steamer Celtic. There were 1008 boxes of the finest fruit gathered in Australia in March. They had been shipped to Liverpool from Melbourne and transferred across England to the Celtic lying in Southampton. If this venture, the first of its kind, is a success, another and greater shipment will be made in the next Australian season.

SCALY ERUPTIONS COVERED HIS BODY

Itched Constantly—Scratched Until Blood Flowed—Suffered 10 Years—Doctors and Medicines Were Fruitless—Tries Cuticura and Is Completely Cured

BY THREE BOXES OF CUTICURA OINTMENT

"When I was about nine years old small sores appeared on each of my lower limbs. I scratched them with a brass pin and shortly afterwards both of those limbs became so sore that I could scarcely walk. When I had been suffering for about a month the sores began to heal but small scaly eruptions appeared where the sores had been. From this time onward I was troubled by only severe itching that, until I became accustomed to it, I would scratch the sores until the blood began to flow. This would stop the itching for a few days; but scaly places would appear again and the itching would accompany them. After I suffered about ten years the eruptions by this time had appeared on every part of my body except my face and hands. The best doctor in my native county advised me to use arsenic in small doses and a salve. I then tried to bathe the sores in a mixture which gave almost intolerable pain. In addition I used other remedies, such as iodide sulphur, zinc salve, ——'s Sarsaparilla, —— Ointment, and in fact I was continually giving some remedy a fair trial, never using less than one or two bottles. All this was fruitless. Finally my hair began to fall out and I was rapidly becoming bald. I used ——'s Hair Vigor, but it did no good. A few months ago, having used almost everything else, I thought I would try Cuticura Ointment, having previously used Cuticura Soap and being pleased with it. COPPER STOCKS

Foundation of the London-Arizona Copper Company

A Personal Statement of the Proposition by Charles E. Finney, the Founder and President of the Company, Who Has Been for 20 Years at the Head of the Greatest Smelting Enterprises in the United States.

The London-Arizona Copper Company was organized by me to take over the O'Carroll group of Copper claims situated 20 miles south of Globe and 3 miles from the Gila River and the Phoenix and Eastern Railroad in the extreme southern point of Gila county, Arizona.

The O'Carroll purchase numbers 42 claims to which 26 additional have since been added, making a total of 68.

The claims are all in a body constituting a very valuable estate, peculiarly easy and cheap to mine and carrying a perfectly self-fluxing ore peculirly easy and cheap to smelt, so that I expect to be able to produce refined copper, laid down in New York, at as low a cost as any mine in North America and cheaper than most of them will ever be able to produce—assuming, of course, that I am enabled to put the London-Arizona on the same scale of production as the mines with which it is compared.

There can be no question about the capacity of the property to furnish ore, and the only problem before us is to secure the very considerable capital required to handle the output on a large scale—for the larger the production the cheaper the cost.

The lowest price that copper has ever reached was 7 cents a pound in 1894.

Though the metallurgy of copper has steadily improved since then, a return to that price would still close some of the largest copper mines in the world. But a careful study of the London-Arizona deposit in all its aspects gives me confidence to assert that we can earn good dividends with copper at 9 cents a pound when able to mine and smelt 3000 tons a day, and there is no reason why double that output may not soon be attained if sufficiency of capital can be enlisted to furnish so great a plant as would be required. We can rapidly earn all the money necessary to expand our enterprise to a capacity of 6000 tons a day after we get to producing 3000 a day and give out stockholders fine and steady returns on their investment besides. It is my wish to make the dividends so steady and reliable that the stock will be regarded as an attractive investment security, rather than to make them astoundingly large one year and meager the next and have our stock become a football for speculators to gamble with.

It seems best to enlist by the sale of our stock sufficient capital to provide an adequate plant and an ample working fund at once, without waiting to earn it dollar by dollar, thus securing to all of us the advantage (in the economies of handling and smelting) of producing on the large scale as against the greater cost per ton of producing on the small scale.

Provided always you have the supply of ore (as the London-Arizona has, beyond question) the saving in cost per ton in handling 5000 tons a day over the cost per ton of handling 500 tons a day, will ordinarily pay the cost of the larger plant in a short time. This is what I mean—I would find it harder to produce metallic copper from the London-Arizona ground for 10 cents a pound on the scale of 500 tons a day than at 7 cents a pound on the scale of 5000 tons a day, and the difference of 3 cents a pound would pay the cost of a 5000-ton plant in a short time when the output of metal runs up to 60 or 70 million pounds a year.

But it would be bad business to rush a plant of a capacity of 5000 tons a day together helter skelter just because you have the price, and I don't propose to do it. I have all my business life been building and operating smelters, and I want a plant for the London-Arizona that will work like a clock. The first point of production that I plan at definitely is a plant with a capacity of 3000 tons a day. I intend to build it in units of 1000 tons capacity each, as soon as one unit is completed starting the next. In this way I shall avoid any possible mistake that might render the plant unfit to do the work with the greatest economy. There are few smelter plants in the world which it has not been found necessary to rebuild in order to secure greater economy. I don't want to have to rebuild the London-Arizona plant till it wears out.

When we reach a capacity of 3000 tons a day we can afford to pause and look about us and lay our plans deliberately to double the capacity of our plant, for we shall then be able to earn dividends that should satisfy the greatest investor that ever was born, for we have an ideal smelting ore in vast quantity and all the natural conditions are quite unusually favorable to the largest production at an unusually low cost—dry mines assured by the topography of the ground—no pumping—little or no timbering—mining largely done by the caving system, which, where possible, is very cheap—delivery from the mine to the smelter by gravity at a cost not in excess of 50 cents a ton—a self-fluxing ore that can be dumped from the car into the furnace—a broad-gauge railroad, and the great river in Arizona right at our door—an elevation that in this low latitude assures a comfortable and salubrious climate the year round—a fine fruit and agricultural country in the broad valleys of Gila and the San Pedro (which unite in front of our property) assuring low cost of living. In a word, the natural conditions are ideal throughout for the production of copper at the lowest cost.

I have discouraged the use of exaggerated statements and forbidden the usual ruck of irresponsible "guarantees"—of all catch-penny talk—in the literature of this foundation. I don't want it presented in that discreditable and discrediting style; that is why I adopt the unusual method of making the general statement of conditions over my own signature. I desire it to be distinctly understood that I guarantee nothing but my perfect good faith in regard to the London-Arizona property, but I guarantee that absolutely, and my life-time record in the technical and administrative departments of mining and smelting on the largest scale should give some value and weight to that guarantee, I think, among prudent investors. In taking over the London-Arizona property and committing my own fortunes and the fortunes of personal friends to the venture, the reader may feel perfectly assured that I did not "buy a pig in a sack," but studied the proposition carefully for months in all its aspects with the aid of two very competent geologists and mineralogists, graduated mining engineers and familiar with the valuable and helpful studies of the U. S. Geological Survey on the great copper deposits in the Bisbee, the Clifton, the Jerome, and the Globe districts, all in Arizona, and all determined as being in the same remarkable Northwest-Southeast fault belt that carries the London-Arizona deposit—a belt known since those fine and valuable studies were made as "the Arizona Copper Zone."

I would wish that all who join me in the inauguration of this great industrial enterprise may, if possible, come and see the property for themselves and acquire the same undoubting confidence in its magnitude and value that I possess. I cordially invite all to do so who can. It would be an appreciable advantage to me and to the company to possess the unwavering confidence of every stockholder while I am putting the great enterprise on its feet, and to feel sure that they will not be upset and discouraged by any of the unforeseen delays and disappointments that inevitably occur in the starting of a large industrial concern. It will be a life-time investment that I think without doubt will prove a large profit earner for two generations at least, and it should be worth every stockholder's while to feel safe and satisfied from the start.

The little group of personal acquaintances in Boston who joined the distinguished Professor Agazzis in taking over the now famous Calumet and Hecla copper property of Michigan about 35 years ago at $12 a share, have received an average dividend (an average, observe, not annually regular) of almost $30 a share, or nearly 250 per cent. a year on the investment and can now sell their shares at an advance of between 7000 and 8000 per cent. on first cost.

Astounding and admirable as that result is, it is realized now by all competent mining judges that a great mistake was made in operating the Calumet and Hecla in the beginning with too small a working capital. This has lately been corrected by the gradual accumulation of a very large surplus that gives the company a firmer command of the situation, and enables them to produce copper at half the early cost by employing ever-increasing volumes of capital.

I do not wish to hold out inducements that would unduly influence people to purchase our stock, for I would wish them to buy it as a life-time investment rather than as a speculation; but I venture to believe that when operating on a scale of 3000 tons a day I can lay the finished copper of the London-Arizona down in the New York market at a slightly lower cost than the great Calumet and Hecla is able to do. In the matter of transportation that company has a great advantage over the London-Arizona, but at every other point of cost the advantage is decidedly with us. I am nearly confident (but as yet do not feel sure enough to assert it as a fact) that in volume and in average value our ore body will rank favorably with that of the Calumet and Hecla. This, however, has not been proven, and I would not wish investors to regard it as more than my personal impression, largely an influence from known facts.

An experienced and competent judge of copper ground, who had spent a day going carefully over the London-Arizona, said to me recently: "Mr. Finney, you have picked the quickest thing, the easiest thing, and the biggest thing in copper ever opened in Arizona." There is no doubt in my mind that the opinion was perfectly candid, but it is only the opinion of one man who had studied the property for only one day, and I would hesitate to express my own appreciation quite as confidently as that in view of the very great copper mines at Bisbee and Clifton and Jerome and Globe (all, with the London-Arizona, in the same copper zone that I have mentioned) yet I truly believe we can quickly make the London-Arizona the equal of the best of them. But it takes a little time, investors should clearly understand, to enlist and train into steady and dependable unity of action all the splendid energies and the fine administrative ability that go to the successful operation of those truly great mines, several of which have a present value of from 40 to 60 million dollars apiece and are earning good dividends on that valuation—more than the great Calumet and Hecla is earning on its present market price. Of course the high market value of the Calumet and Hecla is partly due—and quite justly due, in my opinion—to the unusually high and candid character of the administration. It is my ambition to infuse that same responsible character into the management of the London-Arizona, and I hope to make our stock regarded as not alone one of the most profitable but also one of the most respectable in the field of industrial enterprise, so that investors may rely upon it as a safe source of steady and lucrative income.

I have figured on an average copper content of only 5 per cent. (100 pounds to the ton) and I think that conservative. My aim has been to make all general estimates on the most conservative basis throughout, to avoid future disappointment. For instance, I have not figured earnings on the present high price of copper at all, but on the average price for the 20 years preceding 1906, which was close to 13 1-3 cents a pound—the lowest of any similar period in the history of the metal.

On a production of 3000 tons of ore a day that price will leave us a sure net profit of at least 6 cents a pound. If it sells at a higher price than that, we can earn proportionately larger profits. If it sells down to 9 cents, we can still earn reasonable dividends. It is hardly thinkable that it can ever reach a price low enough to stop profitable production in the London-Arizona, because before that price was reached more than half the copper mines of the world would be compelled to shut down.

A low cost in producing furnishes the investor the best guarantee, and the only real guarantee that can be given, of a steady income on his investment.

It cannot be amiss to remind investors emphatically that the London-Arizona is a direct-smelting proposition—a self-fluxing ore that can be dumped from the car into the furnace. Miners and smelter men will recognize in this statement a fact of the most fundamental importance to the cheap production of copper.

The titles to the property have been passed upon by the highest legal advisors and found satisfactory.

The strong points of the London-Arizona proposition are:

1st—The vast supply of ore assured and its direct-smelting character;

2d—A very unusually low cost of mining and smelting;

3d—A very unusually low cost of delivering the ore from the mines to the smelter;

4th—Ideal conditions as to railroad transportation and water supply at the smelter;

5th—An ideal climate all the year round, where our workmen will find it pleasant to make homes and have their families with them, and thus become a settled and responsible corps of assistants with a stake in the success of our great enterprise.

Add to the above peculiarly, advantageous natural conditions the further consideration that in committing all my own hopes to the success of this great enterprise I have sought to safeguard its future against the accidents of human life by taking care that its continued success shall depend upon the life of no one man. I have associated with myself as co-owners and co-operators Mr. Edward W. Brooks and Mr. R. D. O. Johnson, two younger men, graduated metallurgists and mining engineers, both of whom have had 20 years of the best practical experience—unusually fine and responsible experience in high-class professional work, and with whose qualifications I am well acquainted through former association.

That security is what I have aimed at—to surround my own investment and the investment of every dollar entrusted to me for this foundation with every safeguard that prudent foresight would suggest to assure a solid and continued success, so that we may all look forward confidently to see the London-Arizona soon take rank among the great copper mines of the world.

The financing of the treasury stock to raise the working capital has been placed in the hands of the Joseph Ball Company of Los Angeles, and as we could not, if we had it all in hand at once, prudently use the whole amount of money that we shall ultimately require, convenient terms of payment will be offered to subscribers. The company requires only to be assured that funds will be forthcoming without fail systematically as needed. The first offering of 200,000 shares (all that the company desires to place at present) will be sold at $6 a share on easy terms of payment which the Joseph Ball Company will make known.

Very respectfully,

C. E. Finney

THE BUSINESS RECORD OF CHARLES E. FINNEY.

BY JOSEPH BALL

The first thing a prudent investor wants to know about a business proposition is "the man back of it."

Only a comparatively small number of people are expert judges of any particular line of money-making enterprise, but nearly everybody is more or less an expert judge of character.

The character of the man or men back of it indicates pretty closely the character of the enterprise.

Of course, only a comparatively small number of people can expect ever to understand the mining and smelting and refining of copper. But then only a small number of people understand the mining and smelting and refining of iron and converting it into steel, and then manufacturing the steel into merchantable forms.

But hundreds of thousands of conservative investors buy iron and steel stocks.

Again, only a small number of people know anything about the administrative business of railroad management, but millions of people buy railroad stocks.

People invest in all industrial enterprises mainly on their faith in the men back of them.

What the investor desires to know in such cases, (and that, in most instances, is all that he is able to understand about the proposition unless he is himself an expert in that particular industry,) is this:

"Is the man back of it honest? Is he experienced and capable in that special line? Has he a record of success in that particular business? Are his own interests pledged to the success of this particular proposition, and will he conduct the business and make frequent public reports so that stockholders can understand its condition?"

When these questions have been satisfactorily answered you know all that an intelligent and prudent investor can expect to know about an industrial investment like copper-mining or steel-making or railroading.

Most any fairly intelligent person would be able to judge the character of Mr. Finney from the statement of the London-Arizona proposition given above his own signature.

Most any one would perceive in an instant from a reading of that statement that he is a man accustomed to weighing cautiously and prudently every judgment he expresses—accustomed also to having weight and influence accorded to his judgment when expressed.

And that is really the case—his record proves it to be the case.

He has a good business man's detestation of all irresponsible and exaggerated statements of a business proposition. They all detest that sort of thing because it undermines business confidence—and confidence is the backbone of business.

Mr. Finney admits that the London-Arizona is less a mining proposition in its nature than a manufacturing proposition.

A mining proposition pre-supposes a search for ore. But there is no searching for ore in this London-Arizona proposition. It is there—calculably 83,000,000 tons of it; enough to furnish the smelter 3000 tons a day 300 days a year for 93 years. It is, therefore, in effect, only a proposition to get that ore out and MANUFACTURE it into refined copper.

Like iron, copper is a metal that cannot be produced at the lowest cost unless produced on a large scale, because the machinery necessary to produce it at a low cost is heavy and expensive and cannot be assembled at a day's notice. Mr. Finney expresses the belief that he can produce the copper from the London-Arizona at as low a cost as any mine in the world—even a shade lower than such great and admirably managed mines as the Copper Queen and the Calumet & Arizona of Bisbee, Arizona, the North Butte of Montana, and the greatest of all, the Calumet & Hecla of Michigan—when producing on the same scale.

There is no trouble in raising the few millions needed to put the London-Arizona on a large scale of production. The only trouble is to get the money on conditions that Mr. Finney will accept. The money has been offered by copper people amply able to furnish it, but on condition that he sell a controlling interest in the stock. But Mr. Finney will not part with the control. He has determined to make the complete development of this great property the finishing work of his life, and with his coadjutors in the foundation has pooled enough of the stock to assure its full development under his own experienced and responsible management. He knows its great value perfectly and figures that with copper at 13½ cents a pound (the average price for the 20 years preceding 1905) he can earn at least 12 per cent. a year for 93 years on a value of $50 a share for the stock when able to handle 3000 tons of the ore a day.

I was myself amazed, when Mr. Finney first submitted his proposition to me, to find that he had based all his calculations on a price for the output of 13½ cents a pound for the finished copper. I called his attention to the fact that the current price at the time was nearly twice that.

"Yes," he replied, "that's true, and it may go even higher. I do not expect it to go as low as 13½ cents again, with the widely extended field that electricity has opened for the uses of copper, but it may, and I want to make our estimates on the safe side. If it holds to its present price we can easily earn the whole capitalization in one year as soon as we are able to handle 3000 tons a day. I don't want investors to go into this proposition with foolishly exaggerated hopes. The Calumet and Arizona stock sold, when in the prospect stage, five years ago, at $6.00 a share, the same as I am offering this. About the first of March, this year, it sold at $190 a share—a profit to the original stockholders of 3300 per cent., besides having meanwhile paid in dividends $28.00 a share, or 466 per cent. I confidently believe the London-Arizona can best the record of that splendid and admirably managed property, the Calumet and Arizona. But I know we can earn big dividends with copper at 13½ cents, and I prefer to stick to what I know in stating this proposition. It is worse than needless to exaggerate the merits of a proposition that can do as well as that."

Now that talk expresses the character of Mr. Finney all through and through—no exaggeration in presenting a business proposition—just a reserved, strong, unassailable and perfectly responsible statement of its merits.

HIS BUSINESS RECORD.

Born in Indiana—received a university education—spent the first thirteen years of his business career learning, by practical experience, the business of mining, smelting and refining ores under the late, eminent August R. Meyer at Kansas City, the founder and president of the vast Kansas City Smelting & Refining Company, with smelters at Kansas City, Leadville and El Paso, and mines in the United States and Mexico. During the last five years of his term with Mr. Meyer, Mr. Finney was general administrative manager of all this vast and widely-placed business—a fact that shows what it shows about his business capacity, his ability to manage large industrial enterprises.

When the Meyer properties were gathered into the "Smelter Trust"—the American Smelting & Refining Company—Mr. Finney went to the Guggenheims in the same capacity—administrative manager of all their vast mining and smelting enterprises in the United States and Mexico. And when, some years later, the Guggenheims gathered in the AMERICAN SMELTING & REFINING COMPANY, he remained with them as a member of the executive board two years longer.

Two years ago he built and brought into successful operation the fine custom smelter at Humboldt, near Prescott, Arizona. This, though not one of the largest, is one of the most perfect smelting concerns in the United States, and Mr. Finney there first introduced the use of the petroleum flame in the reverberatory furnace, which is now being widely adopted as very efficient and economical.

The Humboldt smelter brought him into close touch with all the miners of Arizona who were not able to have smelters of their own (which, of course, all the greater copper mines had,) and led to his investigation, study and purchase of the London-Arizona property. That is, in brief, the record of his business career.

Does that record satisfactorily answer the questions that an intelligent, cautious investor would wish to ask before subscribing, concerning the "man back of it"?

If it does not satisfactorily answer as to his honesty, his business ability and his specialized experience in managing enterprises of the same character and magnitude as the one presented by him, you would certainly be a weak and foolish investor to subscribe.

As for myself, I not only agree with all who have seen the property, that it (the London-Arizona) is the BIGGEST thing, the QUICKEST thing and the EASIEST thing in copper ever opened in Arizona, but I also confidently believe it is certain to have a management.

EQUAL TO THE REST.

That's saying enough. There is no better mine management in the world than the great copper properties of Arizona receive.

The London-Arizona is capitalized at $10,000,000. Par value of shares, $10.00, half the stock dedicated to the company's treasury.

The financing of this great property has been entrusted to our house, and we are most anxious to have as much of it taken among our old clients of Southern California as they feel able to subscribe for quickly while we can offer it at a low price.

The price of the first offering is $6.00. We have maps and the most responsible reports. Pray step into our office and get the literature and meet the founder of the great enterprise, Mr. Charles E. Finney.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Secret Service Man to Resign.

John F. Cronin, an operative in the United States Secret Service, who has been stationed in Los Angeles for several years, will resign on June 1.

Memorial Chimes to Ring.

The Eliza A. Otis Memorial Chimes in Hollywood Cemetery will ring tomorrow morning from 10 until 12 o'clock, and in the afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock. Many Memorial Day visitors are expected in this cemetery.

Free Lunch for Veterans.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of Roosevelt Camp No. 3, United Spanish War Veterans, will serve free lunch tomorrow noon and evening to all veterans, at No. 230½ South Spring street. This includes the men who fought in the Civil War.

Bookseller in Trouble.

Creditors of P. J. Carmichael, bookseller and stationer of San Jacinto, held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the Board of Trade rooms. The Carmichael business has been placed in the hands of the board. Most of the creditors are Los Angeles concerns.

Investigate Car Shortage.

The Federal grand jury, which convenes today, will renew its investigation of the complaints of the California Citrus Union that the Santa Fé is discriminating in its distribution of fruit cars, and it is understood that several Santa Fé officials will be summoned to appear, as well as officials of the Citrus Union.

They Close Tomorrow.

As tomorrow will be a legal holiday, all the banks and financial institutions of Los Angeles will be closed all day. All New York Stock Exchanges, the Cotton Exchange, etc., and the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board will be adjourned over to Monday, and it is presumed that the local Stock Exchange will follow the example set by the larger institutions. All public offices will be closed.

More Trouble for Post.

Richard Henry Post, who is serving a six-months' sentence in the County Jail for obtaining money under false pretenses, will step into more trouble. Secret Service Officer Hazen will take Post, as soon as his sentence here is served, to San Francisco, where the man will have to stand trial on the charge of impersonating secret service officials and of defrauding two merchants. Post was arrested by Hazen at San Diego, where he was operating under the name of T. R. Henry. He has been in trouble in Chicago, New York and Philadelphia, and it is said he has operated fraudulent schemes in various cities along the Pacific Coast.

BREVITIES.

Ladies—I have just received a big lot of fine shoes, the swellest I ever had. They come in high and low, and mostly all sizes. They are beauties and are regular $3.50, $4.00, $5.00 and $6.00 values, and you know that I sell nothing for over $2.00 a pair, so you better get busy if you want a pair of these. Harry Magill, the Sample Shoe Man on 5th floor, Merchants Trust Building, take elevator.

J. W. Frey has moved his stock of mantels, grates, tiles and andirons to his warerooms, corner Los Angeles and Twelfth streets, where can be seen the largest assortment of black and brass fireplace trimmings to be found in the United States.

Ladies who expect to attend the picnic of the Cosmos Club at Long Beach today are requested to be at the Pacific Electric station at 9:30 o'clock sharp. Purchase your tickets of the committee and not at the window.

On Thursday, May 30, the picnic grounds at the Church of the Angels, Garvanza, will be open. The Ladies' Guild invites the public for an admission fee of 10 cents. Refreshments will be served. Come, bring your friends.

The Boston Sample Shoe Store opened yesterday. All men's sample shoes of the finest qualities sell for $2.50 and all ladies' shoes for $2.00, regular $3.50 to $5.00 values. Located on second floor of 414½ South Broadway.

The Spier semi-annual clearance sale is a bona-fide reduction sale. All hats are reduced to a third and half off their original price. Spier, ladies' hatter and importer, corner Third and Hill streets.

Madame De Blumenthal announces that her exhibit of Russian needlework in Blanchard Art Gallery will be continued on Wednesday and Friday.

CHURCH ASKS CONFIDENCE.

United Presbyterians Express Desire to Get Closer to the Workingman.

[BY TH.. ASSOCIATED PRESS—P.M.]

DENVER, May 28.—The following resolution adopted today by the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church indicates the church will make an effort to get closer to the toiler:

"We desire the confidence of workingmen, and deeply deplore any suspicion of unfriendliness. We invite frank counsel as to how, as a church, we may minister to workingmen and their cause.

"We urge upon all our ministers a sympathetic study of the problems of labor and an earnest effort to establish cordial relationship between themselves and the workingmen of their respective communities."

One of the most important reports made today was that on the freedman's missions. It was followed by an address by Rev. J. W. Witherspoon on the colored people of the South, which showed the progress of the church.

LAURIER NEGOTIATING ABROAD.

OTTAWA, May 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]—Advices reach government officials here that Sir Wilfrid and Lady Laurier are now at Dachersales, France the country of the Premier's ancestors. They return to Paris Thursday, where Sir Wilfrid meets Hons. Fielding and Brodeaur, Canadian Ministers, to resume negotiations with the government of France for extension and amendment of the Franco-Canadian commercial treaty. This will occupy a week, then they go to Switzerland and Rome. They will reassemble at Rome June 8 to discuss the proposed treaty with the Italian government regarding Canada—Italy trade relations. The Premier will attend a banquet in London then and toward the end of July he will sail for Canada.

ARGENTINE STRIKE SPREADS.

BUENOS AYRES, May 28.—The Great Western Railway Company, whose employés are on strike, has re-established traffic, having secured new men. The dissatisfaction has spread to the other lines and a general railway strike seems imminent.

OBITUARY.

Miss A. Clark.

BELLINGHAM (Wash.) May 28.—Miss A. Clark, one of the first women to cross the plains to California in 1844, died here today, aged 90. She lived alone in a tumble-down shack for many years in North Bellingham. She owned property in nearly every Pacific Coast city and was reputed to be worth several millions. She was a native of Baltimore.

Joseph L. Stickney.

CHICAGO, May 28.—Joseph L. Stickney, the noted war correspondent, who stood on the bridge of the Olympia with Dewey at the battle of Manila Bay, expired last Saturday at his home in Michigan. An obituary notice was received in this city in which the place of death was given as Dewey Lake. There is no such postoffice in Michigan, and Mr. Stickney's friends believe the name is one he gave to some small body of water in honor of his friend, Admiral Dewey. Mr. Stickney was 58 years old. Combining the double advantage of being a trained newspaper reporter and a graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis, he was unusually well equipped to report the battle of Manila Bay. He was the man who gave to the world Admiral Dewey's famous order, "You may fire when ready, Gridley."

Something New Every Day

Swelldom

521 S. Broadway. Suits, Skirts, Waists

Probably nothing tickles a fat woman more than to encounter another woman who is much fatter than herself.

Probably nothing tickles a man who is wearing a last year's Suit more than to see another man wearing a longer sack coat than he is wearing. But that doesn't happen once in a thousand times.

The 1907 Summer Suit Sack Style shows a coat so much shorter than the Sack Coat that was popular in the summer of 1906 that the wearer of the 1904 Suit is conspicuous by contrast. Surely no young man who prides himself on his appearance can afford to wear a last year's Suit when we are making specially Imported Suitings to measure in 1907 styles for $25.

TREE VANDAL STRIKES SNAG.

Caught in Butchery of Fine Old Magnolia.

Woman's Appeal Futile, but Able Aid Comes.

Wanton Act Arouses Ire of City Forester.

With ax and saw, a vandal butchered a magnificent magnolia tree yesterday on East Twenty-fifth street. He was stopped at the point of a sharp tongue by a wideawake citizen and yet may have to answer in the Police Court for his wanton work. The tree may live, although it is so badly mutilated that the hopes are slight.

The outrage is one of the first that has come to the attention of the City Forester, E. J. Harper, who has interested himself energetically in this case and will make an effort not only to preserve the tree, but to punish the man responsible for the attempted destruction of the fine old shade-spreader.

The handsome tree that was so savagely attacked by the brute with the ax is one of the relics of the early days of Los Angeles. When day broke yesterday it was the pride of the neighborhood at East Twenty-fifth street, and Long Beach avenue. With a girth of four and one-half feet near its base, it towered fifty feet in the air, and its long branches with their waxy green leaves spread far over the street in a section where there are few trees. It was laden heavily with the great, fragrant white blossoms that, to the southerners especially, bring back memories of other days in their far-away homes.

Thus was the tree yesterday morning. Today it is a mere skeleton, with bare arms lifted to the sky as if in supplication.

LOUNSBERRY TO RESCUE.

Not even a stump of the tree would be left, had it not been for F. Lounsberry, proprietor of a lumber yard at Twenty-fifth street and Long Beach avenue.

When Lounsberry went down to his office yesterday morning, he was shocked to see a man in the tree, hacking at the branches. Many of the largest limbs already had been torn away and lay in a sickening heap on the ground. The lumber man immediately got busy and forced the vandal to stop his work.

The tree stands in front of the home of J. C. Nelson, No. 1601 East Twenty-fifth street. The attack was not made by the butcher until Nelson had gone to his work, leaving his wife and six children at home.

When the fellow started the butchery, Mrs. Nelson protested. She was greeted with jeers. The slayer said he was employed by a contractor named Watts, who has the contract to grade and sidewalk that block in the street; said the tree was in the way of the sidewalk. So they were going to cut it down.

Limb after limb went tumbling down on the head of Mrs. Nelson as she tearfully pleaded that the fine old tree be spared.

Truthfully she told the chopper that for years she had carried water in the dry days of summer, from a well a block away, and had poured it about the roots of the tree.

SHELTER FOR BABES.

She told him, too, that her babies, one after another as they grew big enough, had swung in a swing from one of the limbs; that the thickly-woven branches and green leaves had given them cool shelter in which to play, when all about them was dust and dirt and burning sunlight—an oasis that was the envy of the neighborhood.

This wasn't the picturesque old woodman that we all, at one time and another, have asked to spare that tree—so he just spat on his hands and lopped off a few more branches.

Again Mrs. Nelson asked if she couldn't have a few of the limbs that had been cut off; they would make good firewood, and the Nelsons, although they own their home, haven't much money with which to buy coal in the winter.

"Naw, you can't have them," the fellow retorted, and he proceeded to cut them up in stove lengths, to be carted away in his own wagon.

Weeping at the destruction of the tree, Mrs. Nelson plucked a few of the fragrant blossoms and took them into the house.

"They are the last ones I ever shall have," she said mournfully yesterday afternoon, relating how tourists and residents called in numbers to admire the beautiful tree and to beg a few of the flowers when they were in their glory in past years.

It was after Mrs. Nelson's fruitless appeal that Lounsberry appeared on the scene. He had fire in his eye.

THIS HORSE CAN SHOOT.

Sends Bullet Through Window, Barely Missing Two Men Inside.

Someone who carelessly dropped a 38-caliber revolver cartridge on East Second street caused strange happenings yesterday afternoon, that might have resulted fatally.

It so chanced that a horse stepped on the cartridge and the steel-clad hoof exploded it, holding it while the bullet sped forth as from a pistol barrel. People on the sidewalk heard the crash of falling glass and at the same instant L. M. Gillette, proprietor of a barber shop, felt a ball graze his ear. A customer in his chair heard the whizzing of the missile and knows it came near his face. It had gone through the plate-glass window, and buried itself in the woodwork at the rear of the room.

REMARKABLE EVENT CELEBRATED TODAY.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN S. BENEDICT, photographed in their front yard yesterday.

MARRIED in 1842, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Benedict of No. 2902 Budlong avenue, will today celebrate the sixty-fifth anniversary of their nuptials. Mr. Benedict was a seeker for gold in California's earliest days, but wedding bells chimed for this happy couple years before this gold was first discovered, and many of their reminiscences hark back to the early part of the last century.

Though aged they are not helpless and dependent as one might fancy, but enjoy active, care-free existence surrounded by the beauties of their modest home in the southwest. When a Times photograher called yesterday morning he found Mr. Benedict sawing wood over the old-fashioned sawbuck, while Mrs. Benedict was working in the garden among her flowers. The day before was spent downtown on a shopping expedition, "Just doin' a little trading, to get ready for the party."

And today is their reception, where they will prove as witty and hearty as any of the guests assembled to do them honor.

"Father Time has evidently forgotten us," said Mrs. Benedict, with a twinkle in her eye, "and we may celebrate our diamond wedding anniversary ten years hence. If you live that long we will send you an invitation." And then she told of the day they had been married forty-five years.

"That was when we came to Southern California, and we celebrated the event on the train. Traveling men on the cars brought wine to my husband, who was helpless. He hadé locomotor ataxia, and we came here from Minnesota for his health, but he doesn't look very sick now, does he?" she said, smiling at the change wrought in this balmy clime. "The men carried a bottle under each arm and glasses in their hands. We had a good time that day, and the next we got to Los Angeles, and saw people carrying wonderful loads of flowers to the cemetery. We wondered what had happened, till we remembered it was Memorial Day."

Mr. and Mrs. Benedict are natives of New York but met and were married in Ohio. In 1850 he made the long trip from the Buckeye State to Sacramento, and spent three years panning gold. There were but seven in his party across the plains and they had exciting encounters with the Indians. One day when they were at the Platte River the seven had but eleven rounds of ammunition each when about two hundred warriors swept down upon them. By the diplomacy of their captain this party was not attacked, but the wagon train behind them lost all the stock that night.

Asked regarding his most thrilling experience, Mr. Benedict said: "Oh, that was sixty-five years ago, when I was married." And they laughed heartily.

Mr. Benedict became a benedict in fact as well as name when he was a beardless youth of twenty. His bride had seen but fifteen summer, and says she married him to get rid of the prosiac name of Smith. They have no children, but reared from infancy a son of Mr. Benedict's brother.

The reception today will be held at the home of this adopted son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Charles K. Benedict, No. 1586 West Thirty-seventh street.

DENTISTS GRADUATED.

Class of Twenty-five Sent Out by University of Southern California Last Night.

The graduating exercises of the College of Dentistry, University of Southern California, were held in Simpson Auditorium last night. Twenty-four young dentists were turned loose amidst a perfect wilderness of beautiful flowers, but they were admonished by the orators that there are a few cobblestones scattered along the road to success through the flower garden.

The auditorium was handsomely decorated with large clumps of fleecy mustard bloom, while the stage was banked with roses and carnations, presented in many magnificent bouquets and baskets by the admiring friends of the graduates.

The address of Lee C. Gates was one of that gentleman's best efforts. He warned the young men against carelessness and indifference, and declared that only industry and the highest inspiration to excel can bring success. He held up to them as the only example worthy of imitation, the life of the Man of Galilee, if they would build a character that will endure.

The proceedings were in the hands of President G. F. Bovard of the university, and the following programme was presented: Organ prelude, H. H. Colby; invocation, Rev. E. A. Healy; instrumental trio, Mr. and Mrs. Dian Romandy and Gounod Romandy; double quartette, "Boating Song," Woman's Lyric Club; address, Lee C. Gates; violin solo, Gounod Romandy; faculty to the class, Dr. Joseph Moody; conferring of degrees, L. E. Ford, dean of the college; "Carmena Waltz Song," Lyric Club.

RIVER GOES INTO FLOOD.

Antics of Colorado Watched With Interest in the Imperial Valley.

A dispatch from the lower heading of the Imperial Canal on the Colorado River, announces that a rise of the river to twenty-eight or twenty-nine feet is expected in the next three days.

This means the beginning of the regular June flood of the river, and the effect of the high water on the levees built to keep the river from leaving its old channel and running away to Salton Sea will be watched with deep interest by the engineers and the settlers of Imperial Valley.

There is no danger that the rock-filled dam closing the former break will fail. The only possible danger is that the flood may work under or around the levee in volume sufficient to cut a new runaway channel, and that is believed by the engineers to be very remote.

"WINDING UP" IS ORDERED.

Building and Loan Concern Has Stormy Time.

Hundred Fifty Stockholders Force an Issue.

Blame Put on Protective's Former Manager.

During a stormy session of the stockholders of the Protective Savings Mutual Building and Loan Association yesterday afternoon in the Pacific Electric building, the directors were ordered to cease taking new business. The trustees of the association were ordered to "wind up" the affairs of the association. The meeting was attended by 150 of the stockholders and at least two-thirds of the stock of the company was said to have been represented.

The meeting was the culmination of a tempestuous season of a year past for the association. Holders of stock have threatened to place the concern's affairs in the hands of a receiver, and declared they would invoke the law in order to force a settlement. Their determination to bring an issue caused the meeting to be called.

Dark clouds of discontent, followed by the mutterings of shareholders who were fearful of losing their all, precipitated the storm which broke in its fury yesterday. Determined men declared they would have everything explained. Officers of the company presented a complete report, and though at first drastic action was advised, the stockholders finally decided to allow the company to collect the assets and apply them to the reduction of debts of the association. The excited stockholders were promised a settlement in full of all claims.

Unlike most meetings of its kind was this. Men and women from the rural districts, people of small means, and several who declared they had invested their last dollar for shares in the association, sat with tense faces waiting for the financial report. The officers were careful to explain in detail the standing of the association.

STEERED BY KNIGHT.

R. Carlton Knight, secretary and manager is the man who steered the association past the rocks and rapids which threatened.

Talk of a receiver, early in the meeting, seemed to preclude the possibility of a peaceful adjustment. A sunburned farmer declared he was tired of promises, and urged the appointment of a receiver. He was an extremist, it seemed, as he failed to get a large following.

Ready at the opportune moment with a word of advice, Secretary Knight explained that with a receiver the stockholders would receive perhaps not more than 20 cents on the dollar.

Ferd K. Rule, the president, added a word. He declared that his money is behind the association, and promised the meeting that he will see to it that dollar for dollar is paid.

The situation was dramatic during the meeting, which finally resolved itself into a committee of the whole to discuss the situation. Secretary Knight stood at the table before the anxious assemblage. On his right as President Rule, and to the left Attorney Bradner W. Lee.

Soon Mr. Lee became the target for a running fire of questions. From all sides came queries which he answered, apparently to the satisfaction of all. His position was trying as each questioner who arose had to be answered before the meeting could proceed.

WOMEN NOT SATISFIED.

At least a score of women stockholders attended. They showed a surprising knowledge of building and loan affairs. One or two made speeches. Unlike the men, the majority were not satisfied with the result of yesterday's session, and so expressed themselves after the meeting.

These women represent small blocks of stock taken in the association in the hope of being able some time to secure funds to build homes. Several are widows. They were obliged to hear a discouraging report. Sad-eyed women saw roseate hope go glimmering as the secretary, in a businesslike manner, cut straight into the kernel of the report. The visions of vast dividends, of interest-bearing stock, paying 16 per cent., soon vanished as the handsome young man in the chair told in a cold-blooded, though straightforward manner, the exact standing of the association.

One woman, who sat with a baby on her knees, wept. She swept back her widow's weeds and a tear dropped upon the babe's upturned face. The child looked up in wonder and began to cry. The woman tried to be brave and brushed away the tears. She explained that her last dollar is invested in the association. That was a year ago, only a little while after her husband died.

A man sat uneasily during the reading of the report. He was shabbily dressed, and looked as if he had just put his team in the barn, caught the train, and rushed to the meeting. He tried to smile, and at last essayed a joke.

"I don't care for myself," he said, "but my wife's pin money is invested in this thing." As he spoke he winced like a man who receives a sharp cut with a whip.

But these are only sidelights of the meeting which was called for a business purpose. This purpose was to give the stockholders a chance to say what the association shall do with its funds, and how it shall try to weather the gale. The meeting resolved unanimously that the reports of the president and secretary be received and filed, and that in view of the condition of the association the directors be directed and authorized as trustees to wind up the affairs of the concern as expeditiously and economically as in their discretion seems best, ceasing the doing of any new business, converting the assets into money, collecting the moneys due to the association on loans or other indebtedness, and applying the assets as rapidly as in their discretion may seem best, to the reduction of debts and obligations owing by the association.

Mr. Knight was asked to state the exact amount of liabilities of the association. He refused and explained that it would hurt his company for the public to know the outstanding debts. He said the assets are $260,000.

After the meeting the men gathered in knots to discuss the situation. The women went home. The men declared they are satisfied with the action taken and expressed their appreciation of the work of Secretary Knight.

The burden of blame for the present situation is tossed by the officers upon a former secretary and manager of the association. He is blamed for the threatened shipwreck. It is declared that he used the funds of the company to float other and doubtful enterprises. Property purchased in Highland Park in the name of another company is said to have been secured by surplus money of the association. This fund, which was thought to be sacred and kept in reserve for just such a crisis as the present, was spent by this man, it is declared.

Byron Erkenbrecher, vice-president of the association, was bitter in his denunciation of the former manager, whose name is Blewett.

"We are reaping the whirlwind now as a result of the sowing of the wind by that man. This need never have happened if he had been square. I don't want to injure anybody's reputation, but that man certainly has much to answer for. However, the stockholders need not be concerned. We are going to see them through."

J. P. Transue, chairman of the State Board of Building and Loan Commissioners, heard the report of the meeting as he sat in the offices of the association, No. 221 Pacific Electric building. The association is required to make a detailed report to the commission, which will then take action with regard to its further continuance in business.

"The Protective Savings Mutual Building and Loan Association is acting under discretionary orders from the State Building and Loan Commission," said Mr. Transue. "These orders have been continued from time to time to give the concern every chance to get on its feet. We will receive a complete report of its assets and liabilities, and then we will take action. This may mean that a receiver will be appointed.

"I have reason to believe, however, that the association will be able to pull through. Splendid men are its officers. From what I know of Mr. Knight, he is one of the best-informed men in building and loan affairs in this city. He can make good where he is if any one can."

In the report of the Building and Loan Commissioners of California to the Governor in 1906, it was declared the "loan fund" of the Protective had been encroached upon, and the association was reported as insolvent.

R. CARLTON KNIGHT, secretary and manager of the Protective Savings Mutual Building and Loan Association.

LATER CAR SERVICE.

Los Angeles Railway Company Makes an Important Concession to City's Night Workers.

A step in the direction of all-night car service has been taken by the Los Angeles Railway Company, and while such a service may not be installed for some time, the company has shown a disposition to accommodate its patrons whenever the business justifies it. Beginning this morning, a new order goes into effect, which will be of great advantage to persons whose work is such that they are unable to catch the last cars, which heretofore have left the business center of the city at 2 a. m.

A car will leave First and Broadway hereafter at 2:55 a. m., and will be run south on Broadway to Main, and thence via Main street and Moneta avenue to the barns on Fifty-third street. Persons residing in the southern part of the city who miss the 2 o'clock cars will be able to take this later car and, by walking the distance their homes are east or west of Main street, will be able to save much time and a much longer walk.

The car, which is the last of the night, is that which at 2 o'clock leaves over the Pico Heights line. Heretofore this car has returned to Main and Pico streets and has gone from there direct to the barns. Now it will run to First and Broadway and then proceed to the barns.

CRAZED BY THE HORROR.

Section Boss Who Helped Remove Honda Dead Is in Hospital.

William Shannon, formerly a Southern Pacific section boss, stationed at Concepcion, was taken to the Receiving Hospital in a serious condition, as a result of the Shriner train horror a few weeks ago.

During his work in removing the dead at the Honda wreck that terrible night, Shannon's mind became so affected by the shocking sight that he has forgotten practically everything that transpired since. He says he remembers that he left Santa Barbara about May 17, but does not know where he spent the time between then and Sunday, when he arrived in Los Angeles.

THE PUBLIC SERVICE.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Members of the Hill Street Improvement Association protested to Acting Mayor Pease yesterday, because many have failed to move back their buildings to the new property line; these have received $200,000 to vacate a six-foot strip on the front of their lots that the street may be widened.

City Auditor Mushet rejected a demand for a premium on an insurance policy yesterday, because one of the partners of the firm of insurance brokers is serving the city as Chief of Police.

The Civil Service Commission suspended Cement Inspector Andrews yesterday because he has failed to pay alimony to his divorced wife.

Alleging sharp practice, the police board revoked the employment agency permit held by Mrs. Scott at No. 206½ South Broadway.

Harry Ballard and Allan Lewis, both of whom have broken their paroles, were arraigned in the Police Court yesterday. The former confesses that he is a "dope fiend" and that he sold all his possessions and then stole to get cocaine.

Former Mayor Snyder's chauffeur was fined in the Police Court yesterday for violating the speed ordinance.

In the Superior Court, yesterday, an injunction was granted, restraining the sale of the properties of the United States Granite Pressed Brick Company until the troubles of the concern have been thrashed out in court.

Mrs. Margaret Frey was awarded $2000 damages for the murder of her husband by a special officer of the S. P. C. A. in 1904. The suit has been pending since May 29, 1905.

W. H. Malone, who was convicted in the Superior Court yesterday, of attempting to bribe a policeman, will be sentenced Friday.

AT THE CITY HALL.

HILL STREET IN DEEP WOE.

MANY OWNERS FAIL TO MOVE BACK BUILDINGS.

Receive Two Hundred Thousand Dollars in Damages and Forget to Vacate Six-foot Strip Now Owned by the City — Board of Public Works Rallies to the Rescue.

Members of the Hill Street Improvement Association protested to Acting Mayor Pease yesterday about the delay of the street department in removing obstructions from Hill street. More than three months ago property owners on that thoroughfare, between Sixth and Pico streets, received $200,000 in damages for surrendering eighteen feet of property on each side of the street for sidewalk purposes. This money has all been paid, but most of those who received it have made no movement toward clearing the street.

A delegation of those who have paid their money that the street may be widened, called at the City Hall yesterday morning to ask why the street widening is delayed. The additional width of sidewalk is expected to make the street attractive as a business thoroughfare.

Among the delinquents is the city itself. At the time the widening was proposed the Council adopted a resolution to the effect that the city will set back the east boundary of Sixth Street Park to conform to the blocks south; no action has been taken by the city to move the property line at the park.

President Anderson of the Board of Public Works said yesterday afternoon that the board will send deputies to notify the property owners to clear the street at once. The new sidewalks cannot be constructed until all the buildings are moved back.

Five years of time have already been consumed, and $200,000 expended in this widening of Hill street; the eighteen-foot sidewalks will be a feature that is expected to enhance greatly the value of Hill-street property. On the west side the widening continues north as far as Fourth street.

POLICY WITHDRAWN.

MISTAKE, SAYS CHIEF.

City Auditor Mushet discovered yesterday that a small policy of fire insurance on the City Hall had been awarded to the firm of Purcell & Kern; the Kern in the firm is the present Chief of Police. Mr. Mushet asked the City Attorney for an opinion whether a city employé may be interested in any contract to which the city is a party.

When Chief Kern learned that such a policy existed he at once notified the Auditor that it would be withdrawn. The premium involved is but $20. Kern said last night that the insurance was taken from another firm, and he was not aware that such a policy had been awarded to his company. Withdrawing the policy closed the incident.

SHORT ON ALIMONY.

CITY EMPLOYEE UNLUCKY.

A special committee was appointed by the Civil Service Board last night to determine whether E. C. Andrews shall be dismissed from the city's service for failing to support his divorced wife. Andrews is now in jail for contempt of court in failing to pay the alimony as directed. H. Glass, the father of Andrews's divorced wife, he told the commissioners yesterday that Andrews could pay the alimony awarded by court, but would not. Glass said that Andrews abused his wife until Glass was forced to take her back home; she is still under treatment by a physician for injuries which she says were inflicted by Andrews.

Drs. Haynes and Edelman were in favor of dismissing Andrews at once, but the three attorney-commissioners favored giving him a chance to explain. Teh case was finally continued by reference to a committee.

FLAWS IN RECORD.

AGENCY PERMIT REVOKED.

Acting on a recommendation from Chief Kern, the police board revoked the employment agency permit held by Mrs. C. F. Scott, at No. 206½ South Broadway. The Chief's report was based on an investigation conducted by two plain-clothes detectives.

Two weeks ago complaint was made at the Police station that Mrs. Scott had obtained $100 from a Mrs. Ishkiyan by making false representations. Chief Kern reported to the commission that he got the two women before Prosecutor Fleming, and that Mrs. Scott practically admitted the charge, refunding a portion of the money. The Chief conducted a further investigation, and reached the conclusion that Mrs. Scott is not a fit person to hold an employment-agency permit.

Board Undecided.

J. W. Spoor failed to receive a restaurant liquor license yesterday from the police board; he is thankful that he escaped with still a fighting chance. He asked for a license at No. 801 South Spring street; Acting Mayor Pease demurred; he was not certain that the location is a suitable one for a café. The commissioners finally decided to take a week for investigation before acting on the application.

Might Be Worse.

President Anderson says that the opinion of the condition of the streets of a city depends largely on the point of view. Mr. Anderson returned to the city yesterday morning from a flying trip to San Francisco. Compared with the streets of that metropolis, Mr. Anderson thinks ours are almost the acme of perfection.

Sign Must Come Down.

Chief Kern commenced yesterday to clear from the streets the electric signs that were erected on permits for Fiesta week only. Some of the firms placing these signs have sought to have the permits continued indefinitely. The Ballon Route sign on West Fourth street must come down this morning, or it will be removed by the City Electrician; owners of other signs have received a similar warning.

AT THE COURTHOUSE.

GROSS FRAUD IS ALLEGED.

ATTORNEY SCORES PRESSED-BRICK DIRECTORS.

Temporary Injunction Granted to Prevent Sale of Company's Properties Until Matters Are Thrashed Out in Court—Former Secretary Says He'll Sue F. E. Davis for Libel.

A temporary injunction, prayed for by John M. Fisher, to restrain F. E. Davis, M. O. Whelan and Charles A. King for selling the properties of the United States Granite Pressed Brick Company to a new concern, was granted yesterday morning by Judge Monroe.

The many difficulties in which the stockholders of the company find themselves will be thrashed out in the Superior Court a week from today, when charges and counter charges will be made and met. Meanwhile all persons occupying the offices of the brick company in the Merchants' Trust building, out of which Mr. Fisher and J. Bliss Dudley had locked the other directors, are allowed free entry by order of the court.

The plaintiff in the present action, John M. Fisher, president of the United States Granite Pressed Brick Company, alleges in his complaint that Charles A. King was made a director in the company on his representations that he had a man who would buy $15,000 worth of the stock, and that he was required to sign an undated resignation. On May 25, it is alleged, the question of accepting this resignation came before the board. King having failed to make the promised sale, and Whalen, Davis and King voted against accepting the resignation.

This, declared Attorney Danford yesterday, was the grossest kind of fraud.

In arguing the petition for a temporary injunction, Danford, for the plaintiff, stated that the case presents an illustration of what a shrewd lawyer can do in dealing with laymen. He charged that F. E. Davis, attorney for the brick company and a member of the board of directors, was in league with Martin O. Whalen and Charles A. King to freeze out Fisher and Dudley, who he claims, provided the money to float the concern, and to sell the property to the new corporation for $2660. The value is declared to be $100,000.

J. Bliss Dudley yesterday issued a statement that he would bring suit for libel against F. E. Davis for statements to the effect that he, Dudley, and Mr. Fisher had misappropriated $8000 or $10,000 of the funds of the brick company.

"Regarding the statement that we have squandered money in automobile rides and other extravagances," Dudley continues, "I may say that I am the owner of two automobiles, and am in the habit of taking my immediate family and friends on jaunts and trips and never considered that the brick company was in any way affected—I am, and always have been absolutely independent financially."

OLD SUIT SETTLED.

DAMAGES GIVEN FOR MURDER.

An action for damages in the sum of $50,000, brought by Mrs. Margaret Frey against the slayer of her husband and the president of the society which employed the man as a special officer, came to trial yesterday in the Superior Court, after many delays and vicissitudes. The suit was filed on May 29, 1905.

The jury brought in a verdict of $3000 for the plaintiff.

The defendant, Charles M. Carpenter, is serving a term of five years in State prison for the homicide, which occurred on May 1, 1904. Carpenter, a special officer for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, had been sent to raid a cockfight near Burbank. Frey, seated in a buggy, was witnessing the fight and started to drive off as Carpenter appeared. The officer called to him to stop, and then fired through the back of the buggy.

N. W. Zimmer was named in the complaint as co-defendant, but a nonsuit was granted in his case.

MALONE IS GUILTY.

TRIES TO BRIBE OFFICER.

W. H. Malone, who was charged with attempting to bribe a public official, yesterday was found guilty by a jury in the Superior Court. He will be sentenced Friday.

Malone offered $20 to Policeman A. L. Mumford to induce him to refrain from aiding in the prosecution of Ada Neil, charged with a felony, who had been arrested by Mumford.

COURTHOUSE NOTES.

BREVITIES MISCELLANEOUS.

GIRL FORGER. Miss Grace Derivage, who was arraigned yesterday in the Superior Court on a charge of forgery, pleaded guilty. A plea for probation will be argued next Wednesday, and the District Attorney has intimated that he will not resist it. Miss Derivage was employed in a Pasadena law office at a salary of $5 per week, when she forged checks with the name of H. W. Hellman, making them payable to Eunice Hellman.

LADD CASE CONTINUED. Little testimony of importance was offered in the examination of Attorney C. B. Ladd, charged with obtaining money under false pretenses, yesterday in Justice Stephens's court. The case was continued to June 18, to allow time for the return of witnesses for the defendant from Nevada. On the resumption of the examination a motion for dismissal will be argued.

PULLMAN COMPANY SUED. Charlotte E. Barthoud yesterday brought suit against the Pullman Car Company for damages for personal injuries, alleged to have been received by the falling of a division board on her head while she was asleep in her berth. The alleged accident occurred on October 1, 1906, on a west-bound train in San Bernardino county. The plaintiff asks $10,000.

THE INFERIOR COURTS.

"DOPE FIEND" STEALS TO GET BELOVED COCAINE.

Twice Arraigned in Police Court in Half an Hour—He and Another Man Break Paroles and Are in Serious Plight — Former Mayor's Chauffeur Fined.

Harry Ballard and Allan R. Lewis, both of whom in days not long past, had received the mercy and clemency of the court, were yesterday arraigned before Justice Austin, and were held for trial in the Superior Court. One is charged with violating his parole and the other with petit larceny, with a prior conviction.

Ballard, just thirty-five minutes after he had been paroled by Justice Austin, was arrested by detectives on a charge of shop lifting.

Saturday night Ballard was arrested for the first time, detectives capturing him while he was peddling a box of shoe polish which he had stolen from a wholesale house.

Monday morning he was examined before Justice Austin. His boyish appearance and the story of sorrow he told won for him clemency. He was released on his promise to return to the mother in Colorado, who, according to his statement, was at the point of death from tuberculosis.

Ballard left the courtroom and was presently arrested in Hamburger's store, a fine black ostrich plume, alleged to have been stolen from the store, being found in his possession.

When the young man was arraigned the second time, he confessed that he was a drug fiend and that he stole in order to secure cocaine.

He told the court that the drug is easily obtainable at any of the drug stores of Los Angeles and that his passionate longing for the stuff had caused him to pawn everything he owned and then steal.

Ballard was put under heavy bail.

Allan Lewis was sent to the County Jail. His case is also unusual. Some time ago he was convicted of a felony but the court placed him on probation upon his promise to be good.

Several days ago he was arrested on a charge of passing a fictitious check. When the detectives discovered that he was a probation man, they simply filed the complaint against him in the lower court as a means of holding him and then incarcerated him in the County Jail.

Judge Smith's attention was called to the arrest.

Snyder's Chauffeur Fined.

After a delay of two days, E. W. DeKamp, chauffeur for former Mayor M. P. Snyder, yesterday appeared before Justice Austin in the Police Court and pleaded guilty to a charge of violating the speed ordinance. He was fined $15.

FIFTY THOUSAND HE CALLS FOR.

AND PUZZLING MONEY MAN IS LOCKED UP.

Supposed President of a Soap Company, With Book Showing Large Deposits in Illinois Bank, Makes Wild Demand of Equitable Paying Teller—Believed Insane.

After demanding $50,000 from the paying teller at the Equitable Savings Bank, First and Spring streets, and threatening trouble if the money which he claimed was due him was not quickly handed out, F. L. Horn, said to be president of the Carpel Soap Company of Illinois, was arrested by Patrolman Donohue yesterday afternoon. He is charged with insanity.

Horn when arrested had in his possession a number of checks which had already been passed through the clearinghouse. He had a pass book on the Millikin Bank of Decatur, Ill., showing an unusually large amount of business carried on between him and that institution. In several places the book showed net balances of $30,000, while the last net balance of a few months ago placed Horn's holdings with that bank alone at a snug fortune.

When Horn was taken to the Police Station he talked about his enormous fortune, which he estimated well up in the millions, and offered the attendants in the hospital large sums of money if they would release him.

A search for the relatives he claimed to have in Los Angeles proved fruitless and the Chief of Police will telegraph to Decatur and Mattoon, in an effort to secure information.

Horn was arrested in Los Angeles during the week of Fiesta. At that time his peculiar actions attracted the attention of officers and he was locked up on a charge of being intoxicated. An examination showed that he was suffering from a delusion that he was wealthier than the baron of Standard Oil, and he was released, refusing, however, to take any of his property from the desk sergeant.

Two days later he was arrested at Whittier as a suspicious character and was sent to the County Jail for ten days. He was released from the jail several days ago, and after securing his bank book and belongings he began to pose as a wealthy man. He explained to those he met that he was a millionaire and wanted to treat every one to dinners and theater parties.

Yesterday afternoon he went to the savings bank and wanted to draw out $50,000 for spending money. He said he had friends to entertain and wanted to do the thing right.

At the hospital Horn insisted that he is president of the Carpel Soap Company of Illinois, and his intimate knowledge of the financial institutions of the central part of that State leads officers to place some credence in his story.

He will be examined in the Superior Court today.

PICTURES ARE STOLEN.

LONDON, May 28.—Almost under the noses of the police who were guarding the Royal Academy pictures now on exhibition in Burlington House, one of the private galleries in Bond street, just around the corner, was swept clean of pictures during the night. Thieves got away with fifty-five canvasses without leaving a clew to their identity. The pictures belonged to an artist who was to have opened an exhibition of them today.

TOKIO, May 28.—Absolute secrecy is maintained by the Japanese government regarding the subjects it will present to the coming Hague peace conference for discussion, and it is impossible to make a preliminary forecast of the government's position. It is generally felt that the conference will not have much practical result. The Japanese press is not enthusiastic on the subject.

Purity and Cleanliness
Cleanliness is necessary for purity in foods, and especially in beer. No one realizes this important fact more than Pabst.
In the great Pabst Brewery at Milwaukee, everything is as neat and clean as in your own kitchen. Every grain of barley is washed and scoured before it is made into malt. Even the air in which the malt is grown is washed by being drawn through fourteen zinc screens, over each of which flows a constant stream of pure water.

TREE VANDAL SNAGGED.

That tree had been a joy to him ever since he started his lumber yard near by.

He commanded the butcher to get out of the tree; demanded his authority for the attack on the tree. When the fellow could show no authority from the City Forester, Lounsberry compelled him to stop his work.

FORESTER IN ACTION.

Then Lounsberry telephoned to City Forester Harper at the City Hall. Mr. Harper went at once to the spot. He has taken steps to heal the bleeding trunk and he hopes to save the tree. It is a dubious outlook.

"It was an outrage to butcher the tree in that manner," said the forester last night. "Besides, it was in direct violation of a city ordinance. The man responsible for it is subject to arrest and he yet may be punished. In a case of this kind, where such a magnificent specimen stands even in the center of the grade for the sidewalk, there is little reason why the tree should be removed. I believe the majority of people would prefer to make a detour, even into the street, for the sake of viewing so beautiful a tree.

"This instance is an illustration of the ignorance in regard to the tree ordinance that is one of the laws of the city, and one that will be enforced. No one has a right to cut down or even trim a tree in the street or in any public place without a permit from this department. Neither can trees be planted, even in the parking in front of a lot, without a permit. A little study of the ordinance and of its purposes will convince any one that its objects are for the beautifying of the city."

The magnolia that was attacked so wantonly yesterday is within only a short distance of what is probably the finest and largest rubber tree in Southern California—possibly in the United States. It stands on Twenty-second street, near Long Beach avenue, west of the tracks of the Long Beach electric line. It is a joy to the thousands who travel daily on that line.

The butchered tree is probably twenty-five years old. Strangely enough, two of the first magnolia trees to be planted in Los Angeles were brought here by the father of Mayor Harper and his brother, the forester. They were puny little switches and were sent through the mail. Hence the forester, in this case, may have a little more than his usual keen interest in the preservation of the trees.

Remains of magnificent magnolia tree on East Twenty-fifth street after vandals in violation of law had butchered it.

HOISTED WITH MANY "RAHS."

Special School Pupils Patriotically Entertain Guests at Raising of New Flag.

"Ladies and gentlemen and boys, you are welcome to our school—shake; make yourselves at home; stay as long as you can; enjoy yourselves as much as you can, and come again."

This speech of welcome was made by young Sam Foulkes of the Graffo-avenue special school to the guests who had assembled to witness the exercises incidental to the raising of the flag which had been presented to the school by the Bartlett-Logan Woman's Relief Corps.

Forty-six lads from the three special classes in the city—Vernon-avenue, Fifty-avenue and Grafton-avenue—were present. They are supposed to be the worst set of boys in the city to manage, but they proved to be the gentlest.

The City Superintendent of Schools talked to the boys about never letting the flag touch the ground, and added: "You would be the very first ones to volunteer to fight for this flag if this country should go to war five years from now."

Mr. Good, head of the Grafton-avenue school, led in the singing of "America," after which all repeated the Lord's Prayer. The flag presentation was made by Mrs. Mary F. Shenleaf, patriotic instructor of the Bartlett-Logan Woman's Relief Corps. Dr. E. C. Moore responded.

A beautiful flag drill was executed by the boys from the Vernon-avenue school under the direction of the teacher, Mr. Baldwin, and then the Stars and Stripes were raised over the building, an impressive salute being given.

The Solano-avenue schoolboys, led by Mr. Thurston, the teacher, sang, "You're a Grand Old Flag," with a special "Rah, rah, rah," between each verse.

The Grafton-avenue school gave a short recitation, and the exercises were closed with three cheers from everybody.

During the morning there were brief addresses by Assistant Superintendent of Schools M. C. Battinger, Miss May Stansbury, principal of the Magnolia-street school, and E. J. Likely, principal of the special schools.

NEWMAN CLUB FOR WATER.

Members Urged to Vote Owens River Bonds—Directors Elected at Annual Session.

Bishop Conaty was a guest of the Newman Club last night at its annual meeting. In an inspiring address the bishop urged the members to vote for the Owens River bonds. "I don't like to mix in politics, but I do like water," he said.

An interesting paper on "The Column of the Helpless" was read by T. J. Norton. It was declared that the saloon and its attendant evils are responsible for most of the crime and misery in the world. The "Gothenberg system" was advocated.

James C. Kays presided in the absence of Joseph Scott. As directors were elected W. E. Hampton, John S. McGroarty, Joseph Scott, R. M. Purlong, T. J. Norton, Count Bozenta and James C. Kays.

Resolutions of sympathy for John J. Fay, whose wife died in Rome recently, and for Joseph Scott, whose father passed away a few days ago, were adopted.

Dr. P. G. Cutter, D. F. McGarry and H. C. Dillon are a committee chosen to draft a memorial on the death of Joseph Scott, Sr. The memorial for Mrs. Fay will be drafted by John P. Burke, Joseph P. Coyne and C. C. Desmond.

MEMORIAL AT BALBOA.

Naval Reserves Are to Participate in the Exercises to Be Held at That Resort Tomorrow.

In commemoration of the Bennington disaster, in San Diego Harbor, Balboa Beach will entertain the sixth division of the naval reserve on Memorial Day.

The Governor's staff is expected to attend. The naval reserves, over 150 strong, will carry to Balboa Beach an 800-pound Hotchkiss gun that did effective service in the Cuban campaign. From this piece of artillery will be fired the salutes over the watery graves of the nation's dead naval heroes.

The Pacific Electric Company has arranged for extra car service and has announced half-rate fares for the day.

The exercises will be under direction of the Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce. Lee C. Gates of Los Angeles, and Clyde Bishop of Santa Ana, are to speak. The Whittier Cadet Band of twenty-five pieces will give a concert. The De Lano Mandolin Club will play for the dance to be held in the large Balboa pavilion which accommodates about 1000.

FINE MUSIC FOR TEACHERS.

Delegates to National Educational Association Will Be Well Entertained.

Dr. Jesse F. Millspaugh, chairman of the Music Committee of the National Educational Association, has arranged for that part of the programme during the convention week.

Bruce Gordon Kingsley will be the organist, and there will be an organ recital for thirty minutes at the opening session on Monday afternoon, July 8. There will be one or two numbers that afternoon by a vocal soloist, Miss Blanche Ruby. Monday evening, in the Auditorium, there will be two numbers by the German Mannerchor, and in Central Park a concert by the Royal Italian Band.

Tuesday evening the Los Angeles Shrine Quartette will give two selections, and Wednesday evening the Apollo Club will sing. Thursday evening Ellen Beach Yaw will be the musical attraction, and Friday afternoon there will be two numbers by the Los Angeles Lyric Club.

For the two sessions of the music section special programmes are being arranged. The Music Committee includes Harley Hamilton, Gertrude B. Parsons, Bruce Gordon Kingsley, Jennie Hagan and Henry Schoenfeld.

PART II: EDITORIAL, LOCAL AND BUSINESS SECTION

Pen Points

In the East it will soon be time for June roses, but just at present they are nursing frozen noses.

Despite the cold weather Michigan has come out in favor of Roosevelt instead of for Fairbanks.

According to Max Nordeau, phrenology is a humbug. But this is only putting another bump on it.

"Dollar making is not necessarily business," says Mr. Carnegie. As far as he is concerned it is mere play.

To an unprejudiced observer at the ring side it does not appear that Pat Calhoun is trying to do any dodging.

In some of their ways the people of Honduras seem to take after the mule that they recently went to war about.

It appears to be a tight race between Ramona and Apache Kid as to which of them died the greatest number of times.

There is a growing impression that the Republican party will fail to nominate the only man who can't defeat Bryan.

We shall not be surprised if ladies walking on the streets of San Francisco are soon compelled to wear ear muffers.

A recent parade of anarchists in Chicago is described as having been a disgrace to that city. If so, it was the limit.

There appears to be a wide divergence between the south-of-Market-street language and that used in Sunday-schools.

A correspondent asks us to inform him as to the population of Seattle. According to the Seattle newspapers it is 900,000,000.

It may be true that Bryan has come to realize that he would be defeated again, but the rumor has the earmarks of doubt on it.

The man who has charge of the Taft band wagon reports that he is thinking of putting in a large number of additional seats.

It is also noticed that Patrick Calhoun does not turn his back to his enemies, but keeps it braced hard against the wall.

The indications are that an attempt is being made to monopolize the business of San Francisco by the Spreckels Wrecking Company.

The more we know about kings the less we stand in awe of them. It has just been learned that King Edward pays only $10 a pair for his trousers.

It has now come to pass that any American citizen attempting to earn a living in San Francisco will be arrested by the police and thrown into jail.

The weather in St. Louis is very cold at present, but a few weeks from now it is likely to heat up to a point that could raise blisters on the back of an alligator.

Doubtless Mr. Calhoun realizes that trying the case in the newspapers might not be so bad if it were not the San Francisco newspapers that it is being tried in.

The chief products of Alaska are gold and cold. Of the former she dug up $21,000,000 worth last year, and of the latter more than the thermometers had the ability to record.

Perhaps the reason postal cards are not used so much now as formerly is owing to the fact that there are at present 7000 women in charge of postoffices in this country.

The disappointing thing about Ellen Terry's marriage to a man young enough to be her son is that both are satisfied and are evidently determined to live together happily.

"The Democratic party must go back to the Constitution," says Henry Watterson. Well, if it keeps going back, right along, maybe it will yet get to the place where Henry says.

Among American women Geh. Kuroki prefers the brunettes. He probably figured it out that his wife wouldn't be so likely to notice the kind of hair on his coat so much as she would the peroxide brand.

Evidently moral conditions at Panama are the same as those described at Suez by Kipling: "—where the best is like the worst, and there ain't no Ten Commandments and a man can raise a thirst."

If Mr. Ferguson of Indiana thinks the President does not know about certain kinds of immorality going on in Panama why didn't he tell the President about it instead of rushing into the public prints?

The charge that a Congressman spent $30 for champagne while on a visit to Panama lacks interest for want of details. It does not say whether or not it was his own money nor why he thought he could have any fun on just a bottle or two like that.

THE PRESIDENTIAL SITUATION.

No other subject, even these very stirring days, is interesting so many Americans as the very early contest being waged for the Republican nomination for the Presidency. There is a great deal that is chaotic in the situation. Indeed, no wisest man in all America can come anywhere near forecasting the outcome of this struggle which is to go on unceasingly for thirteen months to come.

But amid all the uncertainties, there is one which is as impossible to unravel as any of the others. A great many people are disposed to think that the President is out of the race and out of the question as a successor to himself in office. This is really about the most uncertain thing in the whole situation. Note what took place in the Senate chamber of the State of Michigan on Monday. Every member of that body went on record demanding that President Roosevelt be reelected for a "second elective" term as President of the United States. There was not a dissenting voice. One Michigan Senator suggested that it was a question which should be referred to the national nominating convention. No doubt that is where it must be referred at the end. At the same time, these Michigan statesmen had a perfect right to express their view upon the matter, and this expression of theirs will be grateful to many millions of the American people, who would hail with more delight than any other imaginable event the renomination of the President by acclamation. What his own action would be in such a case is the uncertainty in the situation. If the people of the United States only knew absolutely positively what the President would do, there would be no uncertainty in the action of the people.

On the other hand, among all the uncertainties there is one thing pretty definitely settled. Vice-President Fairbanks and a few of those directly engaged in an attempt to create a boom for this Hoosier statesman may still be dreaming that the Vice-President is a possibility as a Presidential nominee. Present indications go to show that the people have settled the question already, and have settled it in the negative.

LOS ANGELES' INFLUENCE.

Of course the sphere of influence of the city of Los Angeles in some ways has been the wide, wide world. The magnetic attraction of our marvelous climate has reached to the ends of the earth. Our reputation for good citizenship, the industrial conditions prevailing here, the maintenance of high American ideals and the enforcement of the laws against evildoers have likewise been powerful magnets.

But from a business point of view many have supposed that our influence reached but around a very small circle. The question has often been asked in the past, What is there here to support population? Another question commonly heard is, Where is your back country? These questions are being answered with great emphasis in these very latest days in which we live. The recent exhibition of things made in Los Angeles showed that there is more here to live upon than climate and sea breezes. A city whose manufacturing output is worth $60,000,000 or $70,000,000 a year shows something substantial to support a population. A territory whose single crop of oranges is worth at least $20,000,000 indicates that it has even some back country. A town with three or four transcontinental railroads having their terminal here and a system of local roads gridironing the territory as closely as any part of Massachusetts is covered, with great railroad shops and employing a total of close to 50,000 railroad employés, is surely a place with some substantial foundation under it for working people earning a living.

But these are old, old stories. The story of today with real news in it tells of an enlarged sphere of business influence whose center is in Los Angeles. Some scores of our leading business men are off this week upon an excursion to the new mining camps of Southern Nevada. Those who are of that company surely will never be at a loss again when a newcomer asks, Where is your back country? They will point far across the mountain ridges, across the desert into the hills of Arizona, Nevada and Utah, where mining towns are springing up by magic and where small areas of ground are rich as a United States mint with valuable minerals that go down into the very ribs of the earth. The story told in The Times of Tuesday about Goldfield, Nev., is of the back country of Los Angeles and the extent to which her business influence is spreading.

Now Goldfield is only one of several hundred mining camps, large and small, lying all through Southern California, the adjoining States and Territories to the eastward, reaching as far as Salt Lake to the northeast and as far as El Paso to the southeast. There have been great developments and changes in the metal world during recent years. The old proverb is, "All is not gold that glitters," but we have changed that. There is a good deal more than gold that glitters in these latter days of ours. The copper mines of Arizona are no less rich in their products than the gold mines of ancient Golconda or the silver mines of Potosi. The forty-niners called theirs the age of gold. Ours is the age of gold as much as theirs. But ours is also the age of iron, and copper, and dozens of other useful and very valuable minerals. This great Southwest has wrapped up within its mountains, cañons and plains unspeakable, incalculable amounts of this metallic wealth. The hardy miner is digging it from the earth, and the smelter and the mechanic converting it into a myriad of useful forms. It is bringing fabulous wealth into the pockets of the miners, smelters and mechanics, and Los Angeles is the metropolis where this wealth all centers.

The story from Goldfield is one of hundreds which might be told, all pointing unerringly to the concentration of great mineral wealth in and around Los Angeles. Our back country is an ever-expanding one, and our sphere of influence an ever-enlarging one. The next five years will show Los Angeles a center of development in mineral wealth that will fairly match San Francisco in the pioneer days or in the days of the uncovering of the Nevada bonanzas. The foundations of great fortunes were laid in the pioneer days for the early Californians. The magnificent blocks of building swept away in the fire a year ago were mostly constructed with the products of the bonanza mines. What took place in '49 and the spring of '50 in San Francisco, and again in the seventies, when the great bonanza development was at its height, may be expected here along the streets of Los Angeles during all the coming five or six years.

WEEKLIES NOT SO WEAKLY.

After all, there is never room for despair, but always for hope, in this old world of ours, even when things are at their worst. There is a gleam of hope across the darkened social and business skies of San Francisco as they are today.

These gleams of hope and inspiration come from the weekly press of that very much bedeviled city. The daily press of the city is among its worst influences taken at their very worst. Readers of The Times have been made acquainted with the pusillanimous, time-serving and hypocritical spirit of the San Francisco daily newspapers. The contrast between the yellow streak of cowardice which the daily press shows and the courageous stand against lawbreaking and wrong on the part of at least some of the weekly press is striking.

Undoubtedly the Argonaut, which still reveals a good deal of the fighting spirit of its founder, Pixley, easily takes the lead in this stand for law, order and justice. This virile and clear-seeing weekly says: "Mr. Calhoun will stand and fight; furthermore, he has pushed the fight to new ground, for he has declared that in future the United Railroads will deal with its employés only as individuals. . . . This radical departure from established principles he justifies upon specific grounds. He points out that a little more than a year ago his company made a contract with the Carmen's Union, to which both sides pledged acceptance until May 1, 1907. The men violated this contract by striking in December, 1906. The matters then at issue were submitted to arbitration, the findings of the arbitrators being reported in March, 1907, and at most points being favorable to the men. Within less than sixty days the union thrust aside these findings. Upon the basis of this record Mr. Calhoun declares the Carmen's Union to be faithless and irresponsible, and therefore undeserving of recognition or respect. He will have nothing more to do with it. . . . This determination on the part of Mr. Calhoun strikes deep. It assails at its foundation the whole structure of unionism, which has grown up here and has dominated San Francisco these fifteen years or more. If unionism can be beaten out in connection with the street-car system, then it can be beaten out at all other points. Organized labor will be compelled to withdraw its pretensions as the predominating force in industry and in politics, and relegated to the sphere of social and moral influences where it belongs."

This courageous declaration on the part of the Argonaut is well seconded in similar views expressed in an emphatic manner by the Jewish Times, another San Francisco weekly. This religious paper says: "That the streets of San Francisco on which cars are being operated are by no means adequately or even fairly patrolled by the police is demonstrated every day by innumerable disgraceful and dangerous incidents. During the first week of the strike a corps of hoodlums on motorcycles and bicycles spent their time in riding alongside of street-cars, vomiting the foulest insults to women, insulting the strike-breaking crews with epithets more insufferable than scab, and whenever they found safe opportunity, assaulting strike-breakers or passengers. . . . The truth is, the San Francisco police are hand in glove, not only with the labor unions, but also with all the elements of political corruption and rank disorder. Many of them are whisky-sodden and are neither competent nor inclined to preserve order. Chief Dinan is a heavy, good-humored incompetent — typical fruit of the Tenderloin. From sixty to a hundred cases of vicious assaults, to say nothing of insults, have taken place every day since the strike commenced. San Francisco's condition is not only chaotic, but the arm of the law is paralyzed. . . . Is it not about time for the great body of consumers and passengers, the real majority, the third and in reality the most important party to such industrial and economic disorders, to arouse themselves — to insist that such strikes at least do not interfere with the birthright of American citizens, that they shall not precipitate such disorder, lawlessness and shame, of which San Francisco today stands convicted by the civilized world? Labor unionism in San Francisco has been tried and found wanting. . . . Men and brethren, stand firm, stand true. Refuse to be terrorized by cowardly ruffians who insult women. Refuse to be coerced or cajoled by the term-serving and insane arguments of those who today cover up their eyes with two-bit pieces, greedy for today's custom, but blind to the fate of tomorrow. Unless the merchants and men of San Francisco face this crisis bravely and wisely, no man can reckon the evils in store. It is better to be called scabs than to be slaves."

Now comes the third portion in this encouraging symposium from the weekly press of San Francisco. The following is from a trade paper, the Grocer and Country Merchant: "Labor must realize that it has no monopoly of strikes. Capital can go on strike with just as sure determination as labor. Capital in San Francisco today has struck, and for much fairer reason than did the Carmen's Union. Apparently capital will continue to tie up the situation until labor is willing to come to its senses and consent to the fair and healthy readjustment of conditions, and the reestablishment of the interdependent relations between the two great motive powers of industry. . . . Mr. Calhoun and the United Railroads could no more afford to be continually granting excessive demands from the Carmen's Union than conservative merchants can afford to run their business at the beck and call of the walking delegates. Long experience has taught us that if labor union agitators are given an inch they will want an ell."

This same paper quotes in the words of a prominent business man of San Francisco the results of the excessive and unjust demands of the labor unions, Arnold Follak, the agent of eastern cigar makers, says, speaking of the action of the banks: "They (the banks) have put the financial lid upon the present unsatisfactory labor situation, unreasonably high prices of building material and schemes to become rich in a day by speculative extravagance. . . . The present means adopted by our bankers may hurt some for awhile, but a bad disease requires violent remedies."

To return to the Jewish Times, that paper points out why the banks were required to "put the lid" on the situation. It says: "San Francisco could not go on forever paying two prices for one service. For the building which costs $50,000 in New York, the San Franciscan has been forced to pay $100,000. Naturally and perforce, a day of reckoning has arrived. Business and industry must be restored to normal conditions, or the complete reconstruction of San Francisco will be delayed a generation. The gage of battle was thrown down by the unions. When the proffered arbitration was refused, Patrick Calhoun was not the man to refuse the challenge. The United Railroads will fight to the last ditch for the privilege of running its own business according to the law and the liberty guaranteed by this republic."

Many of these words sound clear and emphatic enough to be from the Los Angeles Times. They are about the only words yet printed in San Francisco which take a clear view of the situation and express with the courage becoming a man the convictions of the writers. There are other men than these in San Francisco who see just as clearly the facts in the case and the real injustice underlying it, but they have not the courage to express themselves as these do.

SITTING ON THE LID.

A DIETETIC DEVELOPMENT.

As one passes through the streets of Los Angeles in almost any section of the city these May mornings, he encounters a little army of peddlers going about among the homes, shouting, "Fresh strawberries, five cents a basket." There is probably not a home within the confines of the city that does not enjoy this luscious fruit from once or twice a week to every day in the week.

Go outside of the city in any direction, down toward the ocean at Redondo, up toward San Fernando along the Southern Pacific northward, and out into the San Gabriel Valley as far as the San Gabriel River, and everywhere are met great areas covering in each region an aggregate of many acres, all devoted to the production of this fruit. The amount of these berries coming into the market each day runs to scores of tons.

Some pious person is on record with the remark, "God might have made a better fruit than strawberries, but the fact is, He never did." What a remarkable development in dietetics it is that a great city of nearly 300,000 souls should have strawberries for their breakfast nearly every day in the year; and some of them, we are told, indulge in this pleasure of the table not only once but three times a day. Those of us who come from "back East" and whose memories reach back a half century can readily recall the time when not only strawberries, but all kinds of fruit, were a decided luxury, to be enjoyed only by people of very considerable means. A dish of strawberries, even to those who lived in the country, was a rare treat. The diet of the average American in old times consisted very largely of the products of bread stuffs, meats and potatoes. Today, not only in California, but in nearly all parts of the country, fruit is a part of the daily ration of the greater part of the people.

Nor is this consumption of fruit the only new departure in the dietetics of the American people. They have discarded the old régime of potatoes as the principal, or indeed, the only, vegetable regularly making up a part of the daily ration. Particularly in California is it true that the leguminous foods have very largely displaced the potato. The meek and lowly cabbage, which we remember to have been relegated only to the poorer portions of the population, has come to be regarded as a highly desirable portion of our regular ration. To this there is added here in California in abundance so great as to be enjoyed almost daily by almost all the people, the most choice of all the leguminous food plants, regarded as rareties and luxuries in times not very long past. Peas and string beans are as plentiful in the Los Angeles markets today as the strawberries. In the winter time, celery, regarded until recently as a great luxury, asparagus, a still greater luxury, and cauliflower, not greatly so but still a luxury, may be enjoyed at a very moderate expense by people in the most moderate circumstances.

There are two important reflections that arise in connection with these facts. The bearing of this dietetic development upon the moral and the mental, as well as on the physical health and strength of the American people is not easily estimated. The old-fashioned notion that flesh foods, reinforced by starch foods, were the staff of life and both the most wholesome and most strengthening things that could be ministered to the human stomach, has given place to a knowledge growing out of experience that a half, a third, or even a quarter of the amount of flesh foods formerly consumed by the average American family is most wisely replaced by an abundant ration of vegetables and fruits. About the same conclusion has been reached by the sane path of experience as to the cutting down of the enormous consumption of starchy foods, whether bread or potatoes, and the replacing of these in our ration in the same way by a liberal supply of leguminous foods and fruits. There is no doubt that physically, mentally and morally the American people will be very great gainers by this change.

The second reflection is the prosperity which this change in our diet must bring to the farmers of Southern California. Ours have ceased to be ranked as the cow counties, and we never were a very great producer of bread stuffs. At the present time nearly all our meat foods and bread stuffs are importations from outside this region. But this is the habitat and natural home of all leguminous and fruit productions. This strawberry development in our dietetics is keeping at home here enormous sums of money which otherwise would go outside of the region to pay for food, and it is making rich hundreds of the inhabitants of the country round about Los Angeles. The amount of money received in this region of country for fruits, from the orange crop, running to about $20,000,000 a year, down to this strawberry crop, and the further amounts received for the hundreds of carloads of choice vegetables shipped east every winter and spring, in addition to that sold in the home market, would amount to a sum so large as to stagger the very best informed among us if statistics were available.

We have been accustomed in times past to dwell upon the astonishing value of our lands for orange and lemon culture. The peat lands down in Orange county are proving quite as valuable for the culture of celery and other leguminous foods as the choicest orange lands even at Riverside and Redlands. Barley fields in the San Fernando Valley which used to be considered, not many years ago, dear at about $30 an acre, are today worth $1000 an acre, and are paying remarkably high interest on that price in strawberry beds.

TALES QUICKLY TOLD.

Children Were Unconsulted.

Robert Lee Bettner, the polo player, was swapping yarns with Walter Scott Hobart, another player.

"Ever heard about fellow that drove a horse car? Had a baby. Didn't know what to name it.

"'Boy or girl?' asked the minister.

"'Boy.'

"'Call it Oscar.' He did.

"Met preacher again a year later. 'Nother baby at our house. Suggest 'nother name.'

"'Boy or girl?'

"'Girl.'

"'Call her Carline.' He did."

One Was Enough.

Lieut.-Col. Thurston, when guard inspector at the New York camp at Peekskill, approached one night a German sentry, who simply looked at him and marched on.

"Well?" inquired the colonel, intending to remind the man of his duty.

"Vell, vell! Vott iss it?"

"Don't you want the countersign?"

"No dot's all right. Der feller in der guard's tent give it to me. I got it."

A New use for M.D.'s.

Raymond Hitchcock, the comedian, who is now on a starring tour through the West, was recently invited as the guest of honor to the Country Club, about five miles outside of San Francisco, after the performance. As Mr. Hitchcock knew from previous experience that a cabman would ask a fortune to carry him out to the club, he looked up the address of a physician near the theater, and after the close of the show he went around and rang the bell. The doctor opened the door personally, and Hitchcock said:

"Doctor, you're wanted immediately out near the Country Club. Can you come right away?"

"Certainly, sir. Just step inside a moment while I 'phone for my auto. We'll be there in a jiffy."

It was a good five miles to the Country Club. Just beyond a cluster of suburban homes.

"The yellow house on the left there," said Hitchcock, as he got out of the machine. "By the way, I forgot to ask you the amount of your fee."

"Four dollars," said the doctor.

The comedian peeled off four one-dollar bills and passed them to the doctor.

"That will be all, thank you, doctor. None of these pirate hackmen would take me out here for less than fifteen."—[Harper's Weekly.

HOROSCOPE FOR THIS DAY.

Wednesday, May 29, 1907.

BY COSETTE.

"A favorable day for exchange."

This is the 149th day of this year. Moon is at the full; age seven days. Jupiter is evening star and Saturnus is star of the morning.

The planets proclaim this a lucky day for business, trade, commerce, traffic of every description, transactions, contracts and agreements made and arranged on this day will prove highly advantageous returns. Goods sell, particularly live stock, purchases and bargains made during forenoon will give far more satisfaction than was anticipated. Buyers and all traveling traders in staple wares will meet with extraordinary success in disposing of their commodities at a good profit.

Those whose birth date this is will soon lose a very dear friend through a foolish prank. They will also lose a jewel or an ornament by robbery.

Children born today will have a most unruly mind and be difficult to manage in youth. In business affairs will be rash and impetuous, yet will be fairly successful.

DEATH TAKES BUSINESS MAN.

HEAD OF VILLE DE PARIS IS CALLED IN PARIS.

French Vice-Consul and Public-spirited Los Angeles Citizen Seeking Improved Health Abroad Expires After Operation, and Widow Will Bring His Remains Home.

Auguste Fusenot, president of the A. Fusenot Company, proprietor of the Ville de Paris, died in Paris yesterday. A cablegram from Mrs. Fusenot announced her bereavement. Mr. and Mrs. Fusenot were touring the continent when death came to the Los Angeles business man.

A. FUSENOT.

In the hope of improving his health, Mr. Fusenot left Los Angeles the beginning of February of this year. His condition did not improve and when the couple reached Paris, Mrs. Fusenot was obliged to remain in one of the large hospitals there. Cancer of the stomach sapped the strength of the patient. An operation was performed in the hope of saving his life. He did not rally, but died a few hours after being subjected to the knife.

Mr. Fusenot was born in France fifty-seven years ago. He came to California in 1873 and settled in San Francisco. He engaged in the mercantile trade there. About ten years later he came to Los Angeles. His abundant faith in the future greatness of this city induced him to invest all his money here. He founded the large business of which he was head at the time of his death. Trusted men whom he grouped around him became devoted to their friend. In time these became business partners in the firm, which later became a corporation with Mr. Fusenot as president.

For the past ten years Mr. Fusenot had been the official representative of France here, and as consular agent of that republic did much in behalf of his countrymen in Los Angeles. He was in close touch with the life of the French colony. He will be succeeded by Jacquard Auclair, who will have temporary charge of consular affairs here until a successor to Mr. Fusenot is appointed.

Among business associates in this city Mr. Fusenot was highly regarded. He was well known as a broad-minded, liberal citizen, who had the welfare of Los Angeles at heart. For some time he was vice-president of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association.

Mr. Fusenot leaves a widow and one daughter, Mrs. George Fusenot, who was recently married in this city. Arrangements for the funeral have not been made, though it is understood Mrs. Fusenot will accompany the body of her husband back to Los Angeles.

At a meeting of the directors of the A. Fusenot Company yesterday it was decided to close the store until Friday morning as a token of respect. It is reported that the business will be continued as formerly, without interruption.

UNION DEPOT SOON?

Wells, Fargo & Co. Purchase Property on Central Avenue—Will Be Division Headquarters.

One of the strongest indications of the probable commencement of active work on the much-talked-of Union depot at Central avenue and Fifth street is the fact that a large block of property has been purchased by Wells Fargo & Co., on the east side of Central avenue, within about 100 feet of the southeast corner of Fourth street.

The property in question is a lot 75x165 feet in size, improved with a one-story brick building, which covers, at present, the south 25 feet of the property, the remainder being occupied by a two-story frame lodging-house, which will be moved off by the grantor, Harry Houck.

The reported consideration places the value of the property at $75,000, or at the rate of $1000 per front foot. Ostensibly, the property has been purchased by W. S. Bullis, former route agent for the express company. One fact, which parties interested in the transaction seem to think significant regarding the purchase, is that the Southern Pacific owns openly or is known to control, the greater part of the frontage on Central avenue between Fifth and Fourth streets, there being only a few small lots still held by the original purchasers, who have refused to sell for less than $1000 a front foot. Many investors are said to have turned down propositions in this block, because of the possibility of condemnation proceedings being brought by the railroad company, when once it starts to building the great depot. The argument advanced is that no private individual, not affiliated strongly with the railroad interests, would purchase there with that possibility ahead.

Plans, it is said, are being prepared calling for the erection of a large fireproof building on the property just purchased, which will be used as a general depot for the express matter and also as division headquarters, as, since the conversion of the southwest section into a division, work in the present quarters has been carried on under the handicap of lack of room.

Regarding the probable commencement of work on the huge depot, reports have been in circulation that the plans for the structure have been entirely completed, and approved by the local officials, and that now they are blocked by the mass of routine matter in the eastern offices of the company, and must await the regular order of work before they can finally be passed upon, and the appropriation necessary for the structure be set aside.

$1.25 to $3.50 Gloves

On Sale Friday, not today nor tomorrow, at 95c

All the broken assortments; all overstocks of odd sizes; every glove that shows even the slightest imperfection---all told, nearly two thousand pairs of $1.25 to $3.50 kid gloves will be ready for Friday's selling at ninety-five cents.

And we will have them so conveniently arranged for quick choosing, and so many salespeople at your service, that the entire lot will be gone in a very few hours.

The collection is made up mostly, of:---

Three-clasp suedes in greys and blacks.
Two-clasp piques in opera shades.
Eight-button glaces in greens and blues.
One-clasp piques in tans, browns and whites.
Twelve and sixteen-button glaces and suedes, in odd sizes, and some of them show slight imperfections.
16-button lisle and silk gloves in black, white and colors.

No telephone or mail orders. None sent C. O. D. or on approval. None sold before Friday morning.

And, because of that ridiculously low price, you must plan on being here when the doors open at 8:30.

Our June Clearance starts Monday, two of the most important sales being:
$1 to $1.50 Silks at 75c
Undermuslins at a third to half under regular.
Particulars in Sunday papers.

"Vudor" Porch Shades

Vudor Porch Shades add wonderfully to the comforts and appearance of a home.

Without any exception the most sightly, most serviceable and most economical porch shade on the market.

Made of thin, flat strips of Linen wood fiber, closely bound by strong seine twine and stained in unfadable browns and greens.

Operate on the principle of a theater curtain—a child can raise or lower them in an instant.

Surprisingly serviceable and quite inexpensive.

Dress Goods Remnants

65c Values to and above $3 yd.

Whenever a piece of goods dwindles down to a suit or skirt length, or we're left with one or two pieces of a color, we take them at once out of regular stock and place a price on them that will hurry them out, for in a stock from which so many critical dressers select short lots or odd pieces cannot be tolerated.

That's the reason why today you may choose from genuine imported novelty suitings, high grade broadcloths in black and colors, panamas plain and fancy, voiles, eoliennes—a dozen other stylish dress goods materials, in lengths varying from just enough for a waist or skirt to whole dress patterns, at 65c a yard, though there are any number of $1.25, $1.50, $2, $2.50, $3, and even higher values in the lot.

Curtain Bargains---Sale of Linen Pieces

A special sale of fine curtains today—like those you may see in a Broadway window. Also dainty hand-drawn linen pieces.

Baldwin Refrigerators for Government Hospitals
...Twenty-Second Year...

The Baldwin Refrigerator Company has been notified that its proposal to furnish the U. S. public health and marine hospital service with refrigerators for the current fiscal year has been accepted, making the twenty-second consecutive year that this important branch of the government service has adopted the Baldwin dry air refrigerator for use in all its hospitals and quarantine stations. So highly were these refrigerators regarded by the surgeons and stewards as far back as 1884-1885, that one of them was included in the government exhibit at world's exposition, New Orleans, marked "Standard refrigerator for hospital use."—Burlington Free Press, August 18, 1906.

EVENTS IN LOCAL SOCIETY.

TO MANY friends, the news of the engagement of Miss Violet Ball to Walter T. Stone of this city will come as a surprise, the announcement being made today by Mrs. Adele May Ball of No. 1806 West Sixth street, mother of the bride.

Miss Ball, since her début two years ago, has been one of the social favorites among the young crowd. Mr. Stone is well known both in business and social circles. The marriage is to take place in the early fall.

In honor of the engagement, Mrs. Harry E. Andrews, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Adele M. Ball, and Miss Ball will entertain this afternoon with a reception at the home of Mrs. Andrews at No. 432 Park View avenue, a number of their women friends will assist them in receiving.

Mrs. Gibbon's Father Honored.

Mrs. T. E. Gibbon has been in Little Rock, Ark., where she has been visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. U. M. Rose. Her father, Judge Rose, has been appointed a delegate to the Peace Conference at The Hague by President Roosevelt. The delegates go with the rank of ambassadors-extraordinary and ministers plenipotentiary, having the highest diplomatic rank. Mrs. Gibbon remained with her parents at Little Rock until they left for New York to sail for Europe to attend the Peace Conference.

Mrs. Ramsey's Card Party.

Mrs. W. B. Ramsey entertained with a card party in honor of her sister, Miss Fern Ramsey; Mrs. John Jay Meigs of Oakland and Miss Evelyn Adams, who are visiting Mrs. Samuel S. Shepherd. The home was attractively decorated with ferns, flowers and Japanese lanterns. Misses Winfred Ramsey and Fern Ramsey, in Japanese costume, assisted the hostess in entertaining.

The first prize, a Japanese vase, fell to Mrs. R. C. McCombs, while Mrs. Dwight Satterlee won the consolation, a Japanese picture in a dainty frame. The guests were: Mmes. J. C. Brown, E. A. Lundy, E. F. Fennessey, William Sanborn, Benjamin McCready, W. E. Feuerborn, A. Annesley, W. H. Stafford, Robert C. McCormick, Samuel S. Shepherd, Misses Dent Marian Glenn, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Henry H. Judd, Mrs. Ethel M. Bennett, Mrs. Grace Sanborn, Mrs. Dwight Satterlee, Mrs. M. E. Johnson, Mrs. Lawrence T. Curtis and Mrs. Adolphus Moore.

For Miss English.

The Misses Nellie and Mildred Cortelyou gave a luncheon in honor of Miss Madeliene English, who is visiting here from Chicago. Sweet peas, ferns and ribbons were used for the decorations, the color scheme being in pink and white. The guests present were: Miss Madeleine English, Miss Maude Adams, Miss Lillian Frost, Miss Ruth Whiffen, Miss Helen Judson, Miss Anna Caswell, Miss Annie Laurie Lancaster, Miss Eula Burke and Mrs. Roy Baker, Mrs. Don Acker Dempster and Mrs. Loren Lapham Janes.

Mrs. Horton's Fete.

One of the most delightful of booths in the S.P.C.A. fete, to be given on Saturday afternoon and evening, is the "Mother Goose" booth, in charge of Mrs. W. W. Phelps and Miss Lillian Fletcher. All the old characters, so precious to the children's hearts, are to be in it, with joycus pretties to sell. Miss Ada Seeley is to be the milkmaid; Miss Margaret Hunter, "Little Miss Muffet;" Esther Lockhart, "Queen Hearts;" Virginia Nourse, "Primrose Maiden;" Hazel Ryland, "Mistress Mary;" Genevieve Faulkner, "Bo-Peep;" Mrs. J. W. Worthington, "Mother Hubbard;" Mrs. C. Jones, "Mary Had a Little Lamb;" Mrs. W. W. Phelps, "Mother Goose;" Miss Lillian Fletcher, "Dame Trot;" James Fulcher, "Boy Blue;" Lloyd Robberts, "Fat Man of Bombay;" Jack Machin, "Simple Simon;" John Phelps, "King of Hearts;" Percy Elsen, "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son;" W. H. Taggart, "Old King Cole," and "His Fiddlers" are W. H. Crouch, G. W. Crouch, J. H. Hill and S. A. Gyles.

The vaudeville is another feature which will doubtless attract a large number of spectators. That Mrs. W. F. Kennedy is to sing is a source of much joy to her friends. She is to appear both afternoon and evening.

Mrs. Berthold Baruch is in charge of the fish-pond, and has the noble ship San Pedro built, thirty-two feet long, wired with electric bulbs and decorated gayly with red, white and blue. Little boys in sailor suits will flit hither and thither, and assist in adorning the ship. They will be Arthur Baruch, Herbert Baruch, Lawrence Frank, Herbert Adler, Frederick Baruch and Alfred Newmark.

Pioneer Leaves.

Mrs. D. W. Davis will leave today for an extended trip in the East. She is one of the pioneers here, having crossed the plains with her father in a wagon. She goes directly to New York, where she will visit her son, Everle M. Davis, a practicing lawyer. Mr. Davis was formerly a Los Angeles boy, a graduate of the Los Angeles High School and later of Stanford, and then went to Cambridge, where he graduated. Mrs. Davis will then go to her home in Virginia and then to Pennsylvania.

S. M. Club Dance.

Last evening the members of the S. M. Club entertained their friends with a dancing party at Hotel Westmoore. The decorations were carried out in flowers and greenery. Those who acted as hostesses were: Misses Alice Atwell, Nellie Beacom, Clara Park, Flores Crowder, Ethe Grahamn, Lydia Kellam, Hortense Jones, Ermine Luentzel, Violet McDonald, Helen McCutcheon, Florence Osborne, Grace Rockwell, Harriet Stutzman, Marguerite Seymour, Gerna Vandervoort, May Rebman, Ethel Rebman, Amy Leonardt, and Messrs. Arnold Holman, John Hopkins, Walter Wren, Markwell, Wilson, J. Purcell, Arthur Gawthorne, Schroder and H. Wagner.

For Miss Pearne.

In honor of Miss Harriette Pearne, one of the June brides-to-be, Mrs. Theo Pinther of No. 1738 Thalia street entertained with a luncheon and box party at the Orpheum recently. Other guests were: Mrs. Oscar Geoffrion, who is to be Miss Pearne's matron of honor; Mrs. Charles Mason, Mrs. Frank Pearne and Miss Fay Cameron of San Diego.

To Celebrate Golden Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carlisle will celebrate their golden wedding with a tea on Saturday afternoon, at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Clark Carlisle, No. 1202 South Alvarado street. That evening Mrs. L. C. Carlisle will entertain her friends with a card party.

Dumont-Marquet Nuptials.

A delightful wedding breakfast was served in one of the private dining-rooms of Café Martin, in honor of the marriage of R. A. Dumont and Miss Lillian Marquet. Covers were laid for ten. The room was transformed into a bower of beauty by the artistic taste of Mr. Gaillard. Baskets of red carnations, intermingled with ferns and cornflowers depended from the chandeliers by red ribbon streamers which trained over the table among the blossoms strewn on the snowy cloth and around the beautiful wedding cake, which was a work of art. Pretty bonbons and "surprises" were at each plate. The menu was printed on dainty cards designed for the occasion, and consisted of many good things for which Café Martin is famous. The pretty decorations, together with the handsome gowns of the ladies, made a charming picture. Mr. and Mrs. Dumont left immediately after breakfast for a short trip, and upon their return will make Los Angeles their home.

For Miss Hawk.

Miss Lillie Hawk was the guest of honor at a dinner given by Col. and Mrs. H. C. Hubbard at their new home in San Fernando, on Monday evening. The color scheme was pink and green, the dining-room being arranged in pink sweet peas and greenery. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. A. Hardie, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Powell, Mrs. M. E. Griswold, Miss Catherine Hubbard and Charles Hawk.

Miss Gilbert Entertains.

Miss Margaret Gilbert of Piedmont Drive, Altadena, entertained the members of the V. C. Club, Monday afternoon. Five hundred was played and prizes were awarded to Miss Mae Gibson and Mrs. Edward Jenks. Refreshments were served during the afternoon on the veranda. Those present were: Misses Anne Gates, Mae Gibson, Ethel Fuller, Josephine Raber, Marguerite Arnold, Daisy Craig, Effie Fairchilds, Nano Whittlesey, Margaret Gilbert, Mrs. Edward Jenks and Mrs. Gilbert.

Notes and Personals.

Mrs. Arthur Read of West Eighth street has been entertaining Mrs. Dora T. Stevens of Oakland as her guest for several weeks, and Mrs. Stevens returns today. During her visit here she has been cordially entertained by many friends.

Mrs. Emory A. Warner and two children of No. 2237 Harvard boulevard left yesterday for a month's visit in Redlands.

Mrs. D. M. Riordan left on Sunday for San Francisco, where she will be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. James F. Frenealy.

GREAT MISSION WORK.

Prominent Citizens on Directorate Give Assurance of Unselfish and Careful Administration.

E. E. Leary, superintendent of the City Rescue Mission, established just six months ago by the board of directors of the Union Rescue Mission, at No. 606 East Fifth street, tells of work accomplished in this time.

In speaking of it yesterday, Mr. Leary said: "I do not attempt to give people all religion and nothing else. When a man is out of a job and up against it, what he wants worst is a job. I make every effort to get it for him, and if I succeed, there is no fear that he will ever forget the mission."

Mr. Leary was for years a switchman for the Southern Pacific Railway in and around Los Angeles, was addicted to drink but was converted at the Union Rescue Mission several years ago, and soon afterward gave up his life to the effort of saving other men from evil habits. When the new mission was opened he was selected as its superintendent.

"We believe in practical religious work," said Mr. Leary. "We believe in giving men and women a chance to help themselves, thus making them better citizens. We use every endeavor to secure them employment, and in the six months that our mission has been in existence we have helped 1600 men and women into positions. Many of them have secured permanent employment, ranging from the ordinary laborer to book-keepers in the offices of our large corporations. Of this number 718 have professed conversion, and many of them are now identified with the established churches of the city. There has been no line of nationality, color or creed in our work, and everything has been absolutely free to those in need of help. Clothing, lodging, food, or medical attendance have been given to 500 persons, in some instances girls and boys who have been rescued have been sent back to their homes and friends."

The mission appeals to the general public for help in the form of clothing, furniture or cash for carrying on the work, giving assurance of the most unselfish and careful stewardship.

The directors of the two missions are Dr. John Willis Baer, W. E. McVay, Walter H. Fisher, Benjamin F. Pearson, John A. Merrill, S. A. Brown, T. L. Ambrose, J. M. Irvine, Judge Curtis D. Wilbur, Dr. W. B. Percival, John Lowe, G. Aubrey Davidson, Leon V. Shaw, James Garth and T. C. Horton.

We heartily support and urge all our friends to vote for the Owens River Water Bonds at the Election, June 12.

Hand-Tailored Business Suits

Consider Why the Wood Bros. Clothing Excels Custom Tailoring and Others

We quote prices on suits up to $50. No doubt some think that were they prepared to pay that price better satisfaction would be found in a suit made to order.

One might as well claim that shoes made to order at $8 are of better quality and afford more satisfaction than the handsome product of the manufacturer retailed at that price.

The suits we quote and sell at $50 should and do possess unusual merit. Our garments are designed by high-salaried experts and tailored by skillful workmen impossible to maintain in the ordinary custom tailor shop.

Between our distinguished garments and the best tailoring possible in cities remote from large centers of fashion, there is no comparison possible in style and general effect.

Our suits at $20, $25 and $30 are hand-tailored in every essential detail, affording a value impossible at the price in the best merchant tailoring and not equaled in other ready-made clothing at any price.

OPPOSITION TO BONDS WANING.

Two Power Companies Give Up the Fight and Fall Into Line—Bondholders Fail to Bully the City—Labor on the Aqueduct.

FOLLOWING is a list of public meetings thus far definitely arranged, all of which will be addressed by Chief Engineer William Mulholland of the Aqueduct, and other speakers:

June 1—Pico Heights, Masonic Hall, corner of El Molino and Pico streets, President Pease of the City Council presiding.

June 3—First Ward, Woods' Hall, Pasadena avenue and Avenue 57, Carl Packard presiding and Councilman Dromgold speaking.

June 4—First Ward, Bottillier's Hall, Downey avenue and Avenue 31, Postmaster Motley H. Flint presiding and Councilman Dromgold speaking.

June 5—Seventh Ward, place of meeting yet to be arranged by Councilman Henry Lyon.

June 7—Ninth Ward, place of meeting yet to be arranged.

June 8—Turner Hall, Third and Main streets, ex-Mayor M. P. Snyder presiding and Mayor A. C. Harper, Engineers Wm. Mulholland and J. P. Lippincott and Attorney W. B. Mathews speaking.

June 10—Great final rally two days before election, Rev. Baker P. Lee presiding, and Mayor A. C. Harper, Lee C. Gates, Stanley Wilson, Engineers Mulholland and Lippincott and Attorney Mathews speaking.

Evidently the electric power companies which have been inciting opposition to the Owens River project, and trying to obstruct the city in its acquisition of land and water rights in Owens Valley, have become convinced of the futility of their effort to defeat the bonds and of the unwisdom of maintaining an attitude of hostility to the community from which they derived the privileges vital to their corporate existence and the revenues upon which they subsist.

Their attempt to bluff and bully the city into giving them control of the power developed by the aqueduct has failed, and they cannot make good their threat to defeat the Owens River bond issue. The entire community is against them; all the business and financial interests of Los Angeles are against them; they have been unable even to coerce or persuade their own employés to sandbag Los Angeles at their behest; and they have been told emphatically by men of weight and influence in the financial world that any injury inflicted by them upon the credit and the prosperity of Los Angeles would be avenged upon their own watered securities.

Two of the power companies have announced their abandonment of the fight to prevent Los Angeles from obtaining a supply of water sufficient for her present and future needs. They fought the city in Washington, and were called down by President Roosevelt. They tried to block the city's right of way in Owens Valley with bogus water filings and farcical irrigation projects. They bought land which they thought the city needed, and tried to buy other lands. They brought suits against the city to obstruct its operations in Owens Valley and to raise the price of "litigation." Under cover of a dummy they even tried to condemn a right of way across city lands in Owens Valley for a bogus irrigation ditch. They assisted in the establishment of a newspaper to fight the water project. Their agents and employés went about privately "knocking" the project and grossly misrepresenting its engineering features—until they were caught, exposed and discredited.

PERSONAL CONVICTIONS.

Two of the presidents of electric companies publicly and unqualifiedly indorse the Owens River project, and declare their conviction that the power to be developed by the city will not injure their business. There is no doubt that such has been their personal conviction from the beginning. As citizens of Los Angeles, they have realized that the very existence of this city depends upon water, and they have known that Owens River is the only available source of supply.

But as officers of corporations these men have been governed by the interests and the will of bondholders and bond dealers. They have been obliged to consent to the campaign of opposition because the eastern operators dealing in their bonds have viewed with alarm the prospect of municipal competition in the business of selling power. They have been obliged to assume, as corporation officials, an attitude determined by the cold-blooded, sordid considerations of Eastern bankers having no interest in Los Angeles, except as a source of profit. Probably they have convinced those bankers in bonds that there would be no profit to be derived from a dead or stagnated Los Angeles and that defeat of the city's bonds would call down upon them disastrous retaliation. There are evidences other than the utterances of corporation officers that the fight of the power companies against the city is abandoned.

Engineer Koebig, who has been directing obstructive operations in Owens Valley, now declares that Owens River is the only possible source of supply for Los Angeles, and that the city must have the water.

AN UNEASY SPOOK.

Spook Howton says: "I understand that the power companies were going to see through strong with money to buy bonds, but there isn't a bonds thing doing." Spook is now trying to find out if there is a corruption fund on the other side.

Now that the power companies are out of the fight and their officers are free to speak and act as good citizens for the welfare of Los Angeles, the opposition is reduced to J. D. Hooker, Hall Sammy, Ed Hutch, Veritas Vanderman of Tropico tunnel fame, and Whitaker Watts, with the Spook behind the devil and the deep blue sea.

AQUEDUCT LABOR.

The laboring men of Los Angeles, most of whom are owners of property and deeply interested in the growth and prosperity of the city, realize that the need of more water is imperative and that the Owens River project is the only adequate solution of the problem. They are interested directly also in the industrial features of the enterprise and are seeking information on several points, viz.: the character of labor required, the wages to be paid and the extent to which civil-service rules are to be applied.

The State law and the City Charter positively forbid the employment in public work of any persons except citizens of the United States. If any attempt should be made to employ Asiatics, imported European laborers or cholos from Mexico, the law could be invoked to frustrate it; and if any city official should violate the law, he could be removed from office. Besides the guarantee afforded by the law, there is the record of the water department, which shows that no Asiatic ever has been employed, and that preference always has been given to citizens of Los Angeles.

STANDARD WAGES.

The estimate of cost upon which the proposed bond issue is based was made on the assumption that the wages of unskilled laborers employed on the aqueduct should be $2.25 for an eight-hour day, the city standard. It is the purpose of the aqueduct engineers, so far as they have control of the matter, that all the work possible shall be done under direct control of the city and by day labor, rather than by contract.

CIVIL SERVICE.

The engineers and the Board of Public Works ask for exemption from civil-service examinations and rules only of unskilled laborers, expert tool men and four mechanical constructors. All foremen, mechanics, surveyors, engineers and other employés will remain under the civil service. From 4000 to 5000 laborers will be employed, and it is manifestly absurd to demand of a man seeking a job on the aqueduct that he shall go to Los Angeles, take a civil-service examination as to his ability to handle a shovel, and return to the work. The laboring force will be shifting constantly, as it does on all such work, and if civil-service regulations should be applied to the pick-and-shovel men, the aqueduct never would be completed.

So long as the foremen, the bosses, the men who "hire and fire" are under civil-service rules, no political machine can be built out of the "labor patronage" of the aqueduct.

MARINE JUBILEE.

Its sixtieth anniversary has just been celebrated by the Hamburg-American Line of steamships, which now claims the largest fleet in the world. With but three clipper ships, the company entered Atlantic competition on May 27, 1847. Now it has 371 vessels, with a total registered tonnage of 867,000. Its steamers ply regularly on fifty-seven different services, there are 19,000 employés, and in 1906 the vessels carried 432,000 passengers and 5,750,000 tons of freight. Two of the marine wonders in this line are the "Amerika" and the "Kaiserin Augusta Victoria," of 25,000 tons each, which are equipped with palm gardens, passenger elevators, gymnasiums, children's playrooms, daily newspapers and other conveniences hardly to be looked for on ocean liners.

Joys for the Suburbanite.

"Hold on to the ham and the flour and the gocart," shouted Mrs. Stubb from the porch of the cottage, "and please walk faster."

"Keep quiet, Maria," gasped Mr. Stubb, who was floundering in the snow with a great collection of bundles. "You must think I am a horse."

Mrs. Stubb laughed banteringly.

"O, no, John," she replied, sweetly. "I don't think you are anything like a horse. From the way you puff and break down every few minutes I think you must be an automobile."—Minneapolis Tribune.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

MEMORIAL DAY IN PASADENA.

THREE THOUSAND CHILDREN TO MARCH IN PARADE.

President Gates of Pomona College Will Speak at Service in First Methodist Church—Women Candidates for Board of Education. Green May Be Good Roads Commissioner.

Office of The Times, No. 38 S. Raymond ave.

PASADENA, May 29.—Fully 3000 school children will join the Grand Army, the Woman's Relief Corps and the Sons of Veterans in observing Memorial Day. A parade, which will form near the Hotel Maryland, will march through the business streets of the city and to Library Park, where services will be held. Co. I of the Seventh Regiment, N.G.C., will take part in the parade.

At noon a delegation from the G. A.R. will proceed to Mountain View Cemetery, where the graves of the old soldiers will be decorated. A formal salute will be fired by a squad of the militia company.

In the evening services will be held in the First Methodist Church, corner of Marengo avenue and Colorado street. The principal address will be made by President Gates of Pomona College. Rev. Mr. Stevens of Santa Monica will also speak.

Attorney John A. Goodrich and Kingsley Stevens, who have charge of the exercises, expect the day to be one of the most memorable in the history of the city.

FAMILY NEARLY STARVES.

It took G. H. Sammis of Defiance, O., eight months to beat his way to Pasadena to join his wife and four children. During that time he had sent them $5.

That he met with sickness, had his pocket picked and suffered bad luck on the road was the story he tried to make Justice McDonald believe yesterday, when he was brought into court at the instance of his wife, charged with failure to suport her.

He made a weak plea in defense, accusing his wife of illicit relations with his brother, E. A. Sammis, who lived at the home of his mother, the temporary residence of the complainant. The accusation was strongly denied by the accused, who claimed that Mrs. Sammis had been ill treated, being forced to wash for a living, and that the children were in dire need.

After hearing the case Justice McDonald fined Sammis $50 and placed him on probation for ninety days. Later he suspended the fine, but forced the wife and husband to agree to provide for the children in a proper manner, Sammis to pay $3 a week for their support until further settlement was made.

The woman arrived in California with $13, which she sent back to her husband to come West on. This left her penniless and, but for friends, she would have starved. She was sick when her husband finally arrived and refused to have anything to do with him. Sammis's people sided with the wife. The couple have been married since Mrs. Sammis was 16 years of age.

ASTRONOMER TALKS.

Prof. John Olmstead, of the Mount Wilson Solar Observatory, addressed the Men's Club of the Lake-avenue Congregational Church last evening. The completion of the trail over which the heavy machinery for the observatory will be carried on an auto truck was referred to. He explained the difficulty of building the nine miles of trail without more than a 15 per cent. grade.

Some single parts of the machinery weigh five tons. The auto truck originally built for ascending the mountain with the heavy load has been reconstructed, a forty-five horse-power engine replacing the old one.

WOMAN FOR BOARD?

People are taking a great deal of interest in the election of two new members to the Board of Education on June 7. The women of the Federated Child's Study Circles propose to have a woman on the board. Mrs. Mary Coman and Mrs. Lon F. Chapin have been mentioned in this connection.

Mrs. Coman is president of the Shakespeare Club and was the organizer of the Federation of Child's Study Circles.

Dr. Coyle J. Tracey is the most popular candidate in the field at the present time and the Board of Trade's committee will name another today. Unfortunately the women do not get a chance to vote at the coming election.

TWILIGHT CLUB BANQUETS.

Fifty members of the Twilight Club gathered at the Hotel Maryland last evening for the last "Dinner Meeting" of the year. Courtney De Kalb, of Boston, addressed the clubmen of "Mining as a Business." He said that he had never invested a dollar in mining stock and thought the best way to get rich in the mining business was to "mind your own business." Dr. James McBride presided.

MAY APPOINT GREEN.

In all probability W. L. Green, of North Grand avenue, will be appointed one of the three Good Roads Commissioners at the next meeting of the County Supervisors. Mr. Green has taken a deep interest in the good roads movement. He is the favorite candidate of the leading men of the city, and is heartily endorsed by Mayor Thomas Earley for the position.

CITY BREVITIES.

Dr. Stanley P. Black, health officer of Pasadena, left yesterday for Atlantic City, N. J., where he will attend a convention of medical men.

Sanitary Inspector C. F. Hudleston has advised the Board of Health to take precautions against garbage cans and wagons standing in the city during the warm weather. He believes that an ordinance should be passed to force every one to have garbage removed in a covered wagon.

Pasadena school children will observe Memorial Day in the School houses today. Veterans of the Civil War have been detailed from the local post of the G.A.R. to speak at the different schools.

Y.M.C.A. boys are planning an outing at Catalina from July 1 to August 1. The camp will be maintained as usual at White's Landing.

NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Mrs. J. J. Blick of Madeline Drive scored a social success yesterday with an Arroyo tea given at a picturesque spot at the foot of Huntington Drive. The afternoon might have been more delightful for al fresco entertaining, but the sky parlor presented an attractive appearance with its outfittings of hammocks, divans, bright cushions and rugs. A tent was erected for the serving of refreshments and coffee was made over an open air fire. Games suitable for out-of-doors were played and prizes awarded for bean bags and a hammering contest, in which each

SNAKES PLENTY ARE DUG UP.

Rattlers Numerous Are Found by Workmen Opening San Gabriel Channel.

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, May 28.—Workmen employed in opening the channel of the San Gabriel River at its mouth are careful in their labors. This morning six large rattlesnakes were uncovered by a scraper and were dispatched by clubs or stepped on by the mule teams. Six snake eggs were also found in a nest in the sand. The island beyond the river was once fairly alive with the reptiles, but of late years they have not seemed so numerous.

woman guest proved beyond cavil that women can drive nails with dispatch and success. Mrs. Ingraham and Miss Kate Bilck assisted. Those present were Mmes. Benjamin Hahn, Edwin Hahn, Charles Woodbury, George Frost, Hubert Ives, W. J. Williams, D. A. Dexter, Lucien Jarvis, Harry Prinz, J. T. Bent, Frank Burnham, J. D. Graham, E. M. Nold, M. C. Smith, W. B. Clapp, W. F Kinney and William Bennett.

Mrs. Walter S. Wright of North Orange Grove avenue has issued invitations for a five hundred party for Tuesday afternoon, June 4, complimentary to Miss Eleanor Craig, who leaves soon for an extended European trip.

Dr. and Mrs. Edward Markey entertained last evening at their home, No. 501 North Raymond avenue, in honor of Miss Thirza Green and Mr. Earl Salisbury, whose marriage will take place shortly.

Mrs. Emily Sabin and her daughter, Miss Jessie Sabin, of No. 33 South Grand avenue, expect to leave in July for an extended trip in the East.

RICH STRAWBERRY HARVEST.

Three Hundred Thousand Dollars for Growers From Arcadia Fields This Season.

ARCADIA, May 28.—Fifty-five hundred crates, or 82,500 boxes, of strawberries is this week's contribution to Los Angeles markets by the Arcadia Berry Growers' Association. Five hundred acres are now in cultivation and as many more will be set to vines next season. Next week's shipments will exceed 100,000 boxes and the output will steadily increase until the first week in July, when the vines will begin to rest. Prices have been and are profitable to growers, and it is expected, that, as the yield from the older fields in other districts will from now on steadily diminish, local growers will receive larger returns, although berry culture in this section is but six months old, the producers will net $300,000.

U.S. Charleston, Boston and Preble now at Coronado.

HOME MANAGERS COMING.

Members of the Board Are Planning to Visit Soldiers' Home on Memorial Day.

SOLDIERS' HOME, May 28.—A telegram just received by Gen. La Grange informs him that the Board of Managers, N.H.D.V.S., on its annual round of visits, will arrive at this branch on Thursday in time for Memorial Day exercises. There are in the party: Ex-Gov. of New Jersey Franklyn Murphy, president of the board; Maj. J. W. Wadsworth, Geneseo, N. Y.; Col. W. P. Brownlow, Jonesboro, Tenn.; Capt. Henry E. Palmer, Omaha, Neb.; J. M. Holley and son, La Crosse, Wis.; Col. H. H. Markham of Pasadena, local manager; Maj. Moses Harris, treasurer of the board; Col. W. E. Ellsworth, inspector-general and chief surgeon, N.H.D.V.S., and D. C. Spencer, clerk of the board. They will remain Thursday and Friday.

A treat is promised veterans at the W.C.T.U. meeting in memorial on Friday afternoon, when Rev. W. W. Logan of the United Presbyterian Church of Los Angeles will give them a "Memorial Temperance Address." Good music is also announced.

DEATHS.

CLAREMONT.

CLAREMONT, May 28.—Pomona College will meet Whittier College in the second baseball game of the series between the two institutions Wednesday afternoon, on the Pomona campus. In the first game, Pomona was the victor by a score of 10 to 7. W. Spurgeon will twirl for Pomona. The remainder of the line-up will be R. Spurgeon, catcher; Walden, first base; birdsall, second base; Canterbury, third base; Mahoney, short stop; Graf, left field; Gally, center and Metcalf, right field.

Pomona will not meet U.S.C. Thursday but will play the third game with her on Monday on the Pomona diamond. Occidental will be played Saturday on the St. Vincent grounds.

WHAT'S IN A NAME?
Ten Dollars
Ten dollars to some lucky student of Pomona College, who can suggest the best name for the new villa tract on Indian Hill boulevard, Claremont, which Frank Wheeler, of Pomona, is about to place on the market; the contest closes June 15.

CITY VIOLATES ITS OWN LAW.

WALLS FOR SAN PEDRO HALL ARE TOO THIN.

Matter Is Presented to the Board of Trustees of the Municipality and Architect and Contractor Are Summoned to Appear Before That Body and Make Statements.

SAN PEDRO, May 28.—Dr. John S. Gwaltney caused the Board of City Trustees to sit up and take notice when he appeared before that body this afternoon and severely criticised the manner of construction of the new City Hall, which is being built at a cost of $37,500, on the city Plaza. He stated that the outer and inner walls are too light for such a building and predicted that they would not stand for a term of fifteen years.

He stated that he had had a conversation with Contractor Rocha's superintendent, Charles Gregory, and that the latter had stated that "it was certainly a bum job." Gwaltney was followed by former City Attorney Frank Karr, who wanted to know whether it would not be better to abrogate the present contract, pay Contractor Rocha, tear down the building as far erected and build a new one with walls sufficient to stand the ravages of time.

At this point some one found a clause in the city's fire ordinance preventing the building of brick structures within the fire limits having walls on the ground floor with a less thickness than sixteen inches. The specifications for the City Hall now under construction provide for a wall thickness of only thirteen inches. Thus the city is placed in the peculiar position of violating its own laws.

After considerable discussion by the board, Trustee Peck suggested it might be a good plan to send for the architect and hear his opinion. F. E. Allen, an architect of Pasadena, prepared the plans, and President Walton ordered City Clerk Mason to notify Allen and Contractor Rocha to appear before an adjourned meeting of the board on next Friday afternoon, relative to the matter.

BAY CITY DRIFT.

Henry C. Downing, formerly Justice of the Peace, has bought the interest of W. H. Hyatt in the San Pedro Times, and today assumes the editorial and business management of the paper.

Capt. James Simmie, master of the schooner Alumna, which will sail tomorrow for the Columbia River in ballast to reload, is probably the oldest captain, in point of years of service, on the Pacific Coast. Capt. Simmie has piloted windjammers over many miles of the trackless ocean for nearly forty-five years. Thirty-two years ago he sailed the good schooner William H. Stevens into the harbor of San Pedro and has been coming to this port at intervals ever since that time.

WORK AWAITS HANDS.

Packing Concern in Monrovia Would Double the Number of Its Employees.

MONROVIA, May 28.—"Where can we find employés?" is the query confronting the Monrovia Preserving Company. Needless to say, Monrovia is non-union, and everybody is at work. The company is but now fairly under way, having just obtained the equipment to be used this season. Its force numbers eighteen, and will be doubled, if women employés can be obtained. Most of the work is performed by women. Not only is the company paying the highest market price for all fruit offered by local growers, but is shipping in a large quantity from other districts.

This season the output will be principally of preserves, jams, and marmalades, but the scope of the work will be greatly enlarged next year, and will include the preparation of many by-products of citrus fruits.

MONROVIA NOTES.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian Church held its annual bazar today in the Women's Club House under the direction of Mmes. G. W. Black, Charles Rherman, George L. Spence, Joseph Coombs, J. J. Stoves, Nave and Newell, and the Misses Guthrie and Morgan.

Harry E. Stanbery and family leave this evening for their home in Mason City, Iowa, after a six months' residence in Monrovia, where they have proven a pleasing addition to the social life of the city.

Mrs. Charles Jernigan and son will leave Wednesday for Chicago, where they will spend the coming summer with relatives and friends.

BONDS FOR COVINA.

Mass Meeting Is Unanimously in Favor of Issue of Securities for New High School.

COVINA, May 28.—A $60,000 bond election will be called soon by the Covina school trustees for the erection of a new High School building. A mass meeting of taxpayers was held in the present High School auditorium last night, and the opinion was unanimous that the necessary steps should be taken for a bond election at once. On account of the rapid growth of the community the present High School building is inadequate even for the present enrollment. The $60,000 is to cover the purchase of a new site.

Lieut. Rawson Warren of the Fifth United States Cavalry, addressed the members of the Fortnightly Club last evening on the Philippines, where he has seen eight years active service.

The preliminary hearing of the boys, Sam Overholtzer and Cullen Motter, charged with attempt to rape, was held this morning before Justice Marshall, who bound them over to the Juvenile Court.

The Covina postoffice has moved into its new quarters. The place is pronounced as one of the best equipped postoffice buildings in Los Angeles county.

ARMED GUARDS HOLD HOUSE.

QUICKLY TAKE POSSESSION AT VENICE.

Deputy Sheriff in Charge for Bathing Company Leaves Place for a Few Minutes, and, Returning, Discovers That He Has Been Dispossessed—Knocks Hyperion.

VENICE, May 28.—Venice had her regular full-of-the-moon excitement this afternoon. Deputy Sheriff Bishman, who was in charge of the plunge and surf bath-houses for the Venice Bathing Company, stepped out of the bath-house for a few minutes. When he returned he found both buildings had fallen into possession of the Abbot Kinney Company.

Armed guards were holding the fort and from their breasts gleamed the stars of the Ocean Park special police. Bishman had been dispossessed, and with his going Messrs. Reynolds and Bleakley found themselves out in the street.

At least a half dozen suits involving the possession of this property, crowd the calendar of the Superior Court. Attachments covering the buildings, equipment, and even the ground upon which the structures stand, have been levied. Demurrers have been filed and argued. And answers to demurrers have taken the same course, and meanwhile the points involved, as affecting the validity of the lease and the other knotty problems, are awaiting judicial determination.

The first suit brought was one by the Abbot Kinney Company against the Venice Bathing Company, for an accounting and payment of commissions alleged to be due. This was followed by the withdrawal of lights, heat and finally water, until the institution was forced to close its doors. Then followed suits of various kinds until the affairs of the institution and the status of the several actions in the courts became so terribly tangled that even those most interested hardly knew where they "were at." The Venice Bathing Company, represented by Reynolds & Bleakley, bought the lease from Henderson, who originally secured the ten-year lease from Kinney. Henderson appears as plaintiff in one or two of the suits, he alleging, that certain sums of money are still due him.

Speaking for the Kinney company, Manager Hanna said tonight that that company had taken possession of the property upon the advice of its attorney. He said the court had held that the Sheriff was not entitled to possession. The deputy was so informed and told that if the property was not surrendered the Sheriff would be held liable for damages.

Bleakley, who has been holding the keys to the place, was out of Venice today, but according to his account of the affair, as given tonight, forcible possession was taken of both houses by the representatives of the Kinney company.

KNOCKS HYPERION PLAN.

The Venice Chamber of Commerce has decided that the Hyperion outfall and trunk line sewer project is responsible for the delay in the solution of the difficulty, and the abatement of the nuisance that has been the bane of beach life for so many moons. The arrival at that conclusion found expression in the following resolution adopted last night without a dissenting vote:

"Whereas, the citizens and property owners of Ocean Park demand justice on the sewer situation, and demand that the City Trustees of Ocean Park cease to receive the sewage of Santa Monica, and that the city of Santa Monica cease to deliver the sewage of that city on the beach at Ocean Park. Therefore, be it resolved that this city will not vote bonds for the Hyperion proposal nor consent to any further continuance of the unlawful nuisance of the sewage of Santa Monica dumped on Ocean Park."

OUT FOR BUSINESS.

The Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee on manufactures and manufacturing enterprises, and a concerted effort will be made to secure the location of desirable institutions on the beach. The first effort will be directed toward securing the plant of the Ocean Park Milling and Manufacturing Company. The citizens of Long Beach are said to be trying to secure the location of this furniture factory in that city, by offering a free site and promising to subscribe for shares of the capital stock. Efforts are also to be made to secure the electrical equipment factory of E. A. Wilson & Co. This firm now has two offices in Santa Monica, and one in Long Beach, and is about to put in a factory in which to make its own fixtures. Long Beach is also after this, but the Venice citizens believe it may also be secured for this beach.

FOR PIGEON COTE.

Abbot Kinney says he is having the plans drawn for a handsome pigeon cote to be built at Venice. It will be similar in shape to the picturesque pagodas of the Chinese. In it there will be many thousand pigeons. It is his purpose to make the daily feeding of the pigeons a feature here, just as it is in the public parks of old Venice. There the meal time of the birds is a sight the visitors never forget.

Pains in the stomach are promptly relieved by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.—[Adv.

indicate skin sickness. Sometimes it's a little colony of germs that are feasting on your skin. Sometimes it is the symptom or forerunner of a much more serious skin trouble to come. In any event if you value your looks, comfort or future health, you should get rid of the trouble at once, no matter how slight it may seem. Don't risk Eczema, Erysipelas, Ringworm and other serious skin diseases by letting any indication of skin sickness run on untreated, when Littell's Liquid Sulphur stops itching instantly and permanently relieves any and all forms of skin disease, no matter what it may be.

Gentlemen: November, 1902, I contracted facial erysipelas and my physician prescribed ichthyol ointment and retirement from business. After one day's use of the ointment I concluded the erysipelas was preferrable, on account of the villainous odor and color of the ointment. Having by me a bottle of Littell's Liquid Sulphur with which I had cured, with one application, an aggravated case of prickly heat the previous summer, I abandoned all other remedies and applied that with most satisfactory results, as the disease was confined to its original limits and in due time disappeared.
Respectfully, S. G. WARNER.

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

TAKE BURGLAR AFTER STRUGGLE.

OFFICERS HAVE HARD FIGHT TO GET KNIFE WIELDER.

Early Morning Excitement in Lodging-house in San Bernardino, in Which Policemen Capture Mexican, Who Has Been Ransacking the Place.

SAN BERNARDINO, May 28.—Policemen Henderson and Cornelson had a struggle with a Mexican burglar in the Park House, a private rooming establishment at 2 o'clock this morning.

Armed with a knife, the Mexican was cornered in one of the rooms. About him was strewn plunder obtained from other rooms, and with threats of death to the first one of the officers who attempts to take him, the thief crouched ready for a spring. He is well dressed and educated. He had secured a room at the hotel for the night. He kept quiet till after midnight, and then commenced to ransack the various rooms.

Making an effort to break into the landlady's room he awoke her, and she quietly telephoned for the officers. After a hard fight he was ironed and locked up in the County Jail.

WILL CONTEST OPENS.

The Ruffen will contest commenced this morning before Judge Oster. The contestant is Mrs. Althea Bottoms, one of the oldest pioneer women in the county. She is mother of the late Mrs. Jack Ruffen, who died several years ago. Her husband died last winter leaving his entire estate to Thomas Holmes, who had been his guardian for years. The estate consists of three business blocks on the south side of Third street, between D and E, valued at $75,000.

PRISONER WON'T EAT.

C. H. Venson, or Graves, the alleged wife and mother-in-law poisoner, refuses to eat. He is apparently trying to commit suicide by starving himself. Since his arrest Sunday morning not a mouthful has passed his lips. He refuses to talk, and remains silent and morose in a corner of his cell. His conduct strengthens suspicion against him, and is also taken as an evidence that he is mentally unsound. Attachés of the Larson restaurant, where Graves was employed at the time of his arrest, tell of many strange acts of his which point to insanity. Sheriff Ralphs is inclined to believe him at least queer. As yet no report from the Los Angeles chemists has been received as to their analysis of the beer in which he is alleged to have placed strychnine.

FUNERAL OF PIONEER.

The funeral of Edward Hale was held this afternoon under the auspices of the Elks. Hale was a native of the valley. He came of pioneer stock, and his family is among the best known and most respected in the community. He died Sunday night from injuries sustained in a collision of traction cars on Chinatown hill, while going to the automobile races three weeks ago. The accident was due to carelessness on the part of the crew of one car, which was closely following the car Hale was riding on, down the grade.

BAPTIST COLLEGE PROPOSED.

Will Probably Be Located at Redlands and Will Be Non-sectarian.

Realty Sales.

REDLANDS, May 28.—At the meeting of the Board of Trade this morning, the matter of the proposed new Baptist college came up for consideration. Dr. J. N. Field, pastor of the Baptist Church, addressed the board and said that the college would be established on the broadest possible lines and be absolutely devoid of sectarianism. The influences for morality and Christian graces will be strong, but there will be no attempts to foist Baptist beliefs and doctrines upon the students.

Committees were appointed to look over the several locations for the college which are under consideration. On June 4 there will be a banquet at the Casa Loma, at which fifty or more of the professional and business men of the city will meet to talk over college matters. It now seems assured that the college will be secured by Redlands, although both Riverside and Long Beach are trying to get it.

WILL BUILD HOMES.

Fred C. Harley, brother of Percy Harley, has purchased a twenty-five-acre orange grove from Jonathan Graham on the Heights. The property is improved by a twelve-room house and large barn. The consideration was $30,000. Mr. Harley has spent two winters in Redlands and next year he will come here to live permanently.

Mrs. Anson Phelps Stokes has purchased from Henry B. Ely an orange grove of thirteen and a half acres for $16,000. It is situated on Sunset Drive and is an unusually fine piece of property. Mrs. Stokes has two other groves in Redlands, but it is said that she proposed to erect a fine winter home on this latest purchase.

Paul Wilmot has bought of J. H. Strait a ten-acre grove on Dearborn street, paying therefor $7000. Julius J. Rief has purchased the R. E. Fleming home on East Central avenue for $2300.

Work is under way for the million-dollar home of Col. Greene, the "copper king." Work is also going on on the handsome new homes of O. T. Higgins, son of the late Governor of New York, and of Dwight T. Lefferts, a local capitalist.

MAN-EATER ATTACKS.

Crew of Ship at San Diego Tells of Fireman's Thrilling Experience.

More Franchises Asked.

SAN DIEGO, May 28.—The officers of the American-Hawaiian steamship Texan, which arrived yesterday from Salina Cruz, tell of the narrow escape which Frank Fonda, a fireman on the steamer Arizonan, had from being devoured by a man-eating shark while in bathing at Salina Cruz. The attack was when Fonda was in only four feet of water. He was bitten three times by the monster. He called loudly for help, but this was not at first given for the reason that his companions thought that he was joking. He was, however, rescued before the second assault, and taken to a hospital, where he was reported as being at the point of death.

The City Council's Investigating Committee has filed its report concerning the laying of the B-street concrete flume, and the Thirtieth-street water main. Most of the blame is thrown upon the Board of Works, which organization says it simply carried out the instructions or the Council. The committee reports against the use of any more wooden pipe for city water mains, and says that within a short time, a part of the wooden main on Thirtieth street should be replaced within a year. Work on the other line would be begun in ten days.

ASK MORE FRANCHISES.

The San Diego Electric Railway Company has filed applications for two more street-railway franchises, one on B street from Fourth to Fourteenth, and the other on H street from Eighth to Twenty-fifth. If granted, work will be commenced on the B-street line within a year.

ARTILLERY ASSIGNMENTS.

The officers who will leave Fort Rosecrans soon and the posts to which they will be assigned are as follows: Col. Woodward, Fort Perry, N. Y.; Capt. Edward Hill, Fort A. D. Russell, Cheyenne, Wyo.; Lieut. D. Ferris, Fort Riley, Kan.; Lieut. Carpenter, Philippines. Maj. Gatchell of Fort Sam Houston, Tex., will assume command of Fort Rosecrans, in place of Col. Woodward. The other officers will be relieved by Lieut. Lull from Puget Sound, Lieut. Williams from Fort A. D. Russell, and Lieut. McFarland, also from Fort A. D. Russell.

SEWER BOND BIDS.

Four bids for sewer bonds, aggregating $23,937.88, were submitted to the City Council yesterday by the Citizens' Savings Bank, each of the bids being at par. On account of this and the fact that the Council has taken steps for readvertising for bids on the balance of the issue remaining unsold, no action was taken.

Revival services are being conducted at the First Baptist Church, this week, by Rev. Ray Palmer, D.D.

BOYS WIRELESS STATION.

Hugh Smith, a High School boy and son of a well-known attorney here, has established a wireless station at his home on Florence Hill, and is able to catch every message received at the government station at Point Loma.

CALLED FIRE BUG.

Frank Matsumato, the alleged fire bug robber, was in the Police Court, today, on charges of arson and larceny. Under the first he is charged with setting fire to the Hotel Imperial, and under the second of entering the home of A. G. Spaulding. Bail was fixed at $2000.

FOR MANEUVERS.

Companies A, F, G, H, K and L of the Fifth Infantry, N.G.C., will arrive at San Diego on July 5 to take part in the maneuvers with the regular artillery at Fort Rosecrans.

BOYLE HEIGHTS BOOSTS BONDS.

MEETING IS ENTHUSIASTIC FOR THE OWENS RIVER.

Water Superintendent Mulholland and Other Speakers Tell of City's Great Need and Ringing Resolutions Are Adopted by Ninth Ward Improvement Association.

The gospel of much water—regular Baptist doctrine, one man declared it—was preached to the people of Boyle Heights last night at a special meeting of the Ninth Ward Improvement Association in A.O.U.W. Hall, No. 2114 East First street.

Details of the great Owens River project were given to the assembled voters by various speakers, chief of whom was William Mulholland, superintendent of the water department. After these addresses had been heard the association by unanimous vote adopted resolutions heartily indorsing the bond issue.

Maj. A. E. Davis was the first speaker. He has been a resident of Los Angeles and vicinity for forty years, and showed the great need of more water.

"With the Owens River brought here we can invited the whole world to come hither, and they needn't bring their canteens, either," said this speaker.

Maj. Powell followed, giving the bond issue his hearty commendation. M. Lissner read the general statement of the situation as compiled by a joint committee from the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, the Chamber of Commerce and the Municipal League, and commended the general efficiency of Superintendent Mulholland and the water department.

Perry W. Weidner talked of the plans of the Campaign Committee, and then Mr. Mulholland gave a general outline of the Owens River project, and showed the necessity for immediate action. He was frequently interrupted by the hearty applause of the Boyle Heights people, who are his neighbors.

"I long ago set myself the task of attempting to discover any secret outlet for the waters of this great basin," he said, "and have met with small success. I began in 1878, when the city had 11,000 people, and the Los Angeles River was very low. It then ran but seventy-five cubic feet a second. Then came a cycle of wet years, and from 1878 to 1891 there was an excess of rainfall over the general average of fifteen or sixteen inches.

"Then there folowed eleven years in which the rainfall was deficient by about 40 per cent., and the Los Angeles River showed a relapse to this condition. The river's waters gradually sank until last year they were the lowest yet reached, although we had two wet years. The river last season reached the point where the flow was only forty-one and a half second feet—a shrinkage of 65 percentage of the flow in the river in 1892 and 1893.

"Last year and the year before we were threatened with absolute water famine; the situation is indeed an alarming one.

"From the very first I have felt the gravity of this proposition and have been impressed with the feeling that it would be a grave calamity to lead the people of this city into a bootless project. But the more I have investigated, the more certain have I become that in this project lies the salvation of Los Angeles. I am quite confident that the estimate of $23,000,000 as the cost of this project will not be exceeded.

"I believe the conduit can be completed in five years, or less. We used to think that the tunnels would be matters of much delay, but we find that the longest of these can be cut through in two years. There are no great engineering difficulties to be overcome."

It was announced that another public meeting for Boyle Heights voters will be held in Korbel Hall on the evening of June 7, at which Mulholland and Lee C. Gates will be the principal speakers.

The following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Ninth Ward Improvement Association that the Owens River project is of the most vital importance to the city of Los Angeles, and that it is the duty of every patriotic citizen of said city to vote in favor of the issuance by the city of the $23,000,000 of bonds necessary to consummate said enterprise, at the election to be held on the 12th of next month, for the following reasons, among others, to wit:

1. Los Angeles needs, or will soon need, a large additional supply of water, and there is no other known source from which such a quantity of good, pure water can be obtained.

2. Bonds for $1,500,000 have already been voted for that purpose, to wit: September, 1905, and has been expended in part at least in securing title to an abundant supply of water for this city, all of which would be a waste to the city unless sufficient amount is voted to carry out the project.

3. According to the testimony of experts and those most interested in the project the water of Owens River is of better quality than that now used by the city of Los Angeles, and the supply is abundant for all time to come.

4. A very small increase in the tax rate will be sufficient to carry out the project, and after construction the revenue to be derived from the sale of water alone at present rates should more than cover the charges for sinking fund and interest on the bonds, to say nothing of the vast amount that will be derived from the sale of power.

5. Without going into details, all of which are well understood by the citizens, as an association desiring only the welfare of the city and its people, the Ninth Ward Improvement Association especially appeals to all citizens of the Ninth Ward, as well as to all patriotic citizens of our beloved and beautiful city, to turn out on election day and vote for the issuance of the required amount of bonds to enable the efficient boards and officials who are in charge of the enterprise to carry it to a successful consummation.

FIFTY-FOUR TO ONE FOR THE WATER BONDS.

A. H. Voight, president of the California Furniture Company, at noon yesterday took a secret test vote on the Owens River bonds among his employés.

Fifty-five votes were cast, and the result was:

"Yes," 54; "No," 1.

This is about the ratio that many persons are writing down on the Times Estimate Coupons in an effort to secure a share of the $300 in cash awards to be paid for the best figures given.

This is no "guessing contest." The Times is simply paying for the best estimates. The wisest estimator will take the cash.

Times readers can make one estimate every day. Every Estimate Coupon, such as is published in every copy of The Times, is good for one estimate.

Make your estimate at once, for in case of tie, the first estimate received will be accorded the cash.

CONDITIONS.

Each estimate will be numbered as received at The Times office, and distribution of cash will be made in that order. First correct or nearest correct estimate received will secure the first cash award in each class.

In each class, $100 will be the award for first nearest correct estimate; $20 for the next nearest estimate; $10 for the third; $5 for the fourth; $1.00 each for the next fifteen, making a total of $150 in each class or $300 in all.

The total registration at the last city election was 52,354. The number of votes cast was 31,388. The total registration for this election is 53,500.

The greatest number of votes cast heretofore at a special election was 23,876.

The vote on the initial issue of Owens River bonds was: for the bonds, 10,787; against the bonds, 755.

MEN'S DISEASES CURED
To Stay Cured
"Weakness"

I not only cure "weakness" promptly, but I employ the only treatment that can possibly cure this disorder permanently. It is a system of local treatment entirely original with me and is employed by no physician other than myself. This may seem a broad assertion, but it is just as substantial as it is broad. So-called "weakness" is but a symptom of local inflammation or congestion, and a radical cure is merely a matter of restoring normal conditions throughout the organic system, and this I accomplish thoroughly and with absolute certainty

Specific Blood Poision

I know this leprous disease completely. The system is thoroughly cleansed and every poisonous taint removed. The last symptom vanishes to appear no more, and all is accomplished by the use of harmless blood-cleansing remedies. Do not submit to the dangerous mineral dosing commonly indulged in. Such treatment merely obscures the symptoms.

Varicocele
Cured Without Cutting

The time was when every man afflicted with varicocele had no choice other than to allow the disease to go on undermining his power and health, or submit to a surgical operation. Now he can choose a thorough cure by painless treatment. I cure varicocele in one week, and it is seldom necessary that the patient be detained from his business even a single day. My method is original with myself, and it is the only safe and successful treatment for varicocele ever devised.

DR. TAYLOR
The Leading Specialist

Different doctors have different ideas in regard to cures. Some call a suppression of symptoms a cure. They dose for drug effects and claim that nothing more can be done. But the real ailment remains, and will bring the real symptoms back again, perhaps the same as before, but very likely leave the patient in a much worse condition. I claim that nothing less than complete eradication of disease can be a real cure. I treat to remove the disease, and not merely the symptoms. I search out every root and fiber of an ailment, and I cure to stay cured.

The Greatest Doctor On Earth

Nature is the greatest doctor on earth. When she can't cure it is because she needs aid. Now, most people have an idea that this aid is drugs, and when they get sick or suffer from pain of any kind they proceed to dope their stomachs with the stuff that is sold for medicine. That doesn't help any; in fact, it does a great deal of harm. The dope that you put into your stomach is poison and poison weakens the organs and nerves of your body. What nature needs is electricity.

When your stomach, kidneys, liver or digestive organs get out of order, it is because they lack the necessary electricity to enable them to perform their regular functions. The breaking down of one of these organs nearly always causes other troubles. Nature can't cure them, because your body hasn't enough electricity to do the work; so you must assist nature by restoring this electricity where it is needed.

I Give It Free

Our Electric Belt does this while you sleep. It saturates the nerves with its glowing power, and these conduct the force to every organ and tissue of your body, restoring health and giving strength to every part that is weak.

Our Electric Belt is a relief from the old system of drugging. It does by natural means what you expect drugs to do by unnatural means. It removes the cause of disease and after the cause has been removed nature will do the rest.

When I began your treatment my whole system was broken down. I had kidney and bladder trouble, rheumatism that always follows kidney trouble, weak stomach, varicocele and general debility. Drugs did me no good. As for results of the use of your Electric Belt I will say that I am well and hearty; every organ works properly and I have no pain. H. L. SMITH. Granite Reef, Ariz.

Get our 80-page book describing our Electric Belt and with illustrations of fully developed men and women, showing how it is applied. This book tells in plain language many things you want to know and gives a lot of good, wholesome advice for men.

Prolonged Life

There are many persons living to-day, whom doctors have given up to die. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure has added years to their lives. It strengthens the heart nerves and muscles, restores normal heart action, so that it can send the blood through the veins to nourish and sustain life.

"I am glad to recommend Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine for they have been of great benefit to me. The doctors said I was liable to die any time; my case was incurable. I was told this by doctors in this village and Southern Minnesota. I have used four bottles of Heart Cure and the same of Nervine, and although not a young man, having passed through the war, I feel younger than I did before. I am feeling better in every way and sleep like a healthy six year old boy. I was advised to use your medicines by a man who is now a perfect specimen of manhood. He tried Dr. Miles' remedy and he said it cured him of heart trouble, twelve years ago after the doctors had given him up to die." CHAS. H. MURPHY, Verndale, Minn.

Yesterday's Forecast and Report.

U. S. WEATHER BUREAU, Los Angeles, May 28.—(Reported by A. B. Wollaber, Local Forecaster.) At 5 o'clock a.m. the barometer registered 29.98; at 5 p.m., 29.82. Thermometer for the corresponding hours showed 59 deg. and 83 deg. Relative humidity, 5 a.m., 84 per cent.; 5 p.m., 74 per cent. Wind, 5 a.m., southeast, velocity 5 miles; 5 p.m., southwest, velocity 4 miles. Maximum temperature, 86 deg.; minimum, 57 deg. Barometer reduced to sea level.

Weather Conditions.—The storm central yesterday over the valley of the Colorado has increased somewhat in magnitude, and now extends to the Salt Lake Basin. It has caused unsettled, cloudy weather in Southern California, and showers and thunderstorms in Arizona, and light rains in Utah, Colorado, New Mexico, Texas and Oklahoma. Showery weather continues in the North Atlantic States, due to a disturbance which is passing to sea off the New England coast. Elsewhere in the United States, fair weather has prevailed. In the Ohio Valley and Western Pennsylvania, sharp frosts are reported this morning. The storm in the Southwest will cause more or less cloudy, unsettled weather in Los Angeles and vicinity during the next thirty-six hours, with little if any precipitation.

Forecasts.—Local forecast for Los Angeles and vicinity: Unsettled, cloudy to partly cloudy weather tonight and Wednesday; winds mostly westerly.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—Afternoon temperatures of 90 deg. or more prevail in the great valley. Forecast:

San Francisco and vicinity: Fair Wednesday, with fog in the morning and afternoon; brisk westerly winds.

Sacramento Valley: Fair Wednesday; continued warm; light north wind.

San Joaquin Valley: Fair Wednesday, except possibly thunderstorms in the Sierras; fresh north wind.

Los Angeles and vicinity: Unsettled weather Wednesday; possibly showers; fresh south wind.

Arizona: Fair in south, showers in north portion, Wednesday; warmer in central portion; Thursday, fair.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKET.

Owing to the unsettled condition of the weather, the produce market was uneven yesterday morning. Demand for staples was light, as dealers are holding off until after the first of the month.

Eggs were steady, at quoted prices. The consuming demand yesterday was about average, and stocks were well distributed. It is impossible to accurately predict the future market, as it will depend upon the condition of the weather. It is not believed, however, that there will be a range of more than a cent for a few days. Case-count eggs sold readily on 'Change yesterday at 19½@19¾c. The first of June will see fully 100,000 cases of eggs in storage. Some of the egg jobbers think that too many have been placed in storage for the coming season in comparison with the growth of the city. Last year 62,000 cases of eggs were stored, and the year previous 42,000 cases made the total for the season. So far this year, 35,000 more cases of eggs have been stored than last year.

Butter is unchanged, though firm on heavy demand and light receipts from the north.

Potatoes and onions are in moderate supply, with new potatoes weaker. New garlic is in the market.

Shipping of fruits and vegetables to Nevada is increasing rapidly.

The fruit market was well supplied with cherries. Black cherries lead in point of demand. In box, black cherries sold at 1.00@1.10; in bulk, 9c a pound. Apricots are scarce. Cantaloupes are more freely offered at 2.50@3 a crate.

Berry prices showed only narrow changes. Peas were firmer, at 2¼@2½ in the vegetable market.

Other vegetable were steady, with minor changes.

Local fish were in oversupply and surplus stocks were sent to storage.

Green Corn 'Change: One carload of fancy Wisconsin Burbank potatoes, 15 sacks of re-assorted Colorado potatoes, 15 Daisy cheeses, 50 cases of local case-count eggs.

The receipts of produce as reported for yesterday's exchange were as follows: Eggs, 267 cases; butter, 25,647 lbs.; cheese, 1948 lbs.; potatoes, 357 sacks; onions, 200 sacks; beans, 1 sack; sweet potatoes, none.

Citrus Fruit Shipment.

Shipments of citrus fruits from Southern California for May 22 consisted of 125 cars of oranges and 10 cars of lemons; for May 23, 184 cars of oranges and 14 cars of lemons; for May 24, 123 cars of oranges and 12 cars of lemons; Saturday and Sunday, May 25 and 26, 254 cars of oranges and 25 cars of lemons; May 27, 227 cars of oranges and 13 cars of lemons. This makes a total to date for this season of 20,921 cars, of which 2241 cars were lemons.

EXTREME DULLNESS MARKS STOCK MARKET.

THE local stock market, as reflected by the action of the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, is still extremely dull, and is feeling the effects of the continued tightness of money for all speculative purposes. The action of the San Francisco market, also, is having a bad effect locally, as is shown by small number of sales, and declining quotations.

Associated Oil was the leader in the trading carried on during the early call, yesterday, fifty shares being handled at constantly weakening prices. The opening transaction was at 34.87½, while the closing trade was at 34.50. The stock eased up, as the artificial demand for it ceased, and it was offered at 34.75, at the close, showing a loss of ½ point, as compared with Monday. The bid was at 34.37½, comparing with Monday's closing bid of 34.75. The demand for futures was sluggish, only ten shares, new issue, being tied up at 36, on thirty days' call. It is becoming more and more evident that this trade in Associated Oil is pure manipulation, as one broker is selling, and another buying, both known to be hand and glove with inside interests.

Columbia Oil was the only trader during the call. One thousand shares were sold at 71½, the stock closing in light demand at 71@74. Mexican Petroleum hangs on at its low level, being quoted at 1.28@1.30. Central Oil is the only one showing a tendency upward, this stock closing at 1.13¾@1.14½. No quotations were made for Union Oil. The demand for Western Union suddenly quickened, the stock closing with 405 bid and 450 asked, the bid showing a rise of 9 points.

The bank stocks were inactive. The bonds, also, were not on the list of active securities yesterday.

The mining call was a little more active Tuesday than was on the first day of the week. Clark Copper was a trader, five thousand shares in all being handled. Prices ranged from 14 cash and 16@15½ buyer ninety days, to 13½ seller five days. The stock closed at 13¾ bid, with an offering at 14. Two thousand shares of Searchlight Western also were traded in at 5¾@5½. Eldorado Cañon shows on the sales sheet with a transaction of 1000 shares at 1 cent. The remainder of the mining list was in active.

The informal call on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange yesterday afternoon was a slow affair, resulting in very little business being transacted.

Audit of Seattle Accounts.

Owing to recent disclosure in some of the departments of the City Government of Seattle, a public demand was made that a thorough investigation of all of the accounts of the city be made by the best obtainable accountants. The City Council decided to have the investigation made, and thereupon referred the selection of the accountants to the Clearing House Association of Seattle, representing all of the banks of the city. The Clearinghouse Association considered the matter fully, and on May 23d informed the Council of their selection of Messrs. Lester Herrick & Herrick, and recommended that the Council employ this firm to make a complete investigation of all the accounts of the city from the beginning of the terms of the present officials to date. Messrs. Lester, Herrick & Herrick maintain an office in Los Angeles in the Union Trust Building, and have also recently established a similar office at Seattle.

A RICH STRIKE

the king that proves a property as foreshadows production of the big dividend-paying sort has just been made on the property of the Cracker-jack Gold (California) Company. An 18-inch vein carrying ore literally shot full of free gold has been uncovered. The main shaft is all in solid ledge matter, with neither wall in sight, and the tunnel is within a few days of cutting the big ledge. We wish to reiterate with emphasis the advice given you some time ago—buy "Cracker-jack Gold" at market; the big profits available in this stock in the past will be surpassed by those available in the future. The stock is bound to rise high. Buy all you can of it, and buy without delay. Remember only is the advice of foresight—witness Mohawk and others.

SAN FRANCISCO LIST.

Exclusive service to The Times by the Los Angeles Stock Brokerage Company, ground floor, Citizens' National Bank building. Quotations are guaranteed by the Western Union Telegraph Company.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28.—The situation in the share market remains unchanged, sales were soft, with quite a little activity developed in several issues. Montana Midway Extension, in the Tonopah camp, was the feature of the call, 35,000 shares changing hands at 10¢. In the Bullfrog issues, Mayflower Consolidated was the leader on the regular call, 19,700 shares being traded in. Jumbo Extension, Lone Star and Diamondfield Black Butte Consolidated were the most active of the Goldfields.

The San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board will stand adjourned from the close of session Wednesday, May 29, until Monday morning, June 3. Following are the closing quotations of the San Francisco Stock and Exchange Board, together with the regular call sales:

We Must Do Two Days' Business in One on Wednesday

Manufacturers' Surplus Stock — Suits : Coats : Skirts : Waists

At or Near 50c on the Dollar

Owing to the fact that this has been the most backward season ever experienced in the East, many of the largest manufacturers have been compelled to accept canceled orders for merchandise already finished, or practically so; under these circumstances the only thing they could do was to seek a ready market elsewhere for their finished products; the factories must be kept in operation, and in order to get "ready cash" no reasonable offer was refused; our New York buying organization, taking advantage of the situation of affairs, purchased very heavily of the choicest of SUITS, COATS, SKIRTS AND WAISTS. These garments are made of the most popular of this season's materials; the makeup and finish are all that the most particular woman could desire, and the purchase price was AT OR NEAR 50c ON THE DOLLAR; we are featuring this big assortment of ready-to-wear garments at the same proportionately low price. Sale begins Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock.

POLICE CARRY RABBITS' FEET.

HOPING ACCIDENT HOODOO WILL BE SCARED AWAY.

Remarkable List of Injuries Sustained by Members of Force in Last Six Months—Best Athlete Latest Victim—Jumps From Car and Arm Is Broken.

Sergt. Dan Long, the best athlete on the Los Angeles police force, fell from a car on South Spring street yesterday afternoon and sustained a fracture of the bones of the right forearm which will prevent him from attending to his duties for the next month or more.

Sergt. Long had finished his work for the day, and had boarded a car for the Los Angeles Athletic Club, of which he is an active member. At Mercantile Place he signaled the motorman to stop, but the signal was not heeded, and Long jumped from the rapidly-moving car. As he struck the ground his feet were jerked from under him, and he fell heavily, his right arm being doubled up beneath him and snapping.

Physicians at the athletic club attended the injured officer, after he had calmly walked up to one of them and informed him of the accident.

Sergt. Long's injury is the latest entry to a list of accidents and fatalities to members of the police department during the last six months, which heretofore had never been equaled in the history of the department.

Sergt. Carpenter was the first to be injured. Attemping to board a car on Wesley avenue, he slipped and fell and his left leg was so badly crushed that it was at first thought that amputation would be necessary. He rallied from the shock, and will soon be at work again.

Officer Clyde May came next on the list. While attempting to arrest a highwayman in the East Adams-street district, he was shot in the shoulder. He died a few weeks later.

Sergt. Butler was another victim. While pursuing a man who had made a sudden dash for freedom, after arrest, the sergeant stumbled, sustaining a sprained ankle.

Lieut. William Murray was painfully injured during the week of the Shriner circus. He was trying to ride one of the camels used in the performance, and was thrown and kicked by the beast. He is just recovering the use of his right arm.

Officer Ingraham sustained severe injuries to his back, less than a week ago, while pursuing a fleeing robber, and has not yet reported for duty.

Detective Tom Rico was thrown from a car several days ago, sustaining injuries to his back and arm.

Officer Humphreys of the motorcycle squad was thrown from his wheel at Kip street last Friday, and his left knee was lacerated.

Patrolman Archie Mercer dropped dead near his home on Dewey avenue last Saturday afternoon.

With this list of accidents and fatalities confronting them, besides innumerable minor ones, the police officers are all carrying rabbits' feet in their pockets and trusting to luck to break the hoodoo.

AUTO RACES WITH DEATH.

Contractor Rushes Severely Injured Workman to Receiving Hospital, Speed Squad Pursues.

With a man's life at stake and but few chances in his favor, Ernest R. Werdin, former street superintendent, yesterday afternoon raced through the streets of the city toward the Receiving Hospital, bearing in the tonneau of his high-power automobile Michael Vostivich, an injured workman.

Werdin, as a contractor for street work, has a number of men in his employ. Yesterday afternoon a gang of twenty or thirty were at work on the Pico road, west of the old Country Club grounds, when Vostivich, who was driving one of the road digging machines, was thrown from his seat and under the sharp knives.

His right foot was mashed, three toes being torn off and a large artery in his foot severed. His fellow workmen bandaged the injury as quickly as possible, but it was soon evident that unless the suffering man could be taken to a hospital without delay his life would pay the penalty.

Vostivich is a Slavonian and refused to go to the hospital. He said his people would take care of him and that he did not believe in the treatment of doctors. When his comrades tried to persuade him, he resisted, declaring that if they forced him too far he would tear the bandages from his foot.

At that point the foreman of the gang sent a hurry call for Werdin. The contractor was at his down-town office. He jumped into his machine and dashed to the Receiving Hospital. There Dr. Bonygne, police surgeon, was taken into the auto and the machine was headed for the scene of the accident.

On Spring street Bonynge saw the patrol ambulance hurrying toward the hospital and, as it was his shift at the hospital, he leaped from the auto and hurried back to the station. A block further on, Dr. Garret, chief of the hospital surgeons, answered a distress signal from Werdin and was taken into the car. From there to the Pico road, where the injured man was being cared for by his comrades, it was a question of speed.

Vostivich refused to enter the automobile and the police surgeon lifted him up and put him in the tonneau. There he held him while Werdin, upon learning that the man's wound was bleeding considerable, threw on the high power lever for the dash back to the hospital.

Near Seventh street the officers of the motorcycle squad took up the chase, but upon seeing the police surgeon and his burden in the tonneau, they gave up the pursuit.

At the hospital Vostivich fought against being treated by American surgeons and nurses were compelled to hold him down on the operating table while surgeons hurriedly stopped the flow of blood from the crushed and dismembered foot. The injury was then quickly dressed, Vostivich figthing all the while. Then, for the second time, he was lifted into the automobile and taken to his home and friends.

"SPIRIT" IS DAZZLED.

Police Interrupt Seance With Flash Light—All That Is Material Arrested.

Leo de Mazininanda, Cora H. Moore and John Moore were arrested last night by detectives at the instigation of an anti-spiritualistic organization. De Mazininanda and the Moore woman are charged with conducting seances without a license and Moore is charged with obtaining money under false pretences.

De Mazininanda was recently fined in court $150 on a similar charge. He is said to have been the organizer of the Spiritualistic Protective Association. He has an office at No. 937 South Broadway.

During a seance at the Moore residence at No. 516 West Ninth street the police threw a flash light upon a "spirit" and that ended the proceedings. The spiritualists rushed upon the officers but refrained from violence. They were taken to Central Station.

M'GILL ON TRIAL FOR HIS JOB.

HEALTH OFFICE CLERK FACES VARIOUS CHARGES.

Row in the City Health Department Being Fully Aired Before the Board of Civil Service Commissioners—Political Club Records Held as Evidence Against Accused.

The campaign books of the Fourth Ward Republican Club played a prominent part in the trial of Clerk McGill last night before the Civil Service Board.

For three hours the commissioners listened to testimony, furnished chiefly by Health Officer Powers. It appears that the Health Officer is desirous of ridding himself of his clerk, but he found it difficult to cite specific circumstances of gross insubordination.

Just as the hearing was about to close for the evening, Assistant Clerk Sief produced some books that he found recently in the safe of the health department. Among them were the poll books of the Fourth Ward, taken by the Republican Club.

Commissioner Edelman suddenly began to take notice. "I desire right here to instruct our secretary to freeze on to those books," he said, "I think I shall look over them myself tomorrow."

John H. Foley, associate counsel for McGill, called attention to the dates in the books; they were for the municipal campaigns of 1902 and 1904. "These can have no part in this trial?" he urged.

"They show at least that his past associations were bad," responded Commissioner Haynes, "they are worthy a closer inspection."

The fact was brought out by the testimony of Health Officer Powers that a happy-go-lucky condition exists in the health office. There is no time clock in the department; inspectors report at the office when the spirit moves them.

Ninety-odd witnesses were present to testify; but only three of them were heard. Taking of testimony will continue tonight and possibly every night this week.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Johnson of Colorado Springs, accompanied by T. D. Phelps of Denver, who are spending a few weeks in Southern California, returned last evening from a fishing trip at Catalina.

Dr. J. P. Lassen of San Francisco, and his bride, are guests at the Westminster. Their honeymood has been spent in a three-weeks' tour through Mexico.

Milton Doolittle is here from Berkeley. Among old-time friends he is visiting are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Long of Hollywood, whom he formerly knew at Onarga, Ill.

MAY BE MURDERER.

Police Think Man Arrested for Smashing Furniture Is Wanted in Santa Barbara.

Information gained by detectives after the arrest of Juan Madano last night on the charge of battery, leads them to believe that he is wanted in Santa Barbara on a charge of attempt to murder.

When in a fit of excitement, caused by over indulgence in liquor on Monday, Madano entered the room occupied by J. Siava, his landlord, at No. 1552 San Fernando street, and attacked him. After a scuffle Madano left the house, but soon returned, carrying an ax. With this he demolished several pieces of furniture. At the City Jail Madano was recognized as a man who had served time before.

The police have communicated with Santa Barbara officials. They say that Madano has been in hiding in Los Angeles for a year.
